the first Brinson Coat of Arms to Phillip Brinson, landowner, of Audley Hall, Audley Eng..... The authorities of Coat of Arms differ in their interpretation and there are several which claim certification of a Brinson Coat of Arms. The explanations of meanings of Heraldry, Armory and the romance of this search , if not confusing, is exhausting. I have several different variations. So to each his own.

Some Brinsons went to the Holy land on the third Crusade led by Richard the Lionhearted, ca 1189. He captured the great Port of Acre, but could not recapture Jerusalem. I have a copy of one coat of arms which was researched , if anyone wants a copy.

In 1600-1700 period the leading landed Brinson family was the Brinson's of Brimstone Hill , Essex. It is in this period that Thomas Brinson of Norfolk, Va. is recorded, being the first generation in the American Colonies. He died in 1676 leaving a will.

An examination of the English parish records at this time shows Thomas Brinson born April 18, 1596, at Romford, Essex; Thomas Brinson, born July 4, 1601, at Hatfield Peverel, Essex; Thomas Brinson, born Aug. 14 , at Bishopsgate, London; It seems that Thomas Brinson , born Jan 12, 1610, at Wanstead , Essex fits into our own particular time frame. In the 1700-1900 period ten Brinson branches are found in Essex.

The Normans' were in male -line descent, Norsemen or Vikings, but by 1066 they had more or less forgotten their ancestry. Norse speech almost died out in Normandy and the Normans spoke French. England owned several provinces of France, Holland and Germany until the French Revolution which followed our own American Revolution.

INTRODUCTION

We hope this book will be an edifice, and shall be inscribed on the Walls of the Library of Congress, to those of our family who have passed this way before us.

This story is of life , its joys, marriage, the love of children, death, generation after generation, but we who are here today move forward, wistfully, reflecting on our beautiful memories of an age gone by.

I'm sure there were few angels in this family, but I choose to see only the good in all and feel a part of the life they lived; their joys, their tribulations, the making of their daily bread. They loved the Lord as witnessed by the names given to their offspring of bibical background.

A youth once said, "I'm going to quit this church, its filled with nothing but hypocrites and sinners," His friend, wiser than his years replied, "He who is sick, goes to a hospital; is it not right, then, to think of the church as a hospital for sinners and hypocrites in stead of proclaiming blasphemy upon those who attend.' So it has been my wish to reach out and touch those whom we could and expound upon their lives in a way that future generations would know that we cared, we knew them and we shared a moment in time as time marched us by.

The lovely ladies of this genealogy married fine men of every profession yet I reluctantly tried to confine their research to a maximum of three generations. I found that to follow the sweet aroma of these lovely roses led me too far astray from the straight and narrow path which I had, to fully credit the BRINSON NAME

The first was Thomas Brinson and his family. If there were any girls in this family they are not named. Here is the second listing found by niece Marian. Although I have had correspondence with some descendants of this family, I have not as yet collected much information on them.

"From a Registry of all the People in the County of Bucks."

Arrivals: "Daniel Brinson, of Membury Parish in the County of Devon, arrived in this river the 28th, 7th mo. 1677, in the Willing Mind, of London, the Master's name was Lucome."

"Maryed, the 8th day of the 8th month, 1681, to Frances Greenland, of East Jersey."

Frances was the daughter of a prominent physician, Dr. Greenland. Daniel evidently stayed in East Jersey because some descendants fought in the Revolutionary War and are listed in the first Census of 1790.

At the time of Daniel's arrival the river mentioned was the Delaware. Perhaps the master was looking for the Virginia coast just south of Delaware Bay. The river had not yet been named. The only settlement on the river was a few people on Tinicum Island a few miles south of what is now Philadelphia. That city had not been settled and was no more than possibly an Indian landing. They sailed on up the river to what became Bucks County.

I'm sure this family will eventually be tied to Thomas and family because Essex County and Devon County are not that far away from each other.

In America the Brinson Family begins with Thomas Brinson and his wife Joyce. Thomas Jn'r , Mathew, John and Robert. In the beginning the prime intention was to publish a book including all of the Brinson Family however this book deals not only with birth, marriage and death but the life of the individual complete. In narrative form the wealth of information in the record enables us to partially present a biographical sketch for most of those honored souls. In our history there was only one biographical sketch in print. That of Samuel Mitchell Brinson , Congressman from New Bern, N. C. to the Sixty-sixth and Sixty-seventh Congresses. Consequently this book deals with the beginning of the Brinson generations in America in general and with the descendants of Cason Brinson Sr. in particular. Therefore from "The Brinson Family in America" this first volume shall be called "HERE , THERE, AND YONDER." A search for the Brinson Family in America.

The decendants of Thomas, John, and Robert will be dealt with in subsequent proposed volumes . Many of John's descendants wound up in South Carolina and Georgia. Many others remained in Tidewater , Virginia. Many remained in Onslow , Duplin and New Hanover Counties in North Carolina., where they had migrated from Princess Anne County, Va.

The Brinsons' have pursued every profession and craft and have distinguished themselve in many ways. The greatest of these has been that of farmer, and we offer the following tribute to him.

CONSIDER THE FARMER

In the early era of our ancestry in this country he was known as a Planter, Plantation owner, but any way you look at it he tilled the land.

When those who divided man's labor into professions , surely they must have placed the farmer at the head of the list. His knowledge may not be regarded as learned, or obtained from the likes of those who have written books, though some have attained that status, his knowledge is TRUTH. In its simplest form, in its most intricate display, his teacher is TRUTH. He has learned from the laws of nature. How things grow green and when. He has observed growth, maturity, seed to regenerate for another time and perhaps another place. When the tombs of the Pharoah's were opened, the grains and seeds left there for him to take on his trip to wherever was his belief, have been planted, after thousands of years lying dormant, they sprung to life again when placed in the soil.

Truth is the way of all life. The farmer knows this. His ability to perceive has been honed to a fine edge, observing the trees that grow, that turn green, the weed or plant expires and turns certain shades, the leaves of the trees and plants. Why does the Maple turn into one color, the oak another, all the other plant lifes expire at the end of the season and turn into all colors. Even the stately or knotty pine sheds it evergreen and turns color. The observation of the corn, foodstuffs that grow and their cultivation. The scientist can tell you what chemical reaction law is taking place, but when asked "from whence cometh these laws," he cannot answer. This is not a matter for mathematical equation.

LINCOLN SAID " you can fool all the people some of the time and some of the people all of the time but you can't fool all the people all the time. "

Don't try to fool a farmer with man-made laws or double talk. Don't try to best him. You will find out which is the wiser man, because the farmer lives too near the Truth not to know what is right and what is wrong in a given situation. There are principles that cannot be bridged by wrong. He will recognize it every time. Guided by parables of so-called folk-lore, handed down from generation to generation of observing nature, animals and man, he will sometimes extol these parables derived from TRUTH.

Thomas Brinson, his wife Joyce, sons Thos. Jun'r., Mathew, Jno. and Robert Brinson arrived at an area south of Cape Henry in the Colony of Virginia ca. 1650-54.

We believe they entered the mainland through an inlet, un charted, which became known as Brinson's Inlet. Brinson's Inlet is recorded on many land transfer and survey documents. The area became known as Brinson's Quarter, which is also referred to in many documents. The area became known also as Dam Nicke or Dam Neck because of what seemed to be beaver dams. Areas near the ocean with a strip of land between the ocean and land were named "neck".

The only remaining evidence of Brinson's Inlet is the recording of a map made by Benedict Arnold for the British about 1780, (see map) during the revolutionary War. Although some say they could retrace the inlet by survey it became closed during the middle 1800's by violent storms. The land was nearly surrounded by the ocean. A surveyor pointed out that the shape of Lake Redwing, considering the distribution of sand and clay soils indicate that the inlet led into the northeast corner of Lake Tecumseh and that the shape of Lake Redwing indicates it could have been a river long ago. The names above the water around the inlet were also known as fresh ponds and salt ponds. (see Lost Links.) by Francis & Moore .

They built a house ca 1660-1670 which stood until 1943 when a violent, hurricane spawned tornado, partially destroyed the several houses in the area. The Brinson House was among them. We are grateful to Kellam and Hope who took pictures of the house and published in "Old Houses in Princess Anne, Virginia," prior to the storm.

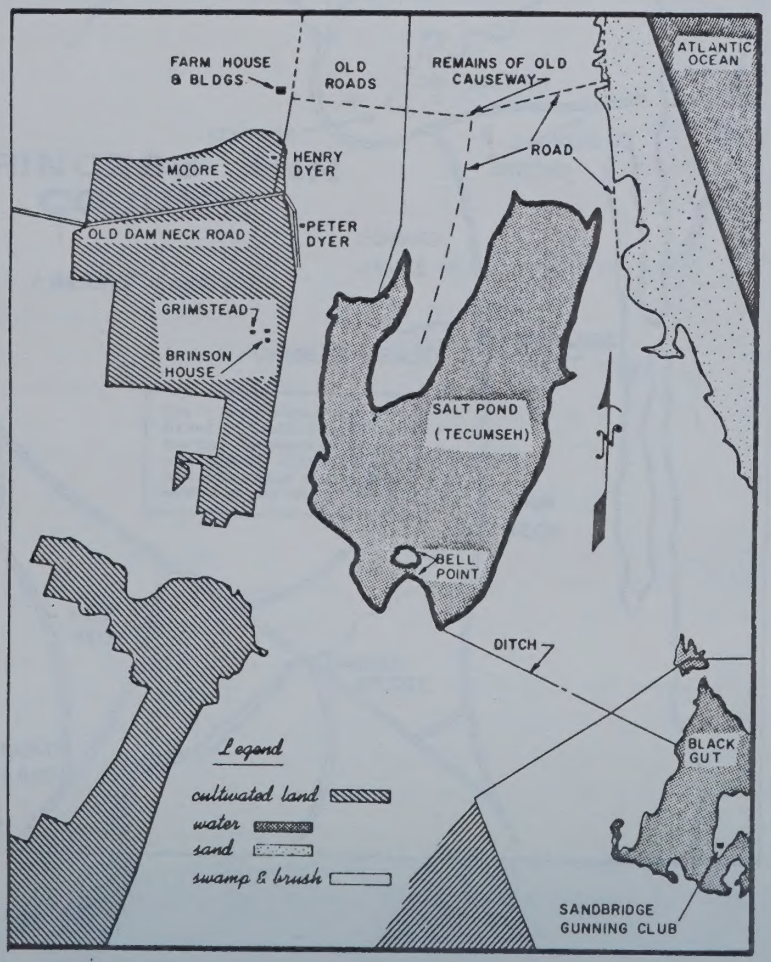
The house is also noted in several land transfer documents. The Grimstead Family occupied the house at the time of the Hurricane but it was never restored.

Thomas Brinson Sr. made a will 27th Dec. 1675 and passed away before 17th April 1676 when his will was proved in Court.

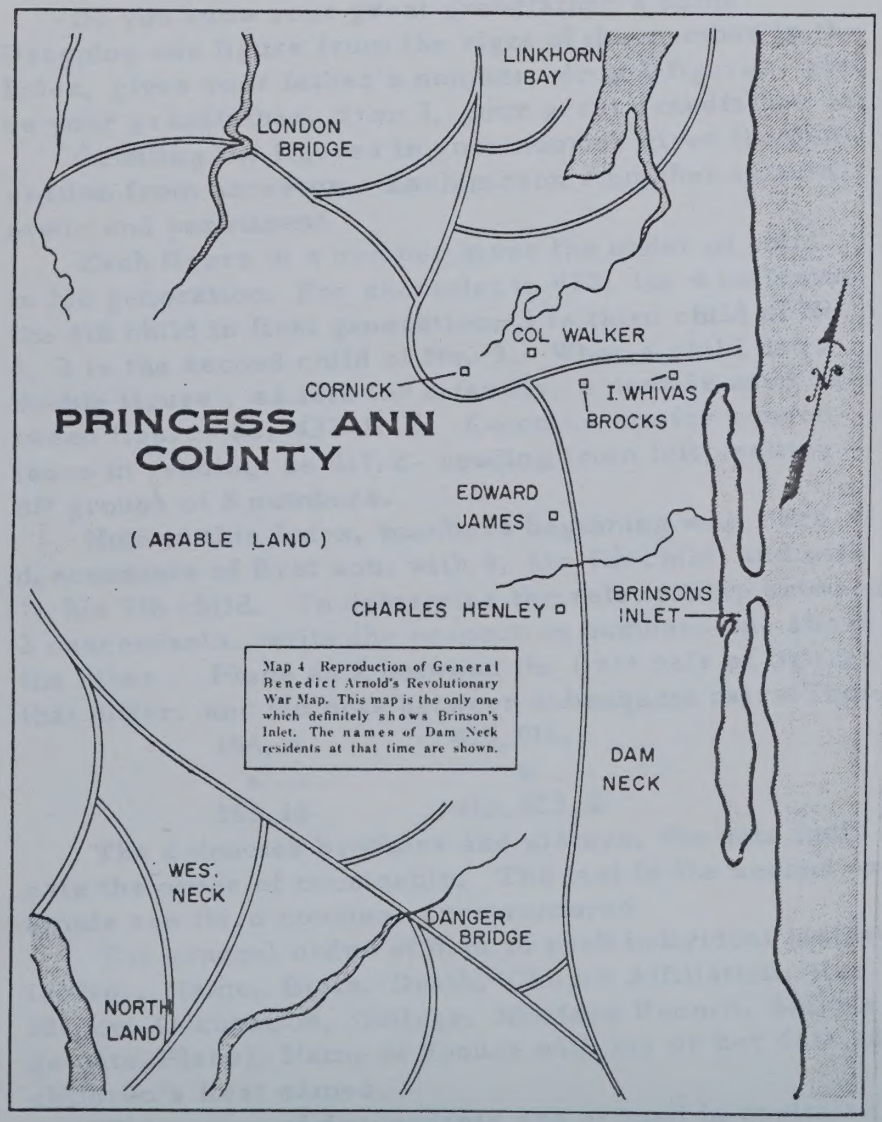
It is not known when his wife Joyce passed on. Thomas is acknowledged by researchers and historians to be the first in that area.

Thomas Sr. was born 2 January 1610 at Wanstead, Essex, England.

International Ancestry Guild;Arch. #E955-467, London, England.



Overlay highlights and identifies some roads and residences of Dam Neck, 1937.



Map 4 Reproduction of General Benedict Arnold's Revolutionary War Map. This map is the only one which definitely shows Brinson's Inlet. The names of Dam Neck residents at that time are shown.

The Dam Neck Mills found in that area and dated by historians as 1720 were also found on what had been Brinson Property. Such a mill called the Robertson Mill was disassembled and reassembled at Williamsburg in reconstruction of that town and still stands on display. It was used for grinding grain and as seen on the commerative stamp and picture. The windmill stood about 50 feet high including the four sails and was of hand hewn cypress clapboard. The lumber had been sawed with a wipsaw operated by the owners or slaves. The roof to the Mill was pointed and had four sides. It was covered in old hand cypress shingles called "shakes". The mill room is about 20 feet square and with a stair inside leading to the second floor. There are windows on two sides. A door on another side opened to an outside porch. A pedestal base suported the mill room. It was capped by a brass collar and a shaft. An axel made it possible to turn the whole building so that the sails would be to the wind. Of course the stairs had to be raised from the ground so helpers were around but one man could rotate the house on its triangular tripod base. The speed of the mill could be controlled by the covering on the arms and the angle that it faced toward the wind. A hand brake on the main gear stopped the mill.

The American Indians were frightened by the wind mills that the early English Settlers built and believed that an evil spirit turned the long arms as the great teeth bit the corn into little pieces. When the wind blew the sails it made a great noise and filled the red men with such terror that they fled to the woods to safety.

Thomas Brinson raised his family there and evidently fished and planted grains and food vegatables. The Indians were helpful in showing the settlers how to preserve fish, meat and foodstuffs for the winter in that climate area.

1. GUIDE FOR USING THIS BOOK

Do you know your great grandfather's name? Dropping one figure from the right of the number in the Index, gives your father's number, drop 2 figures, gives your grandfather, drop 3, your great grandfather etc.

Counting the figures in your number gives the generation from ancestor. Each person's number is automatic and permanent.

Each figure in a number gives the order of child in his generation. For example: in 432, the 4 indicates the 4th child in first generation, 3 is third child of No. 4, 2 is the second child of No. 3. When a child has a double figure , as 12th for a family, a dash is used between figures as, 432-12-3. Commas are for convenience in reading: as 417,2- reading from left, setting off groups of 3 numbers.

Note in this Index, numbers beginning with 1 are descendants of first son; with 4, his 4th child; and with 7, his 7th child. To determine the relationship between 2 descendants, write the respective numbers one above the other . Place an x between the first pair of figures that differ, and put dots between subsequent pairs.Thus:

154, 11	413, 516,
x . .	x. . .
155, 14	413, 823, 2

The x denotes brothers and sisters, the dots indicate the order of cousinship. The last in the second example are third cousins, once removed.

The general order of data to each individual history is: No., Name, Birth, Death, Church Affiliation, Residence, Occupation, College, Military Record, Marriage(date, Place), Name of Spouse with his or her data and children's first names.

The names of descendants are printed in capitals. The husband, or wife, takes the same number as spouse.

Children are numbered in order of birth. They follow with their records and children, before the next descendant is taken up. Within any account, residence in N.C. is given by town only. Other states are named with town.

The following abbreviations are used, as well as more commons ones: b.-born, bur,-buried, c.-churc affiliation, c.-college, cem.-cemetery name, place, ch.-child, children, d.-died, dau.-daughter of, m.-married, occ.-occupation, res.-residence, s.-son of.

Around 1670 the Jamestown Company and other settlement companies offered 50 acres for each individual importing themselves or as many others as they could encourage to migrate to the Colony for the purpose of settlement.

By the record it seems this also meant retroactive as entries show credits many years after the fact and abstracts recount where credits were previously taken. Also it seems credits were traded back and forth to gain extra acres. Whether this was legitimate is not for us to decide but it surely is confusing to sort out, even at today's sophisticated communication level.

"Not to know what came to pass before you were born is always to remain a child."

Cicero

All things have a beginning. So it was with this research. To begin there must be an incentative or inspiration.

In March of 1976 , I suffered a mild heart attack. There resulted a three week stay in the hospital. In May another small attack sent me back to the hospital for a week. Then in July, the night before I was to report to Johns Hopkins Hospital for a by-pass operation I suffered a full scale congestive Heart Failure. For some months life was in the balance. Although I was allowed to come home , my wife and children were advised not to wait to observe our 25th Anniversary. It had already been planned by them so it was held in advance of the date.

During this time, through faith and prayer, I put myself entirely in God's care. I did not know how close I had come to leaving this earthly domain. I just asked Him if there was to be more time, to show me the way that I could best serve Him and this family. The doctor had stated there would be no more work for me. Thus I was to stay at home and take it easy.

Needless to say I lived on, became a little stronger . I had hoped that possibly I could teach Sunday School or serve the church in some way. As you know you never stop praying for guidance. In the summer of 1977 my two brothers visited me and brought an old family bible and some other reading material. To my surprise there contained a looseleaf book which had an old will by Cason Brinson and a few other documents which had been gleaned by a now deceased brother, Emmitt Brinson. I looked it over and laid it aside, stated to my brothers that I would read it when I had time.

Later I received a telephone call from West Va. It was from my ex mother-in-law , whom I had not seen in 30 years. She wanted some information on my family in narrative form for a genealogy she was compiling . I complied.

Later in the fall we were invited to visit relations of a friend in the Shenandoah Valley. All weekend they discussed two books on the genealogy of their family. They visited the old homestead and now home of the author of one of the books. I could care less. We visited a beautiful old family church and graveyard where many of their ancestors were buried. I could care less. Genealogy was not my bag but I went along to be courteous to our hosts.

I read the bible but cannot say that I comprehend it. I respect it as the Work of God and look for guideance among its pages.

One day, not too long after the Shenandoah visit, I opened the bible to read. The first page I saw was Job 8. My eyes focused on the 8th and 9th verses. I read "For Inquire, I pray you, of the bygone ages, and consider what the fathers have found; for we are but of yesterday and know nothing, for our days on the earth are a shadow."

It Hit me like thunder. There it was. The direction for which I had been praying. Something that I could do and that would give purpose to my life. It's been said many times, "The Lord works in mysterious ways" He had laid it in front of me many times yet I could not perceive.

This was the beginning . I found that my brother Emmitt, had compiled some family history for a reunion. The information was sketchy. Aunt Rosie, who had embraced the Morman faith had filled out some forms which included my father, grandfather, and the name of my Great Grandfather. This was a start. New beginnings began to sprout all over the place. Like Spring it has been inspiring to reach out and touch Brinsons all over the land. We Brinsons' are far from perfect but one thing we share in common is love for the family and name.

I pursued this research with a fever. I corresponded, I visited. Where ever I went by letter and especially by visit, I was invited in. Although I was a stranger, yet distantly related, they took me in. After telling my story and revealing what I was looking for many invited me to stay overnight. They wanted to feed me and give me refreshment. I was a stranger no more. Doors opened up like magic. One piece of information led to another. Old family bibles were brought out. Almost sacred leaves of information were divulged . Everywhere I wrote or visited , I found another cousin. I contend that all white Brinsons' in this land are cousins, however far removed. Once a "cuzzin" always a "cuzzin".

There is one family which I have not been able to connect; yet some of the descendants moved from New Jersey to the area in Virginia where Thomas and his descendants lived less than 50 years after Thomas died.

I have searched the ships passenger lists; "Lancours Ships Passenger lists, 1538 to 1835".

These books numbering more than a hundred are as thorough as can be yet some names are lost in antiquity . Some which were importees; persons who were persuaded to come and settle the new land, are not named. Some evidently came in private merchant vessels, unnamed except "crew and 10 -30-or more passengers." They left England because of religion, health, changes in administration. In those days , just as now in many countries, all or many classes of the opposition were eliminated , regardless of status in economic life. Even Charles the King , by one vote in parliament was beheaded . Oliver Cromwell was in power . It was 1649.

I have searched up and down the coast for a 250 year period and find only two Brinsons' who settled in America.

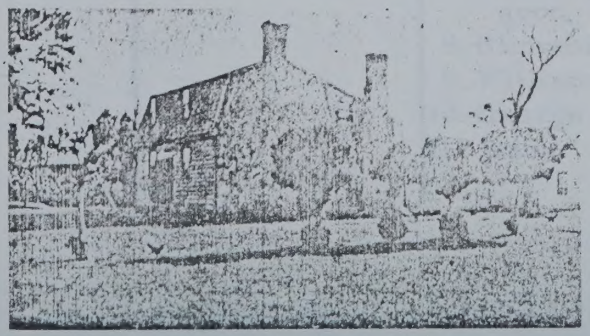
There must have been at one time some garden, for you will see that five old box bushes are left standing in a row, running toward the pond. Four are evenly spaced, then there is a gap large enough to accomodate two other bushes equally distant each from the other bushes, then there is the fifth bush.

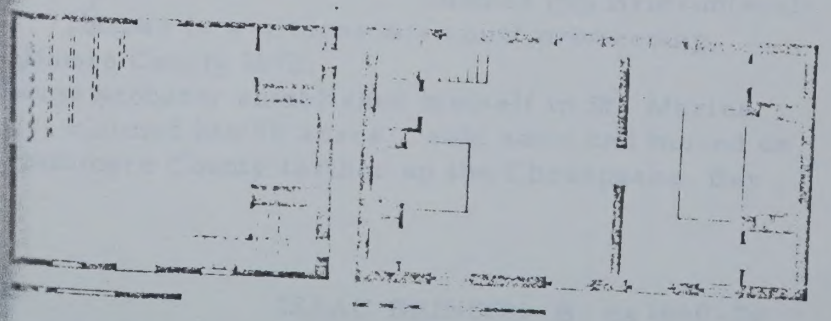
As we said, there is no other similiar interior in the county with which we may make comparison. The stairway is narrow and leads to a door, which gives entrance to a narrow platform on which the steps turn and continue to the room above. The platform is on a level with the window sill. In the right end is the unusually broad chimney; that end is panelled. There are cunning little doors, one on each side, giving entrance to closets by the chimney. In each closet is a little window 15" x 15".

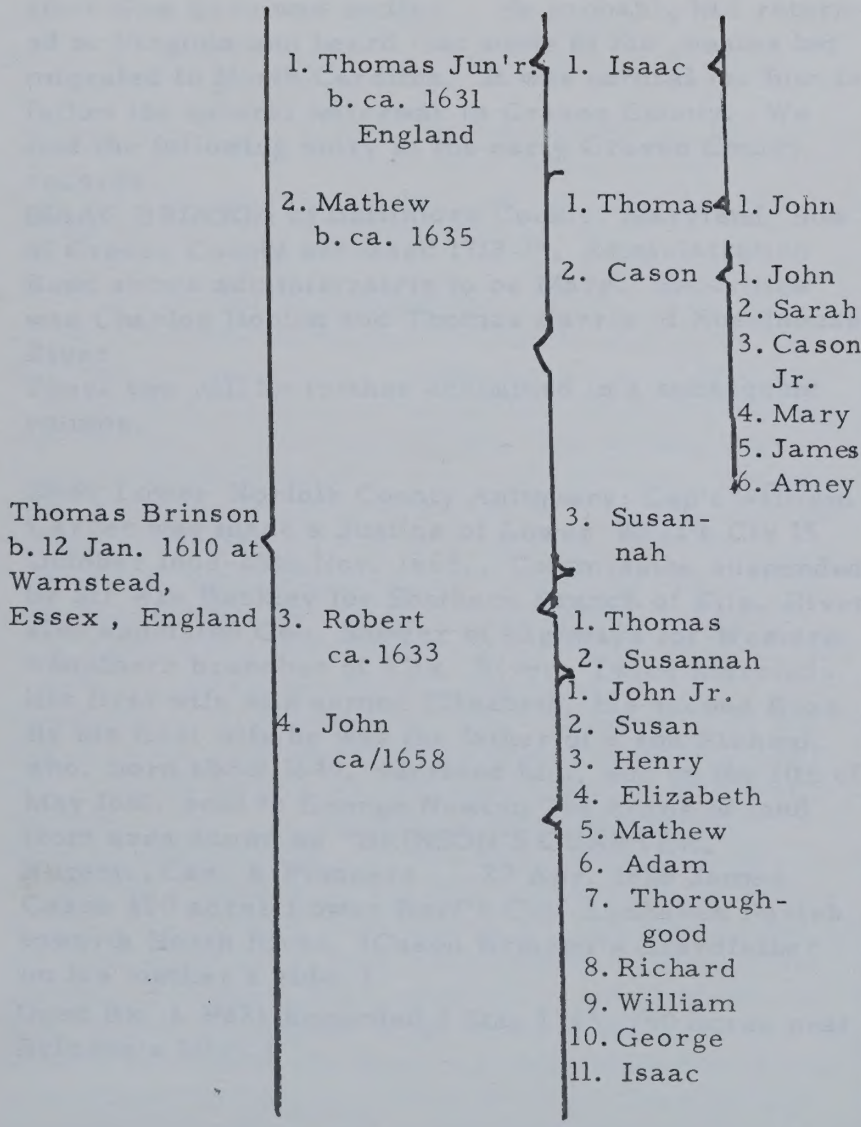
The Lintel in the chimney is a roughly hewn timber 18"x 18" and 15 ' long. The ceiling of the room is guiltless of lath or plaster. The hewn beams have seen many, many coats of whitewash, as spring after spring brought the necessity for freshening up a bit after the use during the winter months of the old fireplace. Across these beams is laid the floor of the room above. Very wide floor boards. they are. The exposed beams and the one room are the unique features.



Brinson Home on Fresh (Salt) Pond

A rare example of a seventeenth century one-room house is the Brinson house on Fresh Pond. This is a frame building, a story and a half high. The entrance door leads into the single room on the center of the long side and is flanked by a window on either side At the north end is a great fireplace spanned by a heavy wood lintel. At one side of the fireplace is a stair, which ascends on the alcove between the chimney and the front wall. On the other side of the chimney , as well as under the stair, are large closets lighted by small windows in the gable wall. This one-room plan is the elemental one, and when it was extended in the South to two rooms, the new room was built at the end away from the chimney, and this in turn had a chimney in its end wall. Thus the end chimney house characteristic of the South evolved, in contradistinction to the Center chimney house of New England. The purpose of the respective plans was to dissipate the heat of the cook's fire in the South and to conserve it in the North. Built ca 1670 by either Thomas Brinson or his son Mathew Brinson this house stood until 1943.





1 THOMAS BRINSON Jun'r

b. ca. 1631 in England , son of Thomas Brinson Sr. and Joyce his wife . There is not much known about Thomas Jr. . In 1663 he and Robert appear on a document mentioned earlier. He is not mentioned in the Will, however he was not in the area. His father probably did not know whether he was alive or dead.

He had migrated to St. Mary's City in Maryland near the mouth of the Potomac River on Chesapeake Bay.

Thomas is a witness at a court proceeding, Baltimore County 1672.

Thomas probably established himself in St. Maries City , claimed his 50 acres , sold same and moved on to Baltimore County further up the Chesapeake Bay .

11 ISAAC BRINSON B. ca 1660-70

son of Thomas Jr . , married Mary.....

Isaac Brinson evidently left Baltimore County soon after New Bern was settled . He probably had returned to Virginia and heard that some of his cousins had migrated to North Carolina. It was natural for him to follow the natural waterway to Craven County. We find the following entry in the early Craven County records.

ISAAC BRINSON of Baltimore County, Maryland, now of Craven County deceased 1718-19, Administration Bond shows administratrix to be Mary. Securities was Charles Hopton and Thomas Harris of Nuse(neuse) River

These two will be further acclaimed in a subsequent volume.

If there were any children from Mathew's first two marriages they do not show in the record nor are they acknowledged in any way. He at first willed some land to the son of a friend, Thomas Russell. From the records Russell's wife is believed to be the sister to Mathew's wife , Elizabeth.

Then he willed some land to his brother John, who his father Thomas Sr. had charged with upbringing after his death in 1676. His link to Cason before her marriage to the son of Thomas Brinson who was Mathew Brinson ca.1692 after the death of his wife Martha. Mathew was very active as a planter, plantation owner in Norfolk County, Lower Norfolk and Princess Anne County. This is not to imply that he owned land in three different counties . The Norfolk County was divided up into the two latter counties over the period of his father's and his time.

Mathew was friends and neighbors to some of the first and most prominent members of the Community. Cap't. Adam Thourougood , who came as a youth of 18 in 1621, as well as his son. The Keelings, the Sullivan Family, The Carver Family, The Moores' , The Cason Family of Virginia, who were also attracted to that area. The Brock Family, yet Thomas Brinson Sr. and his family, including Mathew are recognized as the first family in that area which is now known as Virginia Beach and Chesapeake, Va.

22 CASON BRINSON SR. b. ca. 1693 in Princess Anne County, Va. d. ca. 1765. Son of Mathew Brinson and Mary Cason.
married Frances Marsh ca. 1718-20 in Princess Anne County, dau of George Marsh. This information is born out by the will of George Marsh 12 day of January 1718 proven in court of May 1720.
6 ch. 1. JOHN BRINSON b. ca. 1722, 2. CASON BRINSON JR. b. ca. 1724 d. 1776. 3. MARY BRINSON b. ca. 1728 4. SARAH BRINSON b. ca. 1726 5. JAMES BRINSON b. 5 Feb. 1730 d. 5 Feb. 1798. 6. AMEY BRINSON b. ca. 1732.

Cason Brinson Sr., born in Princess Anne County Va. (Deed Book 3, page 395) the grandson of the first Brinson in America whose name was Thomas Brinson. Cason was named in honor of the Cason Family of Va. His father-in-law , George Marsh, was a close friend of the Brinsons' as acknowledge by several documents which refer to him in those terms. Not long after they were married , Cason and Frances migrated to North Carolina by way of Currituck County, New Hanover and Onlsow County, finally settling permanently in Craven County after a short time in Hyde County.
"Cason Brinson in the Colony of Virginia, Planter, for the love and affection he held for his trusty and well beloved brother , Thomas Brinson of ye Colony and County, aforesaid planter does hereby make, depute, constitute and ordain him my said Brother my true and lawful Attorney." (Deeds & Wills 1724 pg. 545.)

Thus Cason left considerable holdings in the hands of his brother Thomas to dispose for him in the most profitable way and lands and possessions, properties, owned outright by himself and land and possessions willed to Frances Marsh, his wife, by her father George Marsh. In indenture of 1724 (Deeds & Wills, Princess Anne County #4) notes Cason and Frances, his wife now of North Carolina. There are a number of Documents recorded but we will cite only a few in this migration. They purchased plantations of various sizes; worked them over a period of time; bought land from the Indians in Hyde County, Bath Precinct as well as other properties in that area and finally settled in Craven County north of Newse River. His six children were born in Princess Anne County, Va. Onslow Cty, NC., possibly, Amey. Most married in Onslow and Hyde County. James married in Craven County. In the area North of Neuse River he established several plantations and the early 1740's bought property in New Bern, the seat of Commerce and government in the Colonial era. His properties ranged from Bay River to as far as Swift Creek. The center of activity being around the Goose Creek, Dawsons Creek and Bairds Creek area. His son Cason Jr. , who assisted him in the accumulation of these lands and acted in his behalf in all of the Counties , was evidently close to his father. They bought a town house on property designated for the same when his father purchased the lots before him. The townhouse with gardens and accompaniments still stands since ca. 1750. The wood work having remained the same since that time.

Cason visited New Bern quite frequently as witnessed by his presence at most of the court seesions held there. New Bern rested on the opposite side of the river , however Cason owned sailing vessels to travel and transport commodities back & forth. Also for the shipment of Goods of all kinds being shipped to England. He evidently had facilities for docking at his property. He owned many thousands of acres bordering on the Neuse River. These properties he freely shared with his children as they became of age. Some of these lands are still in the Brinson Family. He was active in the developement of the area culturally and politically.

In those days they brewed their own beer, raised their own grapes for wine and preserves and distilled their own spirits for consumption and medicinal purposes. (Note "new copper still willed to Joseph Brinson in Cason Jr's . will). They raised or grew all of their own foodstuffs. Herbs and roots were grown for seasoning and preparing home remedies for illness. Records of property purchased and sales documents and court minutes are permanently preserved in the Archives at Raleigh, N.C. , clearly showing his migration from Princess Anne County to Craven County. The Neuse furnished ample seafood which was preserved in the methods of that day and time. The colonist learned many ways of treating foods from the Indians . He left Princess Anne County ca 1730-34 and finally settled in Craven County ca 1740-50.

In 1741 Cason Brinson proved his right to Onslow County land before the "Council, !" the colonial government. He also had interest in Currituck County(which borders Princess Anne County, Va) Onslow , New Hanover and Craven County.
Onslow County. May 17, 1743, Cason Brinson To Thomas Parker WD Bk A. Pg 143; 23 Feb. 1742 Cason Brinson to Frances Parker Bk 3 F. 145; 1736 Grant in Onslow County. In Hyde County; Cason purchases land from Long Tom and Indians 22 Apr. 1746 , Records A page. 171 Bk. 213. Cason Brinson from Samuel Stowe 6 sept. 1746 Bk A-218; Cason Brinson from Weightman Emery 5 Feb. 1749 Bk A pg. 336 Cason Jr. acted in behalf of his father. Cason Brinson from Morris Jones 10 Sept. 1746; Cason Brinson from John Lockhart of Norfolk Co., Va. 2 June 1748 Bk A 299; Cason Brinson from Cason Gibbs Oct. 9, 1750 . Signs first tract of land over to Cason Gibbs, grandson, Bk A 567.

Cason is referred to as Planter, in Princess

Anne County, Onslow County, New Hanover and Hyde County as well as Craven County.

Two of Cason's daughters married in Hyde County Mary Brinson who married Joseph Gibbs cal740's . Joseph Gibbs witnessed a deed in Hyde County 9 Oct. 1756. M. Gibbs was a witness. In 1756, as prior noted Cason Brinson executed a deed in Hyde County to Cason Gibbs for the 65 acres on Indian Ridge which he had purchased 22 Apr. 1748 from the the Indians, Long Tom, John Makey, and George Squires. The very same deed Joseph Gibbs witnessed. This practice occurred many times when Cason had a relation witness most of his transactions.

Cason's first entry into North Carolina was Currituck County where he was granted 200 acres of land.)
Colonial Records, N.C. Vol. 14, pg. 852.

Thus we show you the migration of Cason Brinson Sr. in abstract form, born in Princess Anne County, Va. and finally settled permanently in Craven County, No. Carolina. According to his will his wife Frances Marsh survived him.

You have added to the subscriber list of:

BRINSON-L@rootsweb.com

the following mail address:

VHillJ@aol.com

Welcome to the BRINSON mailing list! You are currently subscribed in "mail mode", which means that you will receive every posting made to BRINSON as a separate e-mail. The directions on how to change to digest mode are given below.

1. How to unsubscribe. Send a message to

that contains (in the body of the message) the command

and no additional text.

2. How to subscribe. Whatever you just did worked, or you'd not be getting this message. But for future reference (for instance, if your subscription is cancelled for whatever reason and you want to resubscribe), just send the command "subscribe" to BRINSON-L-request@rootsweb.com.

3. How to change to digest mode (several postings are combined and sent to you together as a single large message). There are two steps. First, send the command "unsubscribe" to BRINSON-L-request@rootsweb.com to discontinue mail mode. Second, send the command "subscribe" to BRINSON-D-request@rootsweb.com to start receiving digests.

4. How to change to NOMAIL mode. There is no formal NOMAIL mode. All you have to do is follow the directions above and unsubscribe when you want the messages to stop, and then when you want them to start again, simply subscribe again.

5. If you'd like to post a message so everyone on the mailing list receives it, just send it to BRINSON-L@rootsweb.com. It will then be sent on to everyone in both mail and digest mode. You don't need to send it explicitly to both.

For your verification, a transcript of the original subscription request is included below.

Hi All,

Well, I finally made it to Screven and Jenkins Co, GA. Rain and All. The cotton field where my little Brinson Cemetery is located was clear and had no mud puddles. However, Alex said that looks were deceiving and I would sink to my knees. So, guess I'll make another trip.

I did locate the Little Buckhead Cemetery. I took as many photos of Brinson tombstones as I could locate. However, I did not see one for Adam and Mary Sheppard Brinson. It may be there as there were several that were smooth. I also have another 1/2 roll of film to get developed.

I have Simeon and M.A. Brinson; J.P. and Nancy Brinson (no dates); Ralph H. Brinson; T.J. and Susanna Perkins Brinson; Annie Wallace Brinson; Josie Brinson Miller; Daniel C. and Junette Sasser Brinson; Nancy Brinson Ellison; Mary Elizabeth Brinson Griffin; Dora Alma Brinson; and Harlow A. Brinson;

Also, have some from other cemeteries.

I found Big Buckhead Church with a small cemetery across the road but didn't find any Brinsons. It only had about 5-6 graves but there may have been one behind the church. Didn't think to look there until after I left.

Got a copy of bible record on Adam and Elizabeth Murphree Brinson that listed their dates of birth and marriage. Also their children. According the dobs, these are the ones buried in the cemetery in the cotton field.

Copied a lot of "stuff" from the library and from Alex. Haven't digested all of it as yet.

There is a copy of "Brinson Genealogy", compiled by C.D. Hollingsworth, Sylvania, GA, 1956. It has 48 pages and consists of a lot of records.

If anyone is interested in what I have or copies of photos, let me know and I'll get it in the mail.

Later,

Greetings to everybody :

I have really been enjoying all of the messages everybody has been sending out to the Brinson mailing list. My name is Christopher Brinson. I live around Houston , Texas. I pretty much know my lineage back to Thomas Brinson, here's what I know about my lineage...

1. Thomas Brinson
2. John Brinson
3. Adam Brinson I
4. Adam Brinson II
5. Shepard Brinson (died in 1853, I have a copy of his will and estate sale record)
6) Adam Cornelius Brinson (died 1863, Civil war in Georgia)
7) Anthony Wayne Brinson (born in Georgia, grew up in Florida, moved to Texas in 1913, died in 1928)
8) Ivey M. Brinson (b. 1904.florida d. 1988 Texas,oldest son of A.W. and Ruth Brinson)
9) Ivey M. Brinson (My father, born Goose Creek Texas 1939)
10)Christopher M. Brinson(that's me, born 1970, Baytown, Texas)

My grandfathers, father(Anthony Wayne Brinson) had a first wife and a whole family of kids from that marraige, therefore my grandfather when he moved to Texas when he was 9, had a whole bunch of grown up half brothers and sisters in Florida. I would be interested in hearing from any body who thinks they might be related to that family.

I've been printing out all of these messages and letting my Dad read them. He's old fashioned and anti-internet, but this may very well get him involved on the internet. This Brinson Geneology is something that really interests him.

Hope to hear from some of ya!

Hi:

I am Belle Myers and my Brinsons are from the north of the USA. I live in Arizona about 6 hours from the Grand Canyon. We had rain today thank goodness. We get excited when it rains here. I am in the desert. Are average rainfall is about 7 inches and we are short this year about a inch and 1/2. Take care.

Hi All of you Brinson Fans,

Last weekend, I took a field trip to Jenkins Co, GA (previously known as part of Screven Co). I talked to another desc and he was a walking history book. His information came from his grandmother, a few years ago.

He stated that:
Adam (1700-1769) wife Sarah Sterling, was known as Adam I
Adam (1751-1825) wife Mary Sheppard, was known as Adam II and was the son of Adam I. Adam II was also Adam, Jr.
Adam I had another son, Isaac (ca 1850), wife Elizabeth Ashe (previously married and was know as Betsy McCullar)
Adam (1787-1854) wife Elizabeth Murphree, was known as Adam III and was the son of Isaac and Elizabeth Ashe Brinson. This Adam is my husband's line. I just had him as being the son of the wrong brother, otherwise, the direct line is the same. Adam and Elizabeth are buried in a little cemetery along several others. However, the cemetery is in a field that has dried cotton plants so I couldn't get to the cemetery. I figure the field should be plowed up in a few weeks and the snakes are sleeping, so plan to go back around the 18th and 19th of Dec.

The man I talked with, Alex, said that Millen, GA, in Jenkins Co, was known as Brinsonville and was part of Screven Co. Adam I had a huge plantation and his children were all in the upper class. Until the War. Sherman burned the grainmills at the railroad station and stated that the fire was the largest since Atlanta.

Alex is going to send me more information and will try to find out where other small cemeteries are. He said that there were several.

I'd like to get more info on Millen (Brinsonville) and perhaps some photos from the library. If so, I'll pass it on.

Later, Joann

This name is derived from Briencun in Normandy, a province in France.

Among the first by this name found in England were John de Brinzun and Joan de Bryaune-Soun, who were listed with the Feet of Fines in Essex in 1240, and Bartholomew Brinsun who was listed in the Hundred Rolls of Essex in 1274.

The family has left its name in Brimston Hill in Little Wakering, Essex. This place was spelled Breaunsons in 1419, Bremsons and Bramsons in 1549 and Brendston in 1533. A place by the present name of New Hall in Purleigh Hundred, Essex, was formerly called Brymshams in 1527, and Brempsons in 1554.

The name is also spelled Brineson and Brenston.

No records of this name were found in either Ireland or Scotland.

The above was originally published in the ATLANTA JOURNAL and CONSTITUTION [Atlanta, GA, USA], Sunday, March 15, 1970.

It was quoted by Paul and Montell BRINSON TRUITT in their 1982 publication, THE BRINSON FAMILY of TREUTLEN COUNTY, GEORGIA 1610-1982. It is 155 pages, 8-1/2" x 11" soft bound, & the copy that I have does not have a copyright. The every-name index also includes place names. There is no price in my copy and I can't recall what I paid for it, but I am sure it was less than $20.00. Montell is 9th generation descendant of Thomas BRINSON of Virginia.

Their address at that time was: 820 East Thirteenth Street; Stuart FL 33494

I have not communicated with them in ten years, or more, but they had a few copies left at that time.

The AUTHOR'S NOTES (opening statement) contains the following items that you may find interesting:

In the Essex Pipe Rolls of 1308, Perceval de Braunesoun is shown owning a manor at the parish of Colchester. In 1410 William de Brinnsone built a wooden castle at Dunmow, Essex, later destroyed by fire.

By 1500 the Brinsons owned 600 acres of land in Essex: Thomas Branson, 60 acres; Henry Brynson, 100 acres; Arthur Brinsonn, 140 acres; Sir John Brynson 220 acres; and Edward Branson, 80 acres.

The first coat of arms was granted to Philip Brinson, landowner of Audley Hall, Essex, in 1600. This is the oldest Brinson Coat of Arms and is used by modern Brinsons to establish their cultural identity and to preserve tradition. (There is neither a copy of the arms nor a blazon decribing it in their book!)

Good Hunting!!!

Located in Homerville, Ga, (in S. Georgia, near Waycross) there is the Huxford Genealogical Society, Inc. Their purpose is to collect and preserve the genealogical info on the Wiregrass area in South Georgia and North Florida. My husband's grandmother was a Brinson.

i don't know when the following was sent to the library but her name was Mrs. Louise Brinson Felton, 1806 Doran (?) Drive, Odessa, TX. She was a descendant from S. Shepperd Brinson.

Anyway, she hand wrote the following:

Brinson, Stephen - born 1783 in NC, son of Adam (RS). Died in Lowndes Co, GA 1840-1850. Wife: Nancy Stringer - b 1786 in NC.
Issue:
Cyprian - b. 1810 in GA, Married Ann D. Hines, dau of William
William T. - b. 1828 in GA, Married 1. Eliza Brinson @. Angeline Phillips, dau of Wm. 4/2/1861
Eliza Ann - b. 1834 in Ga
Benjamin F. - b 1830 in GA
Adam - b. 1812 (?) in GA, married Charlotte M Iney (?) dau of Robt.
moved to Texas
Daniel
S. Shepherd - Mary - Nancy and Annie.

I don't know where she obtained her info but she did have more on :

Isaac Brinson - b ca 1750 in NC, son of Adam, marr Elizabeth McCullers
Miles M. Brinson - b 3/4/1812 Screven Co, GA, son of Isaac, marr Sarah Hines
Adam Brinson - b 6/10/1751 in NC, son of Adam & Sarah , mar Mary Sheppard, dau of Benjamin (RS)
Adam Brinson - b ca 1700 in VA, son of John and Elizabeth, mar Sarah Sterling William T. Brinson - b. 1828 in Screven Co, son of Stephen, mar 1. Eliza Brinson, cousin who was dau of Mills M.. 2. Angeline Phillips, dau of William.

Each of the above lists their children and some info.

Also from "Pioneers of Wiregrass Georgia", which wich compiled and published by Folks Huxford, has info on the Adam Brinson, stating he is the Colonial ancestor of practically all of the Brinson descendants in GA. If you would like more details, email me. Will also be happy to mail you copies that I have.

Joann

Kathy - I think I wrote to you once before. I don't have Cyprian but I do have this Benjamin Franklin Brinson whose parents were in GA. Many of the Brinsons came through GA.

Judy and Cary,

I am researching the southern Brinsons. I am looking for the family of Pherebe Brinson who married William Wallace. Her brother was Sterling Brinson born about 1743 and died 1778. Pherebe was born in I believe Onslow County NC, she lived in Burke County, GA in 1820. I am looking for her children and their families. My GGgrandmother was Elizabeth Wallace born about 1806.

Can anyone help?

Thanks Mary McIntyre

Hi Mary - yes, I do have some information on your Pheraby. It is a double line, also, from both Isaac and Pheraby Brinson. The later information on descendants was from one of the World Family Trees, so I am not certain of the accuracy of that, but I do know that the first 2 or 3 generations from her are supposedly checked out (I got some of it from a cousin who had researched it).

Subject: Re: Brinson

Comment: John BRINSON has left Montgomery Co. – you'll see him appear in Pulaski Co. when I get to those tax lists in a bit.

1804 Zebulon BRINSON - 4 horses, 60 acres on Slate Creek
David BRINSON - 4 horses, 200 acres on Licking Creek
1805 Zebulon BRINZON - 5 horses
David BRINSON - 5 horses, 200 acres on Licking Creek
Mary BRINSON - 2 horses

Comment: It's somewhat rare to see a woman in the tax lists. Often when this occurs, she's a widow. Whose widow? Well, it's Zebulon BRINSON Sr. who has vanished from these tax lists, so he's my candidate.

1806 David BRINSON - 5 horses
Zebulon BRINZEN - 6 horses
1807 David BRINSON - 4 horses, 1 stud horse
Zebulon BRINSON - 3 horses

Comment: David died – his estate was appraised in October 1807 by Abraham ALPHAY, William CANTRELL, and John SAILOR. My assumption is that he's the oldest son of Zebulon BRINSON Sr., followed by Zebulon BRINSON Jr. (my line), followed by John BRINSON who went to Pulaski Co. In nearby Nicholas Co., a Thomas and Jonathan BRINSON are in the tax lists from 1800 on. These are also possibly sons of Zebulon BRINSON Sr.

1808 Zebulon BRINSON - 3 horses
1809 Zebulin BRINSON - 5 horses
1810 Zebulon BRYSON - 6 horses

Bath County was created from Montgomery Co. at this time, and Zebulon BRINSON (junior) disappears from the Montgomery Co. tax lists, and appears instead in Bath Co. (1811-1817). I'll spare you the blow by blow. ;-)

To repeat, about the time Zebulon's son John disappeared from Montgomery Co., KY, a man named John BRINSON appeared in Pulaski Co., KY. Because of the coincidence in timing, and because of the usage of the first name Zebulon by the line of BRINSONs in Pulaski Co., KY, it seems reasonable to suppose that the John BRINSON who came to Pulaski Co. early in the 1800s is the son of Zebulon BRINSON of Montgomery Co., KY.

Here, then, is the record of BRINSONs in the Pulaski Co., KY tax records. I read the tax lists for the years 1799 to 1840.

1799 - no BRINSONs
1800 - no BRINSONs

Let me pause here. This is why I believe that the Zebulon BRINSON of Pulaski Co., KY, who was born in the late 1790s, is the son of John BRINSON of Pulaski Co., KY. Note that "Zibelon" first appears in the tax lists in 1818 or so (he might have been there in 1817: I couldn't always read the things), so is of the right age. Second, and more interestingly, is that John BRINSON's three horses seem to have been split – one for Zebulon and two for John. And of course it's credible that John would name his eldest boy after his father. Why was he not an heir when the estate was later divided? Perhaps he already had his share: this wasn't uncommon. Moving on...

Comment: John BRINSON Jr., born about 1802, now has to pay taxes. He married Rachel PRICE in 1822, but needed the permission of his father John Sr. to do so.

Taylor BRINSON - 1 horse
1840 John BRINSTON Sr. - 70 acres on Buck Creek, 1 horse, 5 cattle
Zebulon BRINSTON - 60 acres on Buck Creek, 2 horses, 6 cattle

Finally, digging through my files, I see Jonathan BRINSON (born c1820) assigned to both the family of Zebulon BRINSON and to family of John BRINSON. In the 1840 census, it appears that there was a young man in the household of Zebulon BRINSON, but not in the family of John BRINSON. Of course, Jonathan might be the son of John and yet lived with brother Zebulon, so who is to say? When and where did Zebulon die? I know he was in Greene Co., Indiana in 1850. And that he was the executor of Giles' 1861 will in Greene Co.

That pretty much exhausts what I have on the Pulaski branch of the family.

No, wait, a final tidbit. William Paul Barron Jr. has a book in the LDS library: "The Barron Family in America: 1635-1983: From Talbot Co. Maryland to All Parts West; with notes on related families of Boyd, Carlton, Jackson, McBee, McKenzie, McKinney, Phelps, Vaught, Whitaker, Walker, Walters." He shows the following attendees at the inventory sale of the John Brinson estate, 20 May 1844:

Belinda Brinson	Silas Hargis	Lorenzo D. Phelps
Jonathan Brinson	William Hargis	Singleton Earp
John Ruruark	Allen Hargis	John Baker
Taylor Brinson	George Hargis	Edward Herrin
Thomas Clark	Ill Hargis	Randall Alexander
Philip Clark	Amos Cheyne	Squire Bray

So although Jonathan wasn't listed in the list of heirs, he was at least in the neighborhood, and did attend the sale...

Subj: Re: Line of Cason Brinson

Hi, Judy and Robin!
Don't know if I'll be able to shed much light on the Phillip Purser question, but I'll share what I have. My info comes from a book "Descendents of William Easley" compiled by Kyle Dameron, 1984. (My great-great-grandmother was a Brinson and married the grandson of William Easley.) In this book, the author cites another book entitled "Here, There and Yonder, Cason and Sons--A Brinson Genealogy": Gateway Press, Inc., Baltimore, 1982. It was published by Robert W. Brinson, 509 Shore Drive, Edgewater, MD 21037, and it is mentioned that "family members interested in details of the Brinson family could probably obtain a copy from the author's widow at the above address." Of course, that was 10 or 12 years ago. I don't know anything about Brinson information online, other than this list server. My FTM is only version 2, so I can't access the FTM stuff online. I'd like to upgrade, but probably won't be able to anytime soon.

Anyway, here is what the Easley book says about James Brinson:

James BRINSON, the 5th child of Cason BRINSON Sr. and wife Frances MARSH, was b. 5 Feb. 1730; d. 5 Feb. 1798 in Craven County, Goose Creek, NC. He married Kezia LINTON ca 1755-56, daughter of John LINTON. He became a preacher of the gospel of the New Light Baptist Faith and Order and co-founder of the First Baptist Church in New Bern, NC., the first of several generations of Baptist ministers in the BRINSON family. His children were: 1. Mathew BRINSON (b. 9 Apr. 1758; d. 24 July 1832), 2. Silas Cooke BRINSON (b. ca 1760; d. ca 1791), 3. James J. BRINSON Jr. (b. ca 1762; d. 5 Sept. 1831 Claiborne Parish, LA.), 4. Daniel BRINSON (b. ca 1764; d. 22 Nov. 1828), 5. Anna BRINSON (b. ca 1766), and 6. Nancy (Avi) BRINSON (b. ca 1768). James BRINSON served in the Revolutionary War, along with father Cason. He was a member of the NC Craven County Militia under Capt. Bryan.

James J. BRINSON Jr., b. ca 1761 in Craven County, NC; d. 5 Sept. 1831 at Claiborne Parish, LA. He m. Patience PURSER 14 April 1783 in Craven County. Patience (b. 1761; d. 4 Oct., 1850, dau. of Phillip PURSER)...

Then there is information on James Jr. and Patience Purser's 11 children, which I won't take time to re-type now. Let me know if anyone needs this information. I don't know any more information about the Pursers.

I hope this was helpful to someone! I would be interested in exchanging descendency information with anyone descending from this same line.

Dear Catherine:

I am newly signed on to this list serve and read your correspondence this morning. My father, Kenneth Hill Brinson, retired to River Bend, N.C. and has painstakingly researched our family back through generations in England. Unfortunately, I have not been able to convince him of the assistance computer access would proffer his research. I urge you, and others who may be interested, to contact him by snail mail:

I feel sure that he would be of assistance to you and would enjoy the correspondence. He garners a wealth of knowledge regarding the family and is meticulous in his research. Perhaps, too, you can persuade him to invest in a computer and web access.

<< Brinson, from the late 1800's. The picture looks like it was taken in the late 1860's or 1870's. William was born in 1845 in Georgia, the son of Daniel Brinson & Nelius Turner. I have not found out who Daniel's father is. Though, I have recently been told by my grandmother that my grandfather's middle name "Augusta" was given him after the name of the city in Georgia, so this is a possibility as to William's birthplace (Why else would his grandson be given the name?).

Anyway, the photograph had gone through a fire at some point and is severely damaged, being burned off at the forehead and part of the chin. It is also covered with waterstains. Heavy use of PhotoShop and a few other editing programs is bringing out the original picture, along with a hairline pasted from a photo of my grandfather at a similar age who bears a strong resemblance.

If anyone is interested in the photo (That is, maybe William C. is a relative?) let me know >>

Could this be your great grandfather, Daniel?? I had these lines in my files
The woman who is the 1st Daniel's wife could have been a first or second wife.

In a message dated 98-01-09 23:48:07 EST, you write:

Many years ago along the shore-line of Princess Anne County in Virginia, was located Brinson Inlet. This inlet was near Dam Neck, but has long since disapeared due to shore erosion.
Apparently the inlet was named for Thomas Brinson, referred to as "the old Scotsman." His will, dated 1675, names two sons, Matthew and John. (There might have been daughters but they were not named in the will.)

Does anyone have any additional information about Thomas?

Our line is through John, a Matthew, and a couple of Adams.

Hi Catherine - yes, I have Thomas Brinson. Here is some more data on him, and below is the early generations from his father, Robert Brinson.

April 15, 1674
"Whereas Thomas Brinson Senr did give unto his sonne Mathew Brinson his right for the importation of five persons into this colony (viz) himself, Joyce Brinson, Tho Brinson Jur, Mathew Brinson and Jno Brinson and ye sd Mathew did this court petition that a certificate for ye same might be granted unto him, which he himself could not prove due and ye sd Thomas Brinson Senr being soo decrepett that he cannot possibly come to court to depose ye same it is lawful on oath that Mr. Adam Keeling & Capt. Robt. Bray doe take ye deposition of ye sd Thomas Brinson Senr concerning ye same and that then a certificate be granted ye sd Mathew. " Page 108; Deed Book E;
Norfolk County, Virginia
There is a copy of photostat furnished by Charles B. Cross, Jr., Clerk, Norfolk CO, Portsmouth VA, July 7, 1961. I have copy in my file JPC

Provided by Robert W Brinson on an internet site:

Thomas Brinson, (etc) Arrived in the area south of Cape Henry in the Virginia colony ca 1650-54. This was the first family in the area now known as Virginia Beach/Chesapeake, Virginia/

I am trying to find info about a large family chart of the decendants of William Wallace, Issac Binson and Lot Maund compiled about 1875 by Sterling Brinson Wallace of Millen Ga.

Can anyone help?

Thanks,

Mary

Hi Mary - Below is what I have on that line of Wallace/Brinson. Have you tried the Screven Co GA Library in Sylvania? Another thing would be to contact Linda Avret in Sylvania. She is the widow of Dixon Hollingsworth, and allowed me to go through Dixon's files about a year or so ago. I think that she got some of that material back from the Library after that, but not certain. I would think that she might know something about that. Dixon had a Brinson book in a folder in and among his papers, that had information from our Uncle Chan (Chauncey) Brinson in that, also. You can call the newspaper, The Telephone, in Sylvania and ask about how to contact Linda.

<< Thank you so much. I will have to study your note. I've done so little on this line that I don't know if there is a match, but I've just glanced at your record. Was the Mary Ann Brinson b 3 July 1821 b in GA?? That Mary really looks promising. If I'm reading your record correctly, Mary Ann (b1821) is the child of Adam Brinnson b 1789 NC??? This is so exciting, I've never found anyone else working on the Brinsons!!! If it is more convenient for you, you could snail mail anything. Let me know. vHillj@aol.com >>

I have over 3000 names in the Brinson data base. Have collected several lines and am always looking for new ones - the reason? To help others, like yourself,, who are searching. The Brinsons moved into GA from NC, and other branches went to other states along the way - but the largest group was in GA - Jefferson Co and Burke Co were big Brinson Counties, and our branch went to Johnson Co.

Keep in touch

It would appear that the Mary Ann Brinson you list b 3 July 1821 just might be mine!!
Father Adam and Mother Delilah Slater. Did Adam leave a will? My Mary d 1889 probably in Harris Co.,GA.
I'm confused with what my files tell me. From the 1805 Census of Heads of Families of GA I found an Adam Brinson d 1825 a son/ Isaac. Wife is Mary Shepherd. Burke Co., GA.
Also a Matthew Brinson listed d 1804 wife is Mary Heidelberg. Burke Co., GA
Moses is in Jefferson Co., d 1849 wife is Agnes Wright Underwood. Puzzling, can you straighten me out?? vHillj >>

I hope I can straighten you out :-) - I am cc-ing cousin Donna Griffith of Flowood Miss, who may help also. Below is a 4 generation tree from Adam Brinson, Sr. There were several Adams in the Brinson lines. It appears that the info you have is about Adam Sr who m Shepherd. The Brinsons went from NC primarily to Burke co, GA and Jefferson Co, Ga. My husband's great grandfather, Dr Jeremiah Wesley Brinson went from Louisville, Ga to Savannah to Wrightsville, GA. You will now find them all over Ga. I did not have the Miss line until I found Cousin Donna.

Judy Canant - Lakeland, FL - let me know if I can help further.

In "Old Houses in Princess Anne, Virginia," by Kellam (Norfolk) there is a picture of John Brinson's home given to him by his brother Matthew. Probably as a result of his father's will that gave to Matthew, "my land and all other estate, but when my son John comes of age Matthew is to pay him redy down six hundred pounds cash in full for his portion." The house was on Fresh (Salt) Pond, now called Lake Tecumseh. The house is no longer standing as it was destroyed by a tornado in the early 1940s. It was at the very end of Old Dam Neck Road, in what is now Virginia Beach, Va. A search of two cemeteries in the area failed to reveal any Brinson grave markers.

It would appear that John and Eliza had other marriages. In 1723 Eliza recorded a deed leaving property to "my children: John Williams, Margret Williams, Elizabeth Williams and Lemuel James." In John's will he names four children and "I give unto all ye residue of my children four shillings a peace." These children are probably John Jr., William, and Thorogood.

Matthew		England

Ocean storms and tidal disturbances causing the shifting of sands have played queer tricks with the shore line of Princess Anne. Many, many years ago there used to be a Brinson's Inlet, named for Thomas Brinson, the first of the name in the area. This inlet was near Dam Neck. Today, as a water route it no longer winds its way to the sea.

"Ages of Lower Norfolk County People," by Charles F. McIntosh, reported that in 1661 Thomas was 30 years of age, which would tell us he was born about 1631 and was in this country by 1661.

Thomas Cannon, Lower Norfolk County in Lynhaven received 250 acres for transportation of five people: Thomas Brinson, his wife Joyce, Thomas Jr., John, and Matthew.

Evidently his wife and Thomas Jr. died before he did, as his will only names John and Matthew.

It can be found in Deed Book 4, Page 9a, Norfolk County. Now, Chesapeke Civic Center, Great Bridge, Va.

Susanna					- Milse

It has been reported that Thomas Brinson was the first Brinson of the area which was as early as 1661 in Princess Anne.

Norris Lisson received 400 acres in Northampton, which is across the Chesapeke Bay from Princess Anne for transporting eight people including Robert Brinson and Susanna Milse.

The date that Robert moved across the Bay is unknown but on 17 Oct 1664, Robert and Thomas sold a piece of property that contained 600 acres.

The will of Francis Aldridge proved 15 Oct 1678 gave a cow to Thomas the sone of Robert Brinson. Thomas died about 1676 but it proves the relationship. The will of John Poore proved 15 Oct 1679 gave "unto Robert Brinson's daughter Susanna."

No will was found for Robert.

SARAH SNAPP.

Sarah Snapp was born in Virginia, March 20, 1784. Her maiden name was Sarah McIntyre. She came with her parents to Kentucky, in 1789; and was married to George Snapp in Nicholas county, Kentucky, in 1802. He was born February 18, 1780, and died December 20, 1823. He was a son of George Snapp, who was killed by the Indians in Kentucky in an early day.

To George Snapp and his wife Sarah were born the following-named children:

John, born in 1811; died in Kentucky, in 1823.

Maria, born in 1804; married William Booth. Her second marriage was to Joseph Wallace. She died in California, July 18, 1886.

Mary, born in Nicholas county, Kentucky, February 22, 1806; married William McMahill, in 1827. She died August 31, 1877. He died June 6, 1881.

Elizabeth, born in Nicholas county, Kentucky, February 2, 1808; married John Crawford. Her second marriage was to Moses T. Hand, December 23, 1835. She died August 19, 1898. Moses T. Hand died February 18, 1888.

Franklin Greene was born in Nicholas county, Kentucky, October 18, 1812. He came to Illinois in 1833; settled in Greenbush township in 1834. He was united in marriage to Miss Adeline Morse. She was born May 6, 1816. To this union the following-named children were born:

Maria Jane, born October 9, 1833; married John A. Butler, November 22, 1849.

Samuel M., born May 22, 1835; married Euphronia Hanon. He died October 11, 1891.

George L., born June 4, 1838; married Emeline Griffith.

Albert N., born May 18, 1840; married Mrs. Matilda Nelson.

Caroline, born June 1, 1843; married Dr. William Randall. She died May 20, 1875. He died October 23, 1888.

John R., born April 14, 1846; married Clara Foster. After receiving a divorce from her, he was married to Nina Yast, in April, 1879.

Mary C., born December 23, 1848; died December 10, 1850.

Ada Ann, born October 20, 1851; died November 11, 1858.

Amanda E., born May 12, 1854; resides at Buffalo, New York, where she is engaged teaching music.

Emma P., born February 16, 1857; married Alphonso Waiste. They reside in Canada.

F. G. Snapp was engaged in an early day in Greenfield, in the mercantile business; and in later years he again engaged in the same line of business, making in all three or four times that he kept store in the village.

He was a farmer and resided on the southwest quarter of section five for many years. He spent a great portion of his life in raising, buying, and selling live-stock. In this line he was a man of excellent judgment.

He was a trader in many lines of business, and would buy and sell anything from a cookstove to a grist-mill. He was also an auctioneer and did considerable business in this line in the early days.

In 1870, he purchased thoroughbred Durham cattle in Kentucky and brought them to Greenbush, which proved a great benefit to the country by improving the breed of cattle then here. He also shipped in several hundred bushels of blue-grass seed from Kentucky the same year. This grass seed being sown on timber lands, grew rapidly and soon spread over adjoining lands. At this time John W. Barlow was engaged in shipping Durham cattle and blue-grass seed from Kentucky.

F. G. Snapp left his farm in Greenbush township and moved to Galesburg, where he spent his last years. He and his wife were members of the Methodist Episcopal church, having joined that denomination in early life and retained their membership up to the time of their death. In politics he was a republican.

He died April 10, 1895. His wife died September 22, 1898. Their remains rest in the cemetery at Abingdon, Illinois.

Ezekiel M., born in Nicholas county, Kentucky, in 1816; married Lucinda Willard, October 19, 1839. He died October 1, 1842. She died January 21, 1899. To this union one son was born—

William L., born February 12, 1842. He was married December 19, 1861, to Mary E. May. She was born April 19, 1843; and died November 21, 1900. She was a daughter of William and Susan (Harrison) May. To William L. Snapp and wife the following-named children were born:

Alice Maud, born November 16, 1862; married Andrew B. Camp, January 18, 1883.

Thomas, born February 23, 1864; married Mary J. Hendricks, January 5, 1889.

Mary, born July 4, 1867; died March 21, 1869.

William L., born August 2, 1871; married Minnie West, November 7, 1899.

Carrie M., born August 19, 1874.

Delos V., born August 17, 1876; married Emma Pauline Fowler, February 18, 1903.

Russell, born March 9, 1878; married Maud D. Stokes, July 17, 1899.

Ezekiel M., born January 28, 1880.

Sumner, born November 25, 1881.

William L. Snapp has held the offices in the township of town clerk, tax collector, justice of the peace, notary public, and school treasurer, and is the author of this work. In religion he is a Methodist. In politics he is a democrat.

Robert M., son of George and Sarah Snapp, was born in Nicholas county, Kentucky, February 5, 1818. He was married three times. His first marriage was to Margaret A. Morse, in December, 1843. One child was born to them—Mary J. She died in infancy. Margaret, wife of R. M. Snapp, died in 1844. His second marriage was to Adaliza Morris, March 26, 1849. She

COL. JOHN BUTLER.

Col. John Butler was born in Greenbrier county, Virginia, July 26, 1802. He moved with his parents to Gallia county, Ohio, where on April 25, 1822, he was married to Mary Adney. She was born December 15, 1805, and was a daughter of John Adney, a native of Virginia.

Col. John Butler removed with his family to Greenbush, Warren county, Illinois, arriving October 18, 1839. Here he rented a schoolhouse and moved into it. This house stood a little southwest of the village and near the graveyard. In the spring of 1840, he removed to a house belonging to Thomas Rogers in the northwest part of the village, then called Greenfield.

He afterwards bought 80 acres of land east of the village on section four. Here he resided and was engaged in farming and raising stock up to 1870, when he removed to Avon, Illinois. He was elected colonel in the 84th Illinois militia, July 26, 1844.

To Col. John Butler and wife were born the following-named children:

and standing, he would naturally have commanded attention, but all the people of the village took an interest in him because of his remarkably agreeable qualities, in the home, the school and everywhere, making him a real favorite. Many outside the real domestic circle felt a sense of personal loss at his untimely decease. There was never a more general outpouring of deep compassion than the people of the village showed upon the day of his funeral. The life of the entire community was subdued, and every head was bowed in genuine grief for the stricken parents, whose loss they could but dimly realize. Floral tributes from far and near were sent in mute expression of sympathy. Business was suspended, many houses closing in respect for the memory of the young life so prematurely ended. But its influence will go on as long as there is one left of the many hearts in which he had won a lasting place by his unaffected sweetness and unselfishness. The portrait reproduced herewith was taken when he was in his twelfth year.

JOHN CHAMPLIN, M. D., the leading physician of Westerly, R. I., and one of the eminent and successful practitioners of the State, occupies a position in his profession that reflects great credit upon himself, not only for the distinction he enjoys, but for having attained it so early in life.

The Champlin family has been identified with the history of Rhode Island from almost its earliest period. Dr. John Champlin is a representative of the eighth generation from Jeffrey Champlin, the emigrant ancestor, the line of descent being as follows: Jeffrey, Jeffrey (2), Jeffrey (3), John, Samuel, Benjamin, Samuel A. and Dr. John. The emigrant ancestor Jeffrey Champlin is of record with various spellings of his given name. In some instances it appears as Geoffrey, Jeoffrey, but more often as Jeffrey.

(I) Jeffrey Champlin was born in 1621, and was a resident of Newport. He had three sons, Jeffrey (2), William and Christopher.

(II) Jeffrey Champlin (2), born at Newport, R. I., in 1650, died at Kings Town, R. I., in 1715. He had two sons, Jeffrey (3) and William.

(III) Jeffrey Champlin (2) married three times. His third wife bore two children: Hannah and John. Jeffrey (3) died in 1717.

(IV) John Champlin, son of Jeffrey (3), born Feb. 12, 1716, married Freelove Watson, daughter of John, of South Kingstown. They were the parents of nine children: John, born July 30, 1744; Samuel, born July 17, 1746; William, born Aug. 15, 1749; Steven, born Aug. 27, 1751; Thomas, born Jan. 23, 1754; Abigail, born June 23, 1756; Elisha, born Nov. 11, 1758; Susannah, born Oct. 31, 1761; Freelove, born June 15, 1767. John Champlin died Sept. 8, 1772, and his wife, born in South Kingstown, July 30, 1704, died in Exeter, May 10, 1773.

(V) Samuel Champlin, son of John, was born July 17, 1746. He was married Dec. 10, 1782, to Alice B., daughter of Benjamin and Alice (Waite) Reynolds, of Exeter, R. I. Their six children were: John, born March 26, 1784; Benjamin, May 9, 1786; Hannah, Dec. 30, 1788; Waity, March 30, 1791; Russel, July 23, 1793; and Samuel, Aug. 24, 1796. Samuel Champlin died in Exeter, R. I., Nov. 1, 1818. His wife, Alice B., born July 21, 1755, died Oct. 23, 1825.

(VI) Benjamin Champlin, son of Samuel, was born May 9, 1786. He married Elizabeth Sunderland, daughter of Captain Daniel and Annie (Harrington) Sunderland, of Exeter, R. I.; she died April 10, 1816, the mother of five children: Alice, born in 1808, died Sept. 3, 1814; Mary, born in 1810, died March 22, 1816; John Reynolds, born Nov. 12, 1811; Daniel, in February, 1814, died Sept. 21, 1814; and Elizabeth, born in January, 1816, died May 3, 1816. Benjamin Champlin married (second), March 20, 1817, Ruth Tefft, born Aug. 2, 1789, daughter of Clark and Mary (Rogers) Tefft, and their children were: Clark Tefft, born Oct. 27, 1818; Benjamin Reynolds, born July 30, 1820; Samuel Anthony, July 28, 1822; George Franklin, June 20, 1824; and Mary Eliza, born June 19, 1827, married George Avery Smith, and died Jan. 29, 1899. Benjamin Champlin died May 18, 1847. His wife Ruth died March 10, 1837. Both were buried in the Seventh Day Baptist cemetery in Hopkinton.

Benjamin Champlin was born in the eastern part of the town of Exeter, R. I. He obtained a good common school education, but not being of a professional turn of mind, gave up his studies and assisted in the management of his father's estate, In the spring of 1830 he bought a farm in the eastern part of the town of Westerly, which, with land subsequently purchased amounted to 300 acres. It was afterward known as the "Benjamin Champlin Estate."

(VII) Samuel Anthony Champlin, son of Benjamin and Ruth (Tefft) Champlin, was born July 28, 1822, in the town of Exeter. He married May 16, 1853, Mary Bliven, daughter of John Ross and Phoebe (Taylor) Bliven, of Westerly. Their children were as follows: (1) Edwin Ross, born May 4, 1854, married April 25, 1877, Georgie Augusta Butler, daughter of George F. and Sarah S. (Mitchell) Butler. They have two children: Laurence and John Butler. Edwin Ross Champlin resides in Fall River, Mass., a member of the editorial staff of the Fall River Evening News. He is engaged in literary work, aside from his newspaper capacity, and has written several books. (2) George Anthony, born Nov. 17, 1855, married Nov. 6, 1902, Minnie Taylor, and resides in Westerly, R. I. (3) Samuel, born Sept. 8, 1861, died Sept. 17, 1861. (4) John was born Oct. 5, 1863. The mother of these children died Feb. 22, 1901, in Westerly; the father passed away Jan. 25, 1890, in the same town.

Providence Board of Trade. Socially he belongs to the B. P. O. E., No. 14, to the West Side Club and the Pomham Club.

On Nov. 19, 1890, Preston A. Arnold was married to Grace E., daughter of George J. and Helen (Potter) Hampson.

CHAMPLIN. The Champlins of Westerly are descended from

(I) Geoffrey, Jeoffrey or Jeffrey Champlin, the emigrant, born in 1621. His children were: Jeffrey, born at Newport in 1650; William, born in 1654, married Mary, daughter of James Babcock; and Christopher, born in 1656, and died at Westerly, April 2, 1732, was twice married, his second wife being Elizabeth, widow of William Davel.

(II) Jeffrey Champlin (2), son of Jeffrey, died at Kingstown in 1715. He had two sons: Jeffrey and William.

(III) Jeffrey Champlin (3), son of Jeffrey (2), married Susannah, daughter of Thomas and Susannah (Cole) Eldred, and they had issue as follows: Emblem, born Jan. 30, 1701; Jeffrey, born Feb. 2, 1703. Jeffrey Champlin (3) married (second) Hannah, and they had three children: Thomas, born Sept. 3, 1708; Steven, born Feb. 16, 1710; and William, born March 3, 1712. His third wife was Susannah, who bore him two children: Hannah, born Jan. 11, 1714; and John, born Feb. 12, 1716. Jeffrey Champlin (3) died in 1717, his will being dated Feb. 14th of that year and proved March 10, 1718.

(IV) John Champlin, son of Jeffrey (3), married Freelove Watson, daughter of John Watson, of South Kingstown, and their children were: John, born July 30, 1744; Samuel, born July 17, 1746; William, born Aug. 15, 1749; Steven, born Aug. 27, 1751; Thomas, born Jan. 23, 1754; Abigail, born June 23, 1756; Elisha, born Nov. 11, 1758; Susannah, born Oct. 31, 1761; Freelove, born June 15, 1767. John Champlin died Sept. 8, 1772, and his wife, who was born in South Kingstown, died in Exeter, May 10, 1773.

(V) Samuel Champlin, son of John, born July 17, 1746, was married Dec. 10, 1782, to Alice B., daughter of Benjamin and Alice (Waite) Reynolds, of Exeter, R. I. Their six children were: John, born March 26, 1784; Benjamin, May 9, 1786; Hannah, Dec. 30, 1788; Waity, March 30, 1791; Russel, July 23, 1793; and Samuel, Aug. 24, 1796. Samuel Champlin died in Exeter, R. I., Nov. 1, 1818. His wife, Alice B., born July 21, 1755, died Oct. 23, 1825.

(VI) Benjamin Champlin, son of Samuel, married Elizabeth Sunderland, daughter of Captain Daniel and Annie (Harrington) Sunderland, of Exeter, R. I. She died April 10, 1816, the mother of five children: Alice, born in 1808, died Sept. 3, 1814; Mary, born in 1810, died March 22, 1816; John Reynolds, born Nov. 11, 1811; Daniel, Feb. 1816, died Sept. 21, 1814; and Elizabeth, born in January, 1816, died May 3, 1816. Benjamin Champlin married (second) Ruth Tefft, daughter of Clark and Mary (Rogers) Tefft, on March 20, 1817, and their children were: Clark Tefft, born Oct. 27, 1818; Benjamin Reynolds, born July 30, 1820; Samuel Anthony, July 28, 1822; George Franklin, June 20, 1824; and Mary Eliza, born June 19, 1827, married George Avery Smith, and died Jan. 29, 1899. Benjamin Champlin died May 18, 1847. His wife Ruth, born Aug. 2, 1789, died March 10, 1837. Both were buried in the Seventh Day Baptist cemetery in Hopkinton.

Benjamin Champlin was born in the eastern part of the town of Exeter, R. I., May 9, 1786. He obtained a good common school education, but not being of a professional turn of mind, gave up his studies and assisted in the management of his father's estate. In the spring of 1830 he bought a farm in the eastern part of the town of Westerly, which, with land subsequently purchased, amounted to 300 acres. It was afterward known as the "Benjamin Champlin Estate."

(VII) John Reynolds Champlin, son of Benjamin, was born Nov. 11, 1811, in Exeter, R. I., and Oct. 13, 1852, married Phoebe Mowry, daughter of Abram and Sila (Vallette) Baker, of Burrillville, R. I. Their children were: Albert Reynolds, born April 12, 1854, died April 7, 1895, in his room at the "Dixon House," Westerly; Phoebe Elizabeth, born March 29, 1857, married Oct. 24, 1877, John Edmund Kendrick, and died Sept. 20, 1892, without issue; John Herbert, born June 18, 1862, died Nov. 29, 1862; and John Herbert (2), born March 28, 1865, married May 6, 1892, Emily Mary, daughter of William Stewart Anthony and Emily Mary (Mason) Cooper, of Chicago, born at Hyeres, France, March 25, 1865, and they had children: John Frederick (born at Chicago, Jan. 25, 1893, and died there April 7, 1893), and Albert Reynolds (born at Westerly, Aug. 6, 1896).

John Reynolds Champlin died Jan. 9, 1892. He spent his boyhood days on the farm, receiving a good common school education, following which he taught school during the winters for some years, following agricultural pursuits in the summers. In 1837, at the age of twenty-six years, he came to Westerly, and established a dry goods and general mercantile business. In 1844 he entered into partnership with the late Stephen Wilcox, establishing a store on the site of that which he occupied at the time of his death. In 1853 Mr. Wilcox retired from the business, and Mr. Champlin continued it in his own name, making a specialty of boots and shoes. This business he carried on in the same place at No. 22 Main street nearly fifty years. He was the oldest merchant in Westerly, there being no one in business at the time of his death who was here when he began. Mr. Champlin was always regarded as one of Westerly's most reliable citizens, his word being above question, and his life that of a consistent Christian.

NER. July 1929 Chapin Misc.

MARY ANNE ROBERTS, of Boston, elected a resident (annual) member 7 April 1909 and made a life member 15 November 1909, was born in Boston 27 September 1851, the daughter of Davis Ballard and Agnes (Hughes) Roberts, and died there 13 October 1928.

She was descended from Thomas[1] Roberts, one of the earliest settlers of Dover, N. H., who married Rebecca Hilton and died in 1673 or 1674, through John,[2] 1629–1694/5, of Dover, whose wife was Abigail Nutter, Thomas,[3] born in 1656, who married Elizabeth Hopley, Timothy,[4] 1692–1774, whose wife was Anna Waldron, John,[5] Timothy,[6] 1759–1835, whose wife was Elizabeth Hayes, John,[7] a merchant of Boston, who married Mary Ann Adams, and Davis Ballard,[8] her father, who was born in Boston 21 December 1820 and died at Hanson, Mass., 15 November 1893. Her mother, Agnes Hughes, was born in Wales in 1824, the daughter of Frederick Hughes of Carnarvonshire and Margaret (Hughes) Hughes, who was born at Birkenhead, co. Chester, England.

She was educated in private schools, made many trips to Europe, and also visited Egypt and the Hawaiian Islands. She read much in Italian, French, and German, and was a student of Greek and Latin.

MRS. NELLIE COLE (WELTON) MAYBORN, of Houston, Tex., a resident (annual) member since 1926, was born at Oak Hill, Summit Co., Ohio, 9 December 1875, the daughter of William Henry Harrison and Laura Anne (Cole) Welton, and died at Houston 28 October 1928.

She was descended from John[1] Welton, who was an early settler of Farmington, Conn., through John,[2] an original proprietor of Waterbury, Conn., who married Mary Upson, John,[3] whose wife was Sarah Buck, Ebenezer[4] of Easthampton, Long Island, who married Mercy Earle, Nathaniel,[5] 1742–1777, whose wife was Martha Tuttle, Elias,[6] 1776–1832, who married Hannah Van Pelt, Allen,[7] 1809–1878, whose first wife was Sarah Stryker, and William Henry Harrison,[8] her father, who was born in Boston Township, Summit Co., Ohio, 11 November 1840, and was living in 1926. Her mother, Laura Anne Cole, was born in Northampton Township, Summit Co., Ohio, 4 May 1847, was married 5 May 1865, and died 21 July 1921, the daughter of John and Mary Belinda (Ruggles) Cole.

She attended the public schools of Akron, Ohio, and continued her studies at home and, in 1917–18, in the classes of Dr. Duren J. H. Ward.

She was married 3 July 1900 to Ward Carleton Mayborn, son of Leroy Henry and Lura (Burns) Mayborn, general manager of the southwestern group of the Scripps newspapers. Her husband and three sons, Frank Willis Mayborn of Fort Worth, Tex., Donald Ward Mayborn, a student at the University of Pennsylvania, and Theodore Welton Mayborn, a student at the University of Texas, survive her. Two other children died at birth.

THE ENGLISH ANCESTRY OF DEA. SAMUEL CHAPIN OF SPRINGFIELD, MASS.

Communicated by HOWARD MILLAR CHAPIN, A.B., of Providence, R. I.

IT has long been known that Samuel Chapin, who was at Roxbury, Mass., about 1638 and settled at Springfield, Mass., about 1642, where he was a deacon and a prominent citizen and died in 1675, brought with him from England a wife named Cicely and several children, Henry, Josiah, David, Catherine, and Sarah.* There was a tradition that he was born at Dartmouth, co. Devon, a great-great-grandson, John Horton, having written in 1779 that Samuel Chapin was born in Dartmouth in Old England; and, in an attempt to verify this tradition, the writer of this article caused a search to be made, some twenty years ago, in the registers of the Church of St. Saviour's, Dartmouth, co. Devon, from their beginning in 1582 to 1635, but only one Chapin entry was found, the baptism, on 17 Dec. 1593, of Englishe, daughter of Robt. Chapin.† It seemed probable, however, that Samuel Chapin might have been born in some parish near Dartmouth, and that, either because Dartmouth was the nearest large town or because he may have sailed from that port, the tradition that he was born in Dartmouth arose. Lack of funds prevented at that time a search of the registers of the parishes near Dartmouth.

Soon after this an American genealogist accidentally found, in the registers of Paignton, a parish in Devonshire, on the shore of Tor Bay, about seven miles north from Dartmouth, the record of the marriage of Samuell Chapin and Cicely Peny [Penny], 9 Feb. 1623 [1623/4]; and the same registers were found to contain several other Chapin and Penny records, including the baptism of David, son of Samuell Chapin, 4 Jan. 1624 [1624/5], that of Samuel himself, son of John Chapin, 8 Oct. 1598, that of Cicely, daughter of Henry Penny, 21 Feb. 1601 [1601/2], and the marriage, 14 Sept. 1590, of John Chapin [Samuel's father] and Phillipe Easton.‡ Henry Penny of Paignton, baker, in his will dated 6 Apr. 1630, made bequests to his daughter, Cicelly Chapin, his nephew [i.e., grandson], David Chapin, and to Katherine Chapin and Sarah Chapin; and thus the identity of the Samuel Chapin and wife Cicely of Paignton with the Samuel Chapin and wife Cicely of Springfield, Mass., was established.§

Mr. Roy D. Chapin of Detroit, Mich., then employed the English genealogist, Richard Holworthy, Esq., of London, to continue the researches in Devon by examining the registers of the parishes near Paignton and also any other Devon records that might throw light on the English connections of Dea. Samuel Chapin; and it is the purpose of the writer of this article to present a summary of the results of Mr. Holworthy's researches, which, by the courtesy of Mr. Roy D. Chapin, he is permitted to contribute to the REGISTER.

In the registers of Berry Pomeroy, co. Devon, a parish a short distance west from Tor Bay, Mr. Holworthy found the baptismal records of six of Samuel Chapin's children, namely, two sons, Henry and Josias, two daughters, Sara and Honor, a son, whose name was illegible in the registers, and a daughter, whose name was illegible except for the last two letters, in, probably the ending of the name Katherin. As Samuel Chapin of Springfield had children named Henry, Josiah, Sarah, and Katherine, the identity of Samuel of Springfield with Samuel of Paignton and Berry Pomeroy was established beyond any doubt. The daughter, Honor, and the son whose name was illegible, though doubtless Samuel, probably died in England.

No earlier generations of Chapins were found either in Paignton or in Berry Pomeroy, but in another neighboring parish, Totnes, Mr. Holworthy found a most important item. On 16 Jan. 1632/3 John Chapin, son of Samuel, was baptized at Totnes. This one record is the only Chapin entry in the Totnes registers after Jan. 1619/20, although there are many early Chapin records, some of which antedate those of the Paignton and Berry Pomeroy registers. The question arises as to why Samuel Chapin had one of his children baptized in Totnes, and the thought occurs that Totnes may have been the home of his father. This possibility is still further strengthened by the fact that in 1566 John Chapin, son of Roger, was baptized at Totnes. While there is no actual evidence that John Chapin of Totnes, son of Roger, was identical with John Chapin of Paignton, father of Samuel, the fact that John of Totnes was baptized in 1566, about the probable time of the birth of John of Paignton, and the fact that John of Totnes disappears from the Totnes records before John of Paignton appears in the Paignton records, make the identity of John of Totnes with John of Paignton very possible. The additional fact of the connection of Samuel Chapin with both parishes increases the possibility into a most interesting probability, for, if John of Paignton came from Totnes, he was the son of Roger, and thus the ancestry of Dea. Samuel Chapin of New England would be carried back another generation.

It is highly probable that further research in Devonshire records will throw more light on this subject, and it is not unreasonable to hope that this suggested probability may be proved a fact. It is truly remarkable that the baptismal records of Samuel Chapin and Cicely, his wife, their marriage record, and the baptismal records of all five of the children that they brought with them to New England should have been discovered. Such important finds encourage further research.

There were other Chapins contemporary with Roger in Totnes: Katherine, Joan, Christian, Walter, who had a wife Agnes, and several children, and Emlen, who was the mother of John Chapin of Lawhitton, co. Cornwall. They were probably relatives of Roger, and their names may serve as useful clues for the genealogist.

The following pedigree gives in genealogical form all that is at present known in regard to the English history and connections of Dea. Samuel Chapin.

1. Roger Chapyn, of Totnes, co. Devon, was born probably before 1540, as he had a daughter baptized at Totnes in 1560. The name of his wife is unknown, but she survived him and was living 9 Sept. 1590 as "widdo Chapinne."*

*See the Chapin entries found in the parish registers of Totnes, infra, p. 357.

Children, recorded at Totnes:*

i. JOHAN (a daughter), bapt. 30 June 1560.
2. ii. JOHN, bapt. 25 Sept. 1566.
iii. MARGERY, bur. 31 Oct. 1569.
iv. MARGETT, bapt. 10 Feb. 1570/1.
v. LUKE, bapt. 8 May 1576; bur. 9 Sept. 1590, "in the plague."

Perhaps other children.

2. JOHN CHAPIN (? Roger), of Paignton, co. Devon, probably identical with the John, son of Roger Chapyn, who was baptized at Totnes 25 Sept. 1566 (cf. 1, ii), was buried at Paignton 3 June 1600. He married at Paignton, 14 Sept. 1590, PHILLIPE EASTON,† who married again, at Paignton, 26 Jan. 1600/1, George Stone of Paignton, who died between 20 Jan. 1614/15, when his will was dated, and 1[?] Jan. 1616/17, when it was proved. George Stone's wife, Phillipe, probably survived him, for he made her executrix of his will and residuary legatee, and bequeathed to her and her son, Samuell Chapin, his "furnace and all the furniture thereunto belonging" and his "brassen crocke," and to Thomas Chapine, his wife's eldest son, the bedstead over the hall and the tableboard in the hall and the rest of his other "crockes."‡

Children, baptized at Paignton:§

i. JOANE, bapt. 26 June 1591; m. at Paignton, 9 July 1611, JAMES NARRACOT.|| Her stepfather, George Stone of Paignton, in his will, dated 20 Jan. 1614/15, bequeathed to Johan Norracott 40s. and to John Norracott, "my godsone," 2s. 6d.
ii. THOMAS, bapt. 8 Mar. 1596/7; bur. at Paignton 27 May 1628; m. there, 7 Aug. 1620, BRIDGETT HANNAF[O]RD, presumably the Bridgett Chapin who m. at Berry Pomeroy, co. Devon, 7 Nov. 1641, John Duport.¶

Children, bapt. at Paignton:

1. Phillip (probably a daughter), bapt. 6 July 1621.
2. John, bapt. 1 June 1623.
3. Samuell, bapt. 4 July 1624; bur. at Paignton 15 June 1628.
4. Thomas, bapt. 14 July 1626; perhaps the "Thomas Chaplyn" who was bur. at Paignton 30 Nov. 1685.

3. iii. SAMUEL, bapt. 8 Oct. 1598.
iv. MARGARET (posthumous), bapt. 16 Nov. 1600; bur. at Paignton 11 Dec. 1600.

3. DEA. SAMUEL CHAPIN (John, ? Roger), of Paignton, co. Devon, and of Roxbury and Springfield, Mass., baptized at Paignton 8 Oct. 1598, died at Springfield 11 Nov. 1675. He married at Paignton, 9 Feb. 1623/4, CICELY PENY [PENNY], bapt. at Paignton 21 Feb. 1601/2, died at Springfield 8 Feb. 1682/3, daughter of Henry Penny of Paignton, baker.

Samuel Chapin was a legatee in the will of his stepfather, George Stone of Paignton, dated 20 Jan. 1614/15, and was one of the four persons who took the inventory of the estate of Henry Penny, 18 May 1630. In his will Henry Penny bequeathed to "Cicelly Chapin my daughter, my second great pan," and mentioned three of Samuel Chapin's children, as appears below. Since Samuel Chapin's son Josias was baptized at Berry Pomeroy, co. Devon, 29 Oct. 1637, the migration of Samuel Chapin and his family to New England must have taken place after Oct. 1637 but not later than 1639, when he is known to have been in Roxbury, Mass. The summer of 1638, the year given by Savage, seems to be the most probable time for the voyage, and Savage doubtless based the date of arrival in New England on the fact that the earliest New England record relating to Samuel Chapin is dated 1639. For his life in New England see the writer's "Life of Deacon Samuel Chapin."

Children:*

i. DAVID, bapt. at Paignton 4 Jan. 1624/5. In the will of his grandfather, Henry Penny, dated 6 Apr. 1630, is this bequest: "To David Chapin my nephew [grandson], 20/ yearly for 7 years to be paid by [my] Executrix [the testator's wife, Jane] towards his bringing up in learning." He came to New England.

ii. KATHERIN, doubtless the daughter whose name is illegible except for the last two letters, in, who was bapt. at Berry Pomeroy in 1626.† Her grandfather, Henry Penny, in his will of 1630, bequeathed to her 12d. She came to New England.

iii. SARA, bapt. at Berry Pomeroy in Oct. 1628. Her grandfather, Henry Penny, in his will of 1630, bequeathed to her 12d. She came to New England.

iv. A SON (probably twin), whose name (probably SAMUEL) is illegible in the registers, bapt. at Berry Pomeroy in Jan. 1630/1; bur. at Berry Pomeroy 10 July 1634.

v. HENRY (probably twin), bapt. at Berry Pomeroy in Jan. 1630/1. He came to New England.

vi. JOHN, bapt. at Totnes, co. Devon, 16 Jan. 1632/3; probably d. in England.

vii. HONOR (a daughter), bapt. at Berry Pomeroy 8 May 1636; probably d. in England.

viii. JOSIAS (JOSIAH), bapt. at Berry Pomeroy 29 Oct. 1637. He came to New England.

ix. JAPHET, bapt. at Roxbury, Mass., 15 Oct. 1642.

x. HANNAH, b. at Springfield, Mass., 2 Dec. 1644.

It seems probable that the Chapins of the two parishes of Paignton and Berry Pomeroy, which were in the hundred of Haytor, co. Devon, were descended from, or at least related to, the Chapin family of the neighboring hundred of Coleridge. In 1524 Robert Chopyn and Christopher Chopyn were at Cornworthy in the hundred of Coleridge, and in 1525 Henry Chopyn and Thomas Chopyn were at Harberton in the same hundred.‡ At Totnes, also in the hundred of Coleridge, the parish in which Roger Chapyn, who was probably the grandfather of Dea. Samuel Chapin, lived, there was a

Stephen Chapin as early as 1489,* a fact which seems to indicate that the ancestors of Samuel Chapin were living at Totnes as early as the fifteenth century; and the appearance of the Christian name Stephen in the family at that date seems to point to a connection between the Chapin families of Totnes and Cornworthy, for a Stephen Chapin was born at Cornworthy in 1570 and moved to Dartmouth. Thomas and Christian also were names that were common in both families. The Chapin family is found in Coleridge as early as 1333, when Petro Chapyn was taxed 8d.,† and six years earlier, in 1327, a Nicholas Chopyn was taxed at the manor of Sheftbeare in the hundred of Haytor — the first appearance (so far as is known) of the surname in Devonshire.†

There are many records relating to Devon that have not yet been searched for Chapin items, and further search among them would probably bring to light much more information about the early Chapins. Indeed, it is reasonable to believe that by such a search the ancestry of Dea. Samuel Chapin might be traced back for several more generations.

INSCRIPTIONS FROM GRAVESTONES AT VERNON, CONN.

Communicated by Lucius Barnes Barbour, B.A., of Hartford, Conn.

In this article is given, in condensed form, the genealogical information found on gravestones in three cemeteries in the present town of Vernon, Tolland Co., Conn.

The town of Vernon was formerly the northern part of Bolton, and was set off and incorporated as a separate town in 1808.

The inscriptions on the gravestones were copied about twenty years ago.

PARKE AND CHAPLIN

Based on data contributed by Harwood E. Park, Esq., of Los Angeles, Cal., arranged with additions by the Editor

The late Henry F. Waters was an honest and extremely competent genealogist, specializing in the Anglo-American field. But the best of genealogists make occasional mistakes, and Mr. Waters made one in reading the will of Clement Chaplin.

Clement Chaplin, aged 48, came to New England in the Elizabeth & Ann in 1635 [John Camden Hotten, The Original Lists, 69]. According to the Candler MS [No. 6071 of Harleian Collection, British Museum], he was a chandler of Bury, co Suffolk, went to New England and was an elder in Mr. Hooker's congregation [Hartford, Conn.] and his wife was Sarah Hinds, daughter of a goldsmith in Bury. Considerable information is there given about the brothers and sisters of Clement Chaplin, one of whom, Martha, is said to have been married to Robert Parker of Wollpit, who went into New England. The present Keeper of Documents at the British Museum still reads this name as Parker, as given by Waters [Genealogical Gleanings in England (1901), 1:32]. This indicates that the name Parke was either miswritten Parker or so written that it can only be read as Parker. For the person intended is Robert Parke.

Clement Chaplin was at Cambridge, came to Hartford with Hooker, and settled in Wethersfield. He served as Deputy for the last town at the Connecticut General Court, May 1637, and March, April and Sept. 1643; and was Treasurer of the Colony in 1638 [Colonial Records of Conn., 1:9, 12, 82, 84, 93]. He shortly returned to England and died at Thetford, co. Norfolk, in 1656. Waters found his will and published an abstract of it, but made one bad error. He read it that Chaplin named his kinsman, Mr. William Clarke, of Roxbury in New England. This was actually William Parke, his nephew, son of the sister Martha. A verbatim copy of the will, taken from a photostatic copy, is given herewith. Just in front of the name Parke, and covering the lower part of the 'P,' is an ink blot, but the name is quite clear. However, it is possible to read the initial letter as an 'l'; Mr. Waters evidently so read it and imagined a 'C' under the ink blot, thus converting Parke into Clarke.

Walter K. Watkins in 1902, in a note in the New England Hist. and Gen. Register [56:183-4], refers to the Chaplin wills published by Waters, and states that Rev. Clement Chaplin's sister Martha married Robert Parker of Woolpit and suggests that he was the Robert Parker of Wethersfield, Conn. This would be correct if for Parker we read Parke. He follows Waters in the error of William "Clark" instead of Parke of Roxbury.

Henry R. Stiles in The History of Ancient Wethersfield (1904), 2:526, states that Robert Parke was born at Preston, near Liverpool, England, but actually he was from Woolpit, co. Suffolk; also, that he married Martha daughter of Capt. Robert "Chapin or Chaplin of Bury St. Edmonds," but actually she was his sister. Alfred L. Holman in Blackman and Allied Families (1928) p. 144, states that Robert Parke married Martha daughter of Capt. Robert and Elizabeth (Ansty) Chaplin of Bury, England, and gives as his source, F. S. Parks, Parke Families of Connecticut (1906), pp. 25-28, where indeed some data of value are given, but they should be handled with care and revised in the light of subsequent discoveries. Donald L. Jacobus, Granberry and Allied Families (1945) identifies the wife of Robert Parke as Martha Chaplin, baptized at Semer, co. Suffolk, 4 Feb. 1583/4, married there 9 Feb. 1601/2, daughter of William Chaplin.

William Chaplin of Semer, co. Suffolk, had children, in addition to Martha (bapt. 1583/4) and Clement (b.ca. 1586-7): Thomas of Bury, m. Elizabeth Hinds, sister of Clement's wife; William of Blokeshall; Richard of Semer; Edmund of Semer; Capt. Robert of Bury; a daughter who m. Robert Smith of Semer; and a daughter who m. Robert Barret of Stratford. Capt. Robert Chaplin of Bury St. Edmunds was father of Sir Francis Chaplin, Knt., citizen and Lord Mayor of London, one of whose sons was created a Baronet in 1715.

Waters [op. cit., 2:1010] gives the will of William Chaplen of Long Melford, co. Suffolk, dated 15 Nov. 1575, proved 25 Jan. 1577, which named with others his brother Clement and Clement's eldest son William, then under 21. It seems quite possible that this William, perhaps not much under age in 1575, was William of Semer who had children born in the 1580's including Martha and Clement; but further research is indicated.

In addition to the sources cited above, Mr. Park calls attention to further sources on the Chaplin family; Visitation of Suffolk, 1664-8, D22, fo. 179b; Le Neves, Pedigrees of the Knights, vol. 8, p. 3; J. Burke, Extinct Baronetcies; Waters [supra], 1:32, 77; 2:1010-1012; Burke's Landed Gentry, 1875; Parish Register of Semer, co. Suffolk; Le Neve's Book of Suffolk, last pedigree; Le Neve's Book of London, fo. 210.

JOHN DENISON CHAMPLIN.

By John Denison Champlin, Jr.

John Denison Champlin was born in Stonington, Conn., Jan. 29, 1834, and died in New York City, Jan. 8, 1915. He was the son of John Denison Champlin and Sylvia Bostwick. He married at Litchfield, Conn., Oct. 8, 1873, Franka E. Colvocoresses, daughter of Capt. George M. Colvocoresses, United States Navy.

Mr. Champlin was the direct descendant of:

1. Geoffrey, Jeoffrey or Jeffrey Champlin, who was of the Island of Aquidneck, now Rhode Island, in 1638. He settled first at Pocasset (Portsmouth), on the north end of the island, but removed the next year to Newport, at the south end. He was admitted an inhabitant of the island the 24th of the 11th month, 1638, and a freeman, Sept. 14,.1640. In 1661 he removed, with many others, to Misquamacut (Westerly), in the Narragansett country, but returned to Newport in 1675–6, during King Philip's War, and possibly died there. He is mentioned in 1695, by his son Jeffrey in a deed as "my deceased father." Geoffrey Champlin married, probably in Newport, previous to 1650, but the name of his wife has not been preserved. He had, so far as is known, but three children, all of whom left descendants.

i. Jeffrey, b. about 1650; d. Kingstown, R. I., in 1715. He was the ancestor of Commodore Stephen Champlin, U. S. N., and of Dr. James Tift Champlin, President of Colby University.

2 ii. William, b. in 1654; d. at Westerly, R. I., Dec. 1, 1715.

iii. Christopher, b. about 1656; d. at Westerly, April 2, 1732. He was the ancestor of George Champlin, member of the Continental Congress, and of Christopher Grant Champlin, U. S. Senator of Rhode Island, in 1809.

2. William Champlin, born in 1654; married about 1674, Mary Babcock, dau. of Capt. James and Sarah (——) Babcock of Westerly. He was twenty-one years old in 1675, when King Philip's War broke out. With other young men of the neighborhood he at once volunteered and served in the several campaigns, both in Narragansett and elsewhere. Though we have no documentary proof of it, he probably took part in the Great Swamp fight in December, 1675, as he was one of the 185 volunteers who received in 1696 from the General Court of Connecticut, for services in the war, the grant of six miles square, comprised in the present town of Voluntown.

He was admitted a freeman at Westerly, Oct. 17, 1679.

In 1683–4 he is recorded a juryman; in 1684–5 a member of the Town Council, and in 1687, when the name of Westerly was changed to Haversham by Sir Edmond Andros, was appointed with John Maxon, to go to Boston to "present a petition to his excellency for a towne Charter and to prossecute the same." In 1690 he is called Captain and was chosen one of the Deputies to represent Westerly in the first General Assembly summoned after Andros' deposition. From this time to 1712 he is recorded as a moderator of nearly every Town Meeting and as Deputy to the General Assembly at nearly every session, in all twenty-three times. In 1699 he was one of the six Commissioners for Rhode Island to confer with the Commissioners of Connecticut in reference to the settlement of the boundary line between the two colonies.

Captain William Champlin died at Westerly, Dec. 1, 1715, in his sixty-second year, and was buried in the family burial ground about four miles from Westerly, where his tombstone still remains. Mrs. Mary (Babcock) Champlin, his widow, died intestate at Westerly in the spring of 1747, aged about ninety-two years. The inventory of her personal estate amounted to £508-13. They had three children:

i. Mary, b. in 1675; m. in 1700, John Babcock, of John and Mary (Lawton) Babcock.

3 ii. William, b. 1677; m. Jan. 18, 1700, Mary Clarke, of Joseph and Bethiah (Hubbard) Clarke.

iii. Ann, b. in 1678–9; m. Jan. 19, 1698–9, Samuel Clarke, of Joseph and Bethiah (Hubbard) Clarke.

3. William Champlin, married Jan. 18, 1700, Mary, daughter of Joseph and Bethiah (Hubbard) Clarke of Westerly. He was a Justice in Westerly and held other offices. He represented the town in the General Assembly in 1728, 1731 and 1732. He was a large landholder. He died in 1746. His will is dated Aug. 3, 1746; executor, son William; inventory of personal estate, Dec. 29, 1746–7, £821-4-9. Mrs. Mary (Clarke) Champlin, born in Westerly, Dec. 27, 1780; died there in 1760. She was the granddaughter of Joseph Clarke of Westhorpe, Suffolk, England, and grandniece of Dr. John Clarke, one of the principal founders of Rhode Island, several time Deputy Governor, and long the Colony's agent in London, through whose efforts the Charter of 1663 was obtained from Charles II. All their children were born in Westerly. The first two are of record, the others are given in the order of mention in William's will:

4 i. William, b. May 31, 1702; m. Nov. 1, 1721, Sarah Thompson.

ii. Jeffrey, b. March 6, 1704; m. 1724, Mary Maxon, of Joseph and Tacy (Burdick) Maxon.

iii. Joseph, b. about 1706; m. 1730, Deborah Burdick, of Samuel and Mary (——) Burdick.

iv. Samuel, b. about 1708; m. 1735, Prudence Thompson, of Capt. Isaac and Mary (Holmes) Thompson.

v. Joshua, b. about 1710; m. June 11, 1730, Bridget Thompson, of Capt. Isaac and Mary (Holmes) Thompson.

vi. James, b. about 1712; m. Jan. 15, 1734–5, Prudence Hallam, of Amos and Phoebe (Greenman) Hallam.

vii. Susanna, b. about 1714; m. Nov. 1, 1742, Samuel Stanton, of Samuel and Lois (Cobb) Stanton.

4. WILLIAM CHAMPLIN, b. May 31, 1702; m. Nov. 1, 1721, Sarah Thompson, daughter of Captain Isaac and Mary Holmes Thompson of Westerly. He held various town offices and in 1734–6 was Ensign of the 1st Co. of Westerly Infantry. He represented Westerly in the General Assembly in 1741 and 1742. He died in Westerly, April 14, 1774; will dated Feb. 15, 1774. Mrs. Sarah (Thompson) Champlin, born in Westerly, March 3, 1703, died there. Children:

i. Mary, b. July 13, 1722; m. Aug. 9, 1738, Joseph Stanton, of Joseph and Esther (Gathyp) Stanton.

ii. Samuel, b. Oct. 6, 1724; m. 1744, Hannah Gardner, of Henry and —— (——) Gardner.

iii. Jeffrey, b. Sept. 30, 1726; d. young.

iv. Ann, b. Jan. 15, 1729; m. 1746, Joseph Pendleton, Jr., of Joseph and Sarah (Worden) Pendleton.

5 v. William, b. Aug. 14, 1731; m. Dec. 4, 1751, Sarah Pendleton, of Joseph and Sarah (Worden) Pendleton.

vi. John, b. Sept. 30, 1733; m. ——.

vii. Sarah, b. March 5, 1735; m. June 16, 1751, Sylvester Pendleton, of Joseph and Sarah (Worden) Pendleton.

viii. Oliver, b. Aug. 21, 1737; d. unm., April 5, 1791.

ix. Anstis, b. Oct. 8, 1739; m. 1758, John Dunbar.

x. Rowland, b. Jan. 8, 1741–2; m. Dec. 21, 1763, Hannah Stetson.

xi. Eunice, b. Feb. 15, 1744; m. Aug. 24, 1764, Daniel Larkin.

5. WILLIAM CHAMPLIN, born Aug. 14, 1731; married Dec. 4, 1751, Sarah Pendleton, daughter of Joseph and Sarah (Worden) Pendleton of Westerly. A large landholder in Westerly, he had, like other Narragansett planters, a house in Newport, and alternated between his home there and the farm, part of his family remaining in one place and part in the other. In 1768 he was Lieutenant of the 2nd Co. of Westerly Infantry, and in 1776 was chosen Captain of the 4th Co. of the 1st Newport County Regiment. At the outbreak of hostilities he was preparing to retire to Westerly when he was surprised, with many others, by the sudden occupation of Newport by the British (Dec. 7, 1776), and was obliged to remain there until Oct., 1779, when the Americans regained possession. Though thus forced by circumstances to remain neutral during the early part of the Revolution, he always favored the patriotic cause, and in 1779 contributed £20 to the Continental Loan. At the close of the war he did what he could to build up the new government, and in 1789 was one of the committee of five, including Isaac Senter, Christopher Champlin, Daniel Mason and George Gibbs, appointed in Newport to draft instructions to its Deputies in the General Assembly, impressing upon them the necessity of calling a convention for the adoption of the Constitution of the United States.

Mr. William Champlin died in Westerly, Oct. 17, 1798. Mrs. Sarah (Pendleton) Champlin, born in Westerly, Aug. 7, 1734; died there April 24, 1799. Children:

6 i. William, b. Aug. 13, 1752; m. 1780, Elizabeth Wells, of James and Ruth (Hannah) Wells.

ii. Anne, b. May 19, 1754; m. Aug. 17, 1777, Dr. Isaac Ross Bliven, of Major Edward and —— (——) Bliven.

iii. Lucy, b. May 17, 1756; m. 1783, Arnold Clarke, of Rev. Joshua and Hannah (Cottrell) Clarke.

iv. Deborah, b. April 12, 1758; m. Nov. 21, 1779, Fones Greene, of Samuel and Elizabeth (Marshall) Greene.

v. Pamelia, b. June 5, 1760; d. unm., Nov. 8, 1809.

vi. Adam, b. July 24, 1762; m. March 21, 1793, Henrietta Coggshall.

vii. Lois, b. July 27, 1764; d. unm., Oct. 22, 1855.

viii. Sarah, b. Aug. 1, 1766; m. May 17, 1795, Stephen Wilcox, of Rev. Isaiah and Sarah (Lewis) Wilcox.

ix. Eunice, b. Sept. 18, 1768; m. Dec. 4, 1800, Thomas Parke, of Capt. Benjamin and Hannah (Stanton) Parke.

x. Elizabeth, b. Dec. 24, 1769; m. April 2, 1796, William Tillinghast, of Pardon and Abigail (Rogers) Tillinghast.

xi. Phoebe, b. Feb. 1, 1772; d. unm., Aug. 22, 1791.

xii. Joseph, b. Oct. 7, 1774; m. ——, Jane Carr.

xiii. Mary, b. Oct. 23, 1776; d. unm., Feb. 17, 1847.

xiv. Oliver, b. June 6, 1778; m. ——, Eunice Thurston Melville, of David and Elizabeth (Thurston) Melville.

6. William Champlin, born Aug. 13, 1752; married 1780, Elizabeth Wells, daughter of James and Ruth (Hannah) Wells, of Hopkinton, R. I. Mrs. Elizabeth (Wells) Champlin, born in Hopkinton, R. I., Jan. 14, 1758; died at Newport in 1785. William married, (2) Nov. 19, 1786, Margaret Drew, daughter of Capt. James and —— Drew. He lived in Newport until 1795, when he removed to South Kingstown. In 1801 he bought a farm of 354 acres on the banks of the Pawcatuck River, below Westerly, and resided there until his decease, Aug. 31, 1803. Mrs. Margaret (Drew) Champlin, born in Newport in ——; died in Westerly, Sept. 28, 1830. Children, by first wife:

7 i. Isaac, b. Nov. 20, 1781; m. Nov. 8, 1807, Mary Denison.

ii. James Wells, b. March 20, 1784; lost at sea, 1810.

By second wife:

iii. Elizabeth, b. Oct. 4, 1787; m. Aug. 21, 1807, Col. Jedediah Knight.

vi. Sarah, b. June 27, 1796.

vii. John Drew, b. Aug. 26, 1800; d. Aug. 31, 1803.

7. Isaac Champlin, born Nov. 20, 1781; married Nov. 8, 1807, Mary Denison, daughter of John and Edith (Brown) Denison of Stonington, Conn. In early life he was a prominent merchant in Westerly and for many years a director in the Washington Bank, founded in 1800. In 1811–13 he was Brigade Quartermaster of the 3rd Brigade of Washington County, and in 1814–17 Brigade Inspector of the same, with the rank of Major. In 1824–30 he was a Justice of the Peace in Westerly, and he represented the town in the General Assembly in 1819–20, 1824–25, and in 1830. He removed in 1830 to Stonington, where he was Postmaster during the administration of General Jackson. Major Champlin died in Stonington, Aug. 8, 1861. Mrs. Mary (Denison) Champlin, born in Stonington, Oct. 14, 1787; died there, Jan. 30, 1862, Children:

i. Mary, b. and d. Aug. 12, 1808.

ii. William, b. Oct. 3, 1809; d. Oct. 28, 1809.

8 iii. John Denison, b. Dec. 5, 1810; m. Sept. 12, 1831, Sylvia Bostwick.

iv. Mary Elizabeth, b. Nov. 2, 1813; d. Nov. 9, 1813.

8. John Denison Champlin, born Dec. 5, 1810; married (1) Sept. 12, 1831, Sylvia Bostwick, daughter of Joel and Nancy (Stone) Bostwick of New Milford, Conn., who was born in New Milford, Conn., Dec. 5, 1810, and died in Lexington, Ky., March 5, 1856. John Denison Champlin married (2) April 5, 1857, in St. Louis, Mo., Nora Crusman, daughter of General Cornelius Crusman of Clarksville, Tenn., who was born in Clarksville, April 8, 1830, and died at Hot Springs, Ark., June 2, 1882. Her husband died in New York City, Sept. 12, 1892. Children, by first wife:

9 i. John Denison, b. Jan. 29, 1834; m. Franka E. Colvocoresses.

ii. William Belden, b. July 15, 1836; m. Mary A. Bullitt.

iii. Caroline Brown, b. Feb. 4, 1839; m. John Laing Macaulay.

iv. Edward Elmore, b. June 13, 1841; m. Esther Smith.

v. Isabella, b. Oct. 20, 1843; d. Feb. 20, 1844.

9. Mr. John Denison Champlin, of the ninth generation, the subject of this sketch, was a graduate of the famous class of Yale, '56, which counted among its members Chief Justices Brewer and Brown and the Hon. Chauncey M. Depew. He was a lineal descendant of Rev. James Noyes, who served on Yale's first Board of Trustees. His preparatory training was at the Hopkin's Grammar School in New Haven. In College he was a member of the Brothers in Unity, Delta Kappa, Alpha Sigma Phi, Psi Upsilon, and the Ariel Boat Club. Just before his death he was elected a postgraduate member of Wolf's Head.

After graduation he studied law with Gideon H. Hollister (B. A., 1840) in Litchfield, Conn., being admitted to the Bar there in April, 1859. He soon removed to Milwaukee, Wis., where he practiced for a short time, after which he removed to New York City, as member of the firm of Hollister, Cross & Champlin, of William Street.

In Dec., 1860, he went to Louisiana, intending to practice in New Orleans, but soon after the outbreak of the Civil War he returned to the North. He became associate editor of the Bridgeport (Conn.) Evening Standard in the spring of 1864, and about a year later established The Sentinel, a Democratic weekly, in Litchfield, editing it until 1869, when he sold it and removed to New York City, where he had since been engaged in literary work. In 1873 he edited Fox's Mission to Russia, compiled from the notes of J. E. Loubat. In April of the same year he was chosen a member of the staff of revisers of Appleton's American Cyclopaedia, and for the next two years was one of the corps of editors.

In 1879 he brought out the Young Folks' Cyclopaedia of Common Things, Young Folks' Cathecism of Common Things, 1880, 1906. Young Folks' Cyclopaedia of Persons and Places, 1880, '99, 1911. Young Folks' Astronomy, 1881. Young Folks' History of War for the Union, 1881.

In 1884 Mr. Champlin went as the guest of Mr. Andrew Carnegie on a coaching trip through England and Scotland. On the coach were Matthew Arnold and William Black. After this trip Mr. Champlin published his Chronicles of the Coach, 1886.

In 1890 (with Arthur E. Bostwick) the Young Folks' Cyclopaedia of Games and Sports was published. In 1901 Mr. Champlin issued his Young Folks' Cyclopaedia of Literature and Art. In 1905, the Young Folks' Cyclopaedia of Natural History. Mr. Champlin was the editor of the Cyclopaedia of Painters and Paintings, 4 vols., 1886–8; Cyclopaedia of Music and Musicians, 3 vols., 1888–90.

During 1892–94 he was associate editor of the Standard Dictionary, and in 1893 he was one of the three writers (with Rossitor Johnson and George Cary Eggleston) selected by the Authors' Club to edit Liber Scriptorum, an unique volume containing contributions by more than a hundred members of the club, among them some of the most distinguished literary men in America and Europe. He also was a contributor of copyrighted articles in the Encyclopaedia Britannica; he contributed the chapter on "Music of Two Centuries," for the Memorial History of New York and for a number of years wrote the Art article in Appleton's Annual Cyclopaedia. In 1910 he edited the Speeches and Orations of his classmate, the Hon. Chauncey M. Depew, published in eight volumes. In 1912 he compiled "One Hundred Allied Families of the Seventeenth Century in England and New England," and the same year, "Anne Hutchinson: Her Life, Her Ancestry and Her Descendants." These last two remain unpublished. The Forum and The Popular Science Monthly, as well as numerous other periodicals received many contributions from his pen.

He was a member of the Century Association of N. Y., the Author's Club, the Barnard Club, the N. Y. Genealogical and Biographical Society, the New England Historical Society, the Newport Historical Society, and the Litchfield Historical Society.

In 1866 he was a candidate for the Connecticut State Senate on the Democratic ticket.

On Oct. 8, 1873, he married Franka E., daughter of the late Captain George M. Colvocoresses of the United States Navy, and the sister of the present Admiral George P. Colvocoresses, who was Executive Officer of the Concord at the battle of Manila Bay and chosen by Admiral Dewey to be the Executive Officer of the Olympia immediately after the action.

Mr. Champlin leaves a widow and one son.

REVOLUTIONARY WAR RECORDS.

BY GEORGE AUSTIN MORRISON, JR.

Hitherto the patriotic societies throughout the country have devoted their time and energies to collecting and preserving the muster-rolls and records of those men who were engaged on the fighting line of the Continental and State troops during the Revolutionary War.

The glory of the actual battling for freedom has almost completely eclipsed the duty of fitting out, feeding, clothing and preparing the fighting men for military services. It must be remembered that great numbers of other patriots jeopardised their liberties and fortunes in providing the ways and means to equip and maintain the Continental Armies, and numbers of men were actually taken from the troops in the field to administer the work of the Quartermaster and Commissary Departments during the campaign. Little or nothing has been published concerning the working of these important departments and the names of hundreds of patriots taking a prominent and useful part in maintaining the fighting units have been neglected and are still unknown. Fortunately a great mass of original MSS. documents, letters, papers, etc., of the Quartermaster Department were preserved in the Department of State and in due course were turned over to the War Department, although as yet no adequate calendars or indices have been prepared. Valuable manuscript letter books, original letters, papers, etc., are also to be

CHAPIN ANCESTRY

It has long been known that Samuel Chapin, who was at Roxbury, Mass., about 1638 and settled at Springfield, Mass., about 1642, where he was a deacon and a prominent citizen and died in 1675, brought with him from England, a wife named Cicely and several children, Henry, Josiah, David, Catherine, and Sarah. There was a tradition that he was born at Dartmouth, Co. Devon, a great-great-grandson, John Horton, having written in 1779 that Samuel Chapin was born in Dartmouth in Old England; and, in an attempt to verify this tradition, the writer of this article caused a search to be made some twenty years ago, in the registers of the Church of St. Saviour's, Dartmouth, Co. Devon, from their beginning in 1582 to 1635, but only one Chapin entry was found, the baptism, on 17 Dec. 1593, of Englishe, daughter of Robt. Chapin. It seemed probable, however, that Samuel Chapin might have been born in some parish near Dartmouth, and that, either because Dartmouth was the nearest large town or because he may have sailed from that port, the tradition that he was born in Dartmouth arose. Lack of funds prevented at that time a search of the registers of the parishes near Dartmouth.

It seems probable that the Chapins of the two parishes of Paignton and Berry Pomeroy, which were in the hundred of Haytor, Co. Devon, were descended from, or at least related to, the Chapin family of the neighboring hundred of Coleridge. In 1524, Robert Chopyn and Christopher Chopyn were at Cornworthy in the hundred of Coleridge, and in 1525, Henry Chopyn and Thomas Chopyn were at Harberton in the same hundred. At Totnes, also in the hundred of Coleridge, the parish in which Roger Chapyn, who was probably the grandfather of Dea. Samuel Chapin lived, there was a Stephen Chapin as early as 1489, a fact which seems to indicate that the ancestors of Samuel Chapin were living at Totnes as early as the fifteenth century; and the appearance of the Christian name Stephen in the family at that date seems to point to a connection between the Chapin families of Totnes and Cornworthy, for a Stephen Chapin was born at Cornworthy in 1570 and moved to Dartmouth. Thomas and Christian also were names that were common in both families. The Chapin family is found in Coleridge as early as 1333, when Petro Chapyn was taxed 8d., and six years earlier, in 1327, a Nicholas Chopyn was taxed at the manor of Sheftbeare in the hundred of Haytor—the first appearance (so far as is known) of the surname in Devonshire.

There are many records, relating to Devon that have not yet been searched for Chapin items, and further search among them would probably bring to light much more information about the early Chapins. Indeed, it is reasonable to believe that by such a search the ancestry of Dea. Samuel Chapin might be traced back for several more generations.

Soon after this an American genealogist accidentally found, in the registers of Paignton, a parish in Devonshire, on the shore of Tor Bay, about seven miles north from Dartmouth, the record of the marriage of Samuel Chapin and Cicely Peny (Penny), 9 Feb. 1623 (1623/4); and the same registers were found to contain several other Chapin and Penny records, including the baptism of David, son of Samuel Chapin, 4 Jan. 1624 (1624/5), that of Samuel himself, son of John Chapin, 8 Oct. 1598, that of Cicely, daughter of Henry Penny, 21 Feb. 1601 (1601/2), and the marriage, 14 Sept. 1590, of John Chapin (Samuel's father) and Phillipe Easton. Henry Penny of Paignton, baker, in his will dated 6 Apr. 1630, made bequests to his daughter, Cicelly Chapin, his nephew (i. e., grandson), David Chapin, and to Katherine Chapin and Sarah Chapin; and thus the identity of the Samuel Chapin and wife Cicely of Paignton with the Samuel Chapin and wife Cicely of Springfield, Mass., was established.

Mr. Roy D. Chapin, of Detroit, Mich., then employed the English genealogist, Richard Holworthy, Esq., of London, to continue the researches in Devon by examining the registers of the parishes near Paignton and also any other Devon records that might throw light on the English connections of Dea. Samuel Chapin; and it is the purpose of the writer of this article to present a summary of the results of Mr. Holworthy's researches, which, by the courtesy of Mr. Roy D. Chapin, he is permitted to contribute to the REGISTER.

In the registers of Berry Pomeroy, Co. Devon, a parish a short distance west from Tor Bay, Mr. Holworthy found the baptismal records of six of Samuel Chapin's children, namely, two sons, Henry and Josias, two daughters, Sara and Honor, a son, whose name was illegible in the registers, and a daughter, whose name was illegible except for the last two letters, in, probably the ending of the name Katherin. As Samuel Chapin of Springfield had children named Henry, Josiah, Sarah and Katherine, the identity of Samuel of Springfield with Samuel of Paignton and Berry Pomeroy was established beyond any doubt. The daughter, Honor, and the son, whose name was illegible, though doubtless Samuel, probably died in England.

No earlier generations of Chapins were found either in Paignton or in Berry Pomeroy, but in another neighboring parish, Totnes, Mr. Holworthy found a most important item. On 16 Jan. 1632/3, John Chapin, son of Samuel, was baptized at Totnes. This one record is the only Chapin entry in the Totnes registers after Jan. 1619/20, although there are many early Chapin records, some of which antedate those of the Paignton and Berry Pomeroy registers. The question arises as to why Samuel Chapin had one of his children baptized in Totnes, and the thought occurs that Totnes may have been the home of his father. This possibility is still further strengthened by the fact that in 1566, John Chapin, son of Roger, was baptized at Totnes. While there is no actual evidence that John Chapin of Totnes, son of Roger, was identical with John Chapin of Paignton, father of Samuel, the fact that John of Totnes was baptized in 1566, about the probable time of the birth of John of Paignton, and the fact that John of Totnes disappears from the Totnes records before John of Paignton appears in the Paignton records, make the identity of John of Totnes with John of Paignton very possible. The additional fact of the connection of Samuel Chapin with both parishes increases the possibility into a most interesting probability, for, if John of Paignton came from Totnes, he was the son of Roger, and thus the ancestry of Dea. Samuel Chapin of New England would be carried back another generation.

It is highly probable that further research in Devonshire records will throw more light on this subject, and it is not unreasonable to hope that this suggested probability may be proved a fact. It is truly remarkable that the baptismal records of Samuel Chapin and Cicely, his wife, their marriage record, and the baptismal records of all five of the children that they brought with them to New England should have been discovered. Such important finds encourage further research.

There were other Chapins contemporary with Roger in Totnes: Katherine, Joan, Christian, Walter, who had a wife Agnes, and several children, and Emlen, who was the mother of John Chapin of Lawhitton, Co. Cornwall. They were probably relatives of Roger, and their names may serve as useful clues for the genealogist.

The following pedigree gives in genealogical form all that is at present known in regard to the English history and connections of Dea. Samuel Chapin.

ROGER CHAPYN, of Totnes, Co. Devon, was born probably before 1540, as he had a daughter baptized at Totnes in 1560. The name of his wife is unknown, but she survived him and was living 9 Sept. 1590 as "widdo Chapinne."

Children, recorded at Totnes:

1. JOHAN (a daughter), bapt. 30 June, 1560.
2. JOHN, bapt. 25 Sept., 1566.
3. MARGERY, bur. 31 Oct. 1569.
4. MARGETT, bapt. 10 Feb., 1570/1.

5. LUKE, bapt. 8 May 1576; bur. 9 Sept. 1590, "in the pleague." Perhaps other children.

JOHN CHAPIN (? Roger), of Paignton, Co. Devon, probably identical with the John, son of Roger Chapyn, who was baptized at Totnes, 25 Sept. 1566 (cf. 1, 2), was buried at Paignton, 3 June 1600. He married at Paignton, 14 Sept. 1590, PHILLIPE EASTON, who married again, at Paignton, 26 Jan. 1600/1, George Stone of Paignton, who died between 20 Jan. 1614/15 when his will was dated, and 1 (?) Jan. 1616/17, when it was proved. George Stone's wife, Phillipe, probably survived him, for he made her executrix of his will and residuary legatee, and bequeathed to her and her son, Samuell Chapin, his "furnace and all the furniture thereunto belonging" and his "brassen crocke," and to Thomas Chapine, his wife's eldest son, the bedstead over the hall and the tableboard in the hall and the rest of his other "crockes."

Children, baptized at Paignton:

1. JOANE, bapt. 26 June 1591; m. at Paignton, 9 July 1611, JAMES NARRACOT. Her stepfather, George Stone of Paignton, in his will, dated 20 Jan. 1614/15, bequeathed to Johan Norracott 49s and to John Norracott, "my godsone," 2s. 6d.
2. THOMAS, bapt. 8 Mar. 1596/7; bur. at Paignton, 27 May 1628; m. there, 7 Aug. 1620, BRIDGETT HANNAF(O)RD, presumably the Bridgett Chapin who m. at Berry Pomeroy, Co. Devon, 7 Nov. 1641, John Duport. Children, bapt. at Paignton:
   1. Phillip (probably a daughter), bapt. 6 July 1621.
   2. John, bapt. 1 June 1623.
   3. Samuell, bapt. 4 July 1624; bur. at Paignton 15 June 1628.
   4. Thomas, bapt. 14 July 1626; perhaps the "Thomas Chaplyn" who was bur. at Paignton 30 Nov. 1685.
3. SAMUEL, bapt. 8 Oct. 1598.
4. MARGARET (posthumous), bapt. 16 Nov. 1600, bur. at Paignton, 11 Dec. 1600. (The record of her baptism reads: "Margaret daughter of Phillip Chapin, vid.," the i being evidently a slip of the pen.)

DEA. SAMUEL CHAPIN (John, ? Roger), of Paignton, Co. Devon and of Roxbury and Springfield, Mass., baptized at Paignton, 8 Oct. 1598, died at Springfield, 11 Nov. 1675. He married at Paignton, 9 Feb. 1623/4, CICELY PENY (PENNY), baptized at Paignton, 21 Feb. 1601/2, died at Springfield, 8 Feb. 1682/3, daughter of Henry Penny of Paignton, baker. Dea. Samuel Chapin came with his family to reside in Springfield in 1642. It would rather appear that he resided in this country considerable time, perhaps eight or ten years before he came to Springfield, and perhaps the greater part of his children were born in this country, but record has been found of the birth of but one—the youngest, and we do not find any record of but one of his sons taking the freeman's oath. David, his son, was made a freeman in Springfield, 5th day 2nd month, 1649. He is supposed to be the progenitor of all who bear the name in this country, and I have not found one of the name who could trace their lineage to any other source. In 1652, 10th of October, Samuel Chapin was appointed one of the magistrates of Springfield, and in 1654 his commission was extended indefinitely. He was also much employed in other public business—a useful and highly esteemed man. In the records of the Colony of Massachusetts Bay in New England, the name of John Chapin is mentioned in connection with the building of a movable fort, March 4, 1633/4, and in July 1634, mention is made of a meadow a part of which "John Chapin hath mown." That is all the information I have found respecting him. Whether he is a brother of Samuel or not is a matter of mere conjecture.

(Copied from Chapin Family Genealogy by Orange Chapin, 1862), The opinion of Rev. Samuel Chapin, D.B., of Rockyhill, Ct. as to the native place of Dea. Samuel Chapin:

"Samuel Chapin is believed to be the progenitor of all who bear the name in this country. Respecting the history of the family previous to his landing here, or the precise time of his arrival, nothing is definitely known. It has not been found that one of the name could trace their lineage to any other source.

Samuel Chapin was a legatee in the will of his stepfather, George Stone of Paignton, dated 20 Jan. 1614/15, and was one of the four persons who took the inventory of the estate of Henry Penny, 18 May 1630. In his will Henry Penny bequeathed to "Cicelly Chapin my daughter, my second great pan," and mentioned three of Samuel Chapin's children, as appears below. Since Samuel Chapin's son Josias was baptized at Berry Pomeroy, Co. Devon, 29 Oct. 1637, the migration of Samuel Chapin and his family to New England must have taken place after Oct. 1637 but not later than 1639, when he is known to have been in Roxbury, Mass. The summer of 1638, the year given by Savage, seems to be the most probable time for the voyage, and Savage doubtless based the date of arrival in New England on the fact that the earliest New England record relating to Samuel Chapin is dated 1639.

"The Puritan" St. Gaudens' statue, in figure and costume is intended as an ideal of Dea. Samuel Chapin as given by tradition current among his descendants for there is of his face and features no oral or written records in existence. A striking physiognomy typifying that grand race who "feared God and kept their powder dry." This statue at Springfield, Mass. was unveiled Nov. 24, 1887.

"Memorial to Samuel Chapin," Chapin Book, Vol. I:

"Lives of great men, all remind us
We can make our lives sublime;
And departing, leave behind us,
Foot prints on the sands of time."

Longfellow.

(See Orange Chapin Genealogy of 1862), "The beginning of the Chapin family is altogether creditable. We may well be satisfied that it should start with this genuine old Puritan (Deacon Samuel Chapin) and what he did, with his fellow pioneers, to open the American Continent and on it to found a city and to establish a model Christian Republic."

The Rolls of Heraldry, even if they could show the name linked with royal or princely blood, would add nothing to the true nobility of its origin. It belongs pecularly to this country, and the sphere of its highest dignity and honor was no doubt ordained to be here. Our chief anxiety should be to maintain and advance its true nobility by lives and deeds worthy of such a father." By Pres. Aaron I. Chapin.

Cheney.

William Cheney was a very early resident of Roxbury, in the colony of Massachusetts Bay, in New England (now included in the city of Boston). The oldest records of that town which have been brought down to modern times are contained in a volume whose opening sentence says that "The Book Was bought in 1639 for the purpose of recording various matters relating to the inhabitants . . ." These records demonstrate the fact that "William Cheney was a land-holder and resident in Roxbury before 1640," and they do no more.

The settlement at Roxbury was begun in 1630, a little later than those at Dorchester and Boston; but there was no church organization for a year (p. 18) and no pastor till 1632. In the records of the Church of Roxbury, written by the first pastor, who was that remarkable "Apostle to the Indians," Rev. John Elliot, there is a

GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH IN ENGLAND

Communicated by the Committee on English and Foreign Research

ANCESTRY OF WILLIAM CHANDLER OF ROXBURY, MASS.

Contributed by G. ANDREWS MORIARTY, A.M., LL.B., F.S.A., of Bristol, R. I.

[In the article here published the paternal ancestry of William Chandler of Roxbury, Mass., whose daughter Hannah became the wife of George Abbott of Roxbury and later of Andover, Mass., is traced through four generations in England to his great-great-grandfather, Thomas Chandler of Bishops-Stortford, co. Herts, who was born probably about 1475 and died probably about 1550. Like the article on the ancestry of George Abbott of Andover, which may be found in the REGISTER for January 1931 (supra, pp. 79-86), this article was compiled several years ago by the late J. Gardner Bartlett from English records brought to light by him and from sundry New England records, and was purchased by me from Mr. Bartlett. It is here offered to readers of the REGISTER as a companion article to the one giving the ancestry of George Abbott.—G. ANDREWS MORIARTY.]

THE earliest known ancestor of William Chandler, who came to New England in 1637 and settled at Roxbury, Mass., whose daughter Hannah married George Abbott, then of Roxbury but later of Andover, Mass. (vide supra, p. 84), was Thomas Chandler of Bishops-Stortford, co. Herts, England,* who was born about 1475 and is given as No. 1 in this pedigree.

The surname Chandler originally meant a maker or seller of candles, an occupation in which many men in all parts of England were formerly engaged. Like many other names of occupations, it became an hereditary surname early in the fourteenth century, when family names derived from offices, occupations, or patronymics came into general use. There were, accordingly, numerous distinct families of the name, descended from different progenitors and, as a rule, not related to one another.

*For a brief description of Bishops-Stortford vide supra, p. 80.

1. THOMAS CHANDLER, of Bishops-Stortford, co. Herts, probably a chandler by occupation as well as by name (vide infra), born probably about 1475, was living 19 Mar., 2 Edward VI [1547/8], but died in or before Hilary Term, 3 and 4 Edward VI [11 to 31 Jan. 1550/1], since in a fine in that term his son Thomas (whose wife Agnes also appears in the fine) is called "Thomas Chaundeler, Senior." (Vide infra, 2.) He married, about 1500, ———, who was buried in 1514, according to an entry in the accounts of the churchwardens of Bishops-Stortford for that year, given below.

As the court rolls of the manor of Stortford from 1399 to 1423 and the accounts of the churchwardens of St. Michael's Church from 1431 on have been preserved, and as no Chandlers appear therein until this Thomas Chandler is mentioned in 1514, it may be inferred that he was the first of the family to settle at Bishops-Stortford. No will or administration on his estate has been found; and all that is known about him has been revealed by a few entries in the accounts of the churchwardens of St. Michael's Church, Bishops-Stortford, and in the lay subsidies. The items in the churchwardens' accounts are as follows:

1514. Item, of Thomas Chaundeler for waste of Torchis at the buryyng of his wife, xvj d.

1518. Item, delyverd to Andrew Clyfton and Thomas Chaundeler for to fynde w^t^alle a lyght before Seynt Myghell for a hole yere v s.

1521, 1522, 1536. Thomas Chaundeler a churchwarden.

1537, Palm Sunday. Inventory of church goods. M^d^, delyv'd to old Chaundeler ij canstiks [candlesticks].

19 Mar., 2 Edward VI [1547/8]. Inventory of church goods. Item, iiij canstikes delyvered to old Chaundeler and Thomas Snowe. Item, wex weyng cv li sold by old Chaundeler.

This Thomas Chandler was taxed, as "Thomas Chaundeler," at Bishops-Stortford in the subsidy of 14 Henry VIII [1522–23], the amount of the tax being illegible, as "Thomas Chaundeler," in the subsidy of 34 Henry VIII [1542–43], the amount of the tax being 14s. 8d., and, as "Thomas Chaundler," in the subsidy of 37 Henry VIII [1545–46], on goods valued at £20, the amount of the tax being illegible. (Lay Subsidies, Herts, 120/117, 121/160, 121/177, in the Public Record Office, London.) In the two later of these subsidies his son, "Thomas Chandeler junior," also appears.

Child:

2. i. THOMAS, b. about 1500.

2. THOMAS CHANDLER (Thomas), of Bishops-Stortford, co. Herts, born about 1500, died in the spring of 1554. He married, about 1525, AGNES ———, who survived him.

Since he is the only person of the family name in his generation who appears in Bishops-Stortford, it may be assumed that he was the only surviving son of his father. He seems to have been successful and prosperous, as there are evidences that he acquired considerable property and left a good estate. The earliest mention found of him is in 1532, in one of four land transactions by fine in which he participated, in three as a purchaser and in one as a vendor, which may be summarized as follows:

1532. Richard Glascok, Thomas Chaundeler, John Jacobbe, Thomas Smyth, and William Sybthorpe, querents v. George Thompson and his wife Margaret, deforciants, for two messuages and lands in Stortford. (Feet of Fines, Herts, Easter Term, 24 Henry VIII.)

1532. Richard Glascok and Thomas Chaundeler, querents, v. John Nobill and his wife Joane and Thomas Clyfton and his wife Joan, for a messuage and lands in Stortford. (Ib., Michaelmas Term, 24 Henry VIII.)

1541/2. Thomas Chaundeler, querent, v. George Tomson, gentleman, and his wife Margaret, deforciants, for a barn and land in Stortford. (Ib., Hilary Term, 33 Henry VIII.)

1550/1. Nicholas Marden, querent, v. Thomas Chaundeler, Sr., and his wife Agnes, deforciants, for a messuage in Stortford. (Ib., Hilary Term, 4 Edward VI.)

Some of the properties held by Thomas Chandler are shown in a rental roll of the Bishop of London for his manor of Bishops-Stortford in 37 Henry VIII [1545–46], as follows:

Thomas Chanler for a tenement that he dwelth in on the sowth syed of the heyght, by yere ij s. vj d. The same Thomas for certene lands late parcell of Hawers, ij s. iiij d. Itm, the same Thomas for a tenement in Sowth stret on the West syed called Sampson, by yere xix d. Itm, the same Thomas for a tenement in the wyder end of sowth strete on the est syed, by yere xxiij d. Itm, the same Thomas for a garden in basburne lane, by yere vj d. Itm, the same Thomas for the dovehowse and garden at Hacryelbryge, by yere ij d. (Court Roll 299, in the Public Record Office, London.)

As Thomas Chandler, Jr., he was assessed at Stortford 10d. on lands in the subsidy of 33 Henry VIII [1541–42], 10s. in 34 Henry VIII [1542–43], 2d. on goods valued at 40s. in 35 and 36 Henry VIII [1543–1545], and 3s. 4d. on lands valued at 40s. in 37 Henry VIII [1545–46]; and as Thomas Chaundler, Sr., he was assessed at Stortford 18s. on goods in the subsidy of 4 Edward VI [1549/50–1550/1]. (Lay Subsidies, Herts, 121/151, 121/160, 121/157, 121/177, 121/185, in the Public Record Office, London.) In 1546, 1548, and 1553 Thomas Chandler was one of the churchwardens of Bishops-Stortford, as appears from the accounts of that board, preserved in the church. An abstract of his will follows:

The Will of THOMAS CHAUNDELER of Stortford, dated 30 Mar. 1554. To my son John Chaundler and his heirs and assigns for ever the messuage I now dwell in, together with one garden in Basborn Lane to the said messuage [belonging (?)], and one croft enclosed at Waldinge, of four acres, with one meadow by the waterside, and one croft in Thorley that I late bought of Richard Pilleston, the said John paying yearly to Agneis, my wife, the rent of said premises during her life. To my son Thomas Chaundler and his heirs and assigns for ever a grove I late bought of Henry Perker, gentleman, of Berden, deceased, and my messuage in Northstreet I late bought of Edward Willay, the said Thomas paying yearly the rent thereof to the said Agneis, my wife, for life. To my said son Thomas for life my meadow of two acres I late bought of Mr. Tomson in Stortford, on the backside of Cawton the tanner, with remainder to my son Robert Chaundler and his heirs, and, if the said Robert die without issue, then remainder to my son John Chaundeler and his heirs. To my son Robert Chaundler and his heirs and assigns for ever my dove house, yard, and barn, my tenement in Stortford I late bought of Wardall, and my croft and pasture I late bought of John Turnor. I will have it remembered that I have surrendered my copyhold lands and tenements by the hands of Raf Smyth and Richard Bedwell, tenants of the lord's customary, for the use of Robert Chaundler, my son, and his heirs and assigns, he paying yearly to my wife Agneis the rent thereof for life. To Robert Chaundler £20. I will that my son Robert Chaundler pay to Anne Chaundler, the daughter of John Chaundler, 5 marks at the day of his [sic] marriage, and to Barbara Chaundler, daughter of Thomas Chaundler, 5 marks at the day of her marriage, and to Margaret Bedwell, my daughter's daughter, 5 marks at the day of her marriage. To my wife Agneis a lease of a meadow and tenement I late bought of Stonard. To six poor men of Stortford a pair of hose each. To six poor children of the same town a coat each. All the residue of my goods to my wife Agneis, who is to be executrix; and John Chaundler and Robert Chaundler are to be executors with her. Supervisor: my son-in-law Richard Bedwell. Witnesses: Raif Smythe, George Hawkyns, and Willm Bardnerd. Proved on the oaths of Agnes and Robert Chaundler, executors, 23 May 1554, with power reserved for John Chandler, the other executor, when he shall demand it. (Commissary Court of London for Essex and Herts, Garland, 7.)

Children, born probably at Bishops-Stortford:

3. i. JOHN, b. about 1525.
4. ii. THOMAS, ancestor of the Chandler family in America, b. about 1528.

iii. AGNES, b. about 1530; m. about 1550 RICHARD BEDWELL of Bishops-Stortford.

iv. ROBERT, b. about 1532; bur. at Stortford 2 Aug. 1611; m. before 1560 JOANE ———.

He was an executor of his father's will in 1554, paid an assessment of 10d. on the churchwardens' accounts in 1558, and was taxed at Bishops-Stortford 2s. 8d. on lands valued at 20s. in the subsidy of 5 Elizabeth [1562–63], 16d. on lands valued at 20s. in the subsidy of 8 Elizabeth [1565–66], and 10s. 8d. on goods valued at £4 in the subsidy of 39 Elizabeth [1596–97]. (Lay Subsidies, Herts, 121/202, 121/208, 121/271.) In 1570 John Miller was querent v. Robert Chaundeler and his wife Joan, deforciants, for a messuage in Stortford (Feet of Fines, Herts, Easter Term, 12 Elizabeth). On 6 Apr. 1583, 24 Sept. 1583, and 27 Sept. 1585, Robert Chaundler appears as one of the chief pledges at courts and views of frankpledge held for the manor of Stortford (Court Rolls of Ecclesiastical Commissioners, 206/2, 206/3, in the Public Record Office, London). He left no will; and, as the parish registers do not give the names of the parents of infants baptized prior to 1580, the list of his children that follows, while probably correct, should not be considered as positively proved.

Children, recorded at Bishops-Stortford:

1. Frances, bapt. 6 Dec. 1562; d. young.
2. Mary, b. perhaps about 1565; bur. 4 Nov. 1582.

3. Frances, bapt. 6 Jan. 1567/8; bur. 11 Jan. 1574/5.
4. Thomas, bapt. 5 Feb. 1569/70; bur. 30 May 1571.
5. Richard, bapt. 16 Feb. 1572/3; living at Bishops-Stortford in 1614; m. ———, and had children as follows: (1) Robert, bapt. 24 June 1601. (2) Elizabeth, bapt. 17 Oct. 1602; probably m. 1 Nov. 1624 John Gryce. (3) Johane, bapt. 19 Aug. 1604. (4) Richard, bapt. 10 Apr. 1614.
6. Thomas, bapt. 6 Nov. 1575; bur. 9 Sept. 1597.

3. JOHN CHANDLER (Thomas, Thomas), of Bishops-Stortford, co. Herts, born, probably at Bishops-Stortford, about 1525, was living 17 Mar. 1581/2. He married, about 1550, JOANE ———.

He was a considerable legatee in his father's will of 1554, and was also named in it as an executor. But little mention of him, however, has been found. In 1563 John Denyzon was querent v. John Chaundeler and his wife Joane, deforciants, for a messuage and lands in Stortford (Feet of Fines, Herts, Easter Term, 5 Elizabeth, in the Public Record Office, London). At a court and view of frankpledge of the manor of Stortford, held 17 Mar. 1581/2, John Chandler appears as one of the chief pledges (Court Rolls of Ecclesiastical Commissioners, 206/2, in the Public Record Office, London). As he left no will, and as the parish registers of Bishops-Stortford do not give the names of the parents of children baptized before 1580, the names of his children are not known with certainty, but are probably as here given.

Children, recorded at Bishops-Stortford:

i. TOBIAS, of Bishops-Stortford, tanner, b. about 1551; bur. at Bishops-Stortford, as "Tobias Chandler old man," 24 Oct. 1629; m. 21 Sept. 1574 JOHANE MOMFORD, who was bur. at Bishops-Stortford 29 June 1618.

He was churchwarden at Bishops-Stortford in 1598. He was taxed at Stortford on goods in the subsidy of 39 Elizabeth [1596–97], the amount of the tax being illegible, and he was taxed there 8s. on goods valued at £3 in the subsidy of 43 Elizabeth [1600–01]. (Lay Subsidies, Herts, 121/271, 121/280.) At a court of the manor of Pigotts in Stortford, held there 1 Oct., 4 James I [1606], Tobias Chaundeler, Sr., appeared as essoin for Thomas Chaundeler, probably his uncle (Herts Genealogist and Antiquary, vol. 2, pp. 377–378). On 9 Dec. 1618 he was a witness to the will of his cousin, Henry Chandler (5).

The will of Tobias Chandler, Sr., of Stortford, co. Herts, tanner, was dated 20 Aug. 1627. In it he bequeathed to his three daughters, Margaret, Jhone, and Grace, beds, blankets, sheets, etc.; to his son John a doublet, etc., and his least Bible; to his son Robert his best horse and greatest Bible; to his son George his horseman's "coote," etc.; to Henry Moncke a shirt; and to Mr. Dillingham 6s. 8d., to preach at his burial. Witnesses: William Dillingham, Tho: Jennynges. The will was proved 24 Nov. 1629. (Commissary Court of London for Essex and Herts, original will, 1629.)

Children, recorded at Bishops-Stortford:

1. Tobias, probably a son of Tobias and Johane (Momford) Chandler, although he was not named in the will of his supposed father, bapt. at Bishops-Stortford 21 Sept. 1575 as Tobias Chandler [parents' names not given]; m. 22 Apr. 1604 Katherine Johnson, who in her will, dated 16

Apr. 1662 and proved 4 Oct. 1662, names her son-in-law, William Gyatt, her sons Henry and Thomas, her grandchild Alice Birch, her grand-children Luce and Mary Shuckford, and her son-in-law Thomas Shuckford, whom she makes executor. Witnesses: Thomas Rennals, George Osbuern, and Mathew Gurney. (Commissary Court of London for Essex and Herts, original will.) Children: (1) Tobias, bapt. 13 Jan. 1604/5; d. 16 Nov. 1613. (2) Henry, bapt. 19 Jan. 1605/6; living in 1662. (3) Thomas, bapt. 23 Feb. 1606/7; living in 1662. (4) John, bapt. 3 July 1608. (5) Jone, bapt. 3 Dec. 1609. (6) Alice, bapt. 21 Apr. 1611. (7) Mary, bapt. 11 Oct. 1612; m. 28 Oct. 1635 Thomas Shugford.

2. Margaret, bapt. 13 Oct. 1577; d. at Roxbury, Mass., 3 Feb. 1645/6; m. (1) Henry Munck (or Monck), who was bur. 10 Dec. 1602; m. (2) at Bishops-Stortford, 7 Nov. 1603, William Denison of Bishops-Stortford, bapt. there 3 Feb. 1571/2, d. at Roxbury 25 Jan. 1653/4. William Denison and his wife Margaret, with three of their six sons,* emigrated to New England in 1631 and settled at Roxbury, where they appear in Rev. John Eliot's church records. He was admitted freeman 3 July 1632 and was a representative in the General Court in 1635; but in 1637, being an adherent of Rev. John Wheelwright, he was disarmed. His descendants were numerous and influential. (Cf. Savage's Genealogical Dictionary, Pope's Pioneers of Massachusetts, and REGISTER, vol. 46, pp. 352-354, 127-133.)
3. John, bapt. 4 Oct. 1579; living at Bishops-Stortford in 1629; m. 18 Sept. 1615 Jane Miller. Children: (1) John, bapt. 12 July 1616; living in 1667. (2) A daughter, b. and bur. 1 Mar. 1617/18. (3) Robert, bapt. 10 July 1619. (4) William, b. in 1623; d. s. p. in 1665, leaving a will. (5) George, bapt. 3 May 1623; d. in 1667, leaving by will† his estate to a widow, Dorcas, and two children. (6) Thomas, bapt. 11 Feb. 1626/7. (7) Edward, bapt. 7 Apr. 1629; bur. 9 Apr. 1630.
4. George, of Bishops-Stortford, bapt. 1 Nov. 1581; d. at Bishops-Stortford 23 May 1628. Children: (1) Elizabeth, bapt. 23 Aug. 1601; probably m. 27 May 1621 Thomas West. (2) Jeremy, bapt. 24 Oct. 1602. (3) Anna, bapt. 16 Dec. 1604. (4) Grace, bapt. 26 Jan. 1605/6. (5) John, bapt. 11 Jan. 1606/7. (6) Alice, bapt. 17 Jan. 1607/8. (7) Sarah, bapt. 14 May 1609; probably m. 30 Nov. 1629 Henry Abram. (8) William, bapt. 21 Oct. 1610; bur. 14 Feb. 1612/13. (9) Margaret, bapt. 21 June 1612.
5. Thomas, bapt. 17 Dec. 1583; bur. 11 Mar. 1606/7.
6. Joane, bapt. 10 Apr. 1586; d. young.
7. Joane, bapt. 23 Mar. 1587/8; d. young.
8. Frances, bapt. 12 Apr. 1590; d. young.
9. Joane, bapt. 11 June 1592.
10. Robert, tallow chandler, bapt. 31 Mar. 1594; bur. at Bishops-Stortford 10 June 1638; m. in 1617 Sarah ———. By his nuncupative will, declared 8 June 1638 and proved 23 July 1638, he left all his estate to his wife Sarah, for the bringing up of his children (Commissary Court of London for Essex and Herts, original will). Children: (1) Robert, bapt. 18 Apr. 1618. (2) Jane, bapt. 29 Apr. 1620. (3) Grace, bapt. 26 Oct. 1622. (4) Thomas, bapt. 7 Aug. 1625. (5) Henry, bapt. 27 Apr. 1628; bur. 6 July 1631.

*They had also a daughter, Sarah, bapt. and bur. at Bishop-Stortford in 1615.
†This will has a seal on which is inscribed a fleur-de-lis.

(6) William, bapt. 2 May 1630. (7) Mary, bapt. 4 Nov. 1632. (8) Joane, bapt. 19 July 1635. (9) Martha, bapt. 22 Apr. 1638.

11. Grace, bapt. 10 Sept. 1598.

ii. ANNE, b. about 1553; mentioned in the will of her grandfather, Thomas Chandler (2), in 1554.

iii. SUSANNA, b. about 1556; m. 4 Oct. 1579 JOSEPH TAYLOR.

iv. GRACE, b. about 1560; m. 3 Oct. 1585 WILLIAM ROGERS.

4. THOMAS CHANDLER (Thomas, Thomas), of Bishops-Stortford, co. Herts, ancestor of the Chandler family of America, was born, probably at Bishops-Stortford, about 1528, and was buried there 4 June 1611, aged over 83 years. He married, about 1552, JOANE ———, who was buried at Bishops-Stortford 11 Mar. 1606/7.

The earliest mention found of him is in the subsidy of 4 Edward VI [1549/50–1550/1], when as "Thomas Chaundler jun." he was assessed at Stortford 10s. on goods. He is taxed at Stortford in subsequent subsidies as follows: in 5 Elizabeth [1562–63], as "Thomas Chaundeler," 13s. 4d. on goods valued at £8; in 8 Elizabeth [1565–66] and in 13 Elizabeth [1570–71], as "Thomas Chandler," 8s. on goods valued at £8; in 39 Elizabeth [1596–97], as "Thomas Chandler," on goods, the amount of the tax being illegible; in 43 Elizabeth [1600–01], as "Thomas Chandeler," 8s. on lands worth 40s.; and in 3 James I [1605–6] as "Thomas Chandler," on lands worth 20s., the amount of the tax being illegible. (Lay Subsidies, Herts, 121/185, 121/202, 121/208, 121/225, 121/271, 121/280, 121/302, in the Public Record Office, London.)

In 1556 Henry Hoye was querent v. Thomas Chaundeler and his wife Joane, deforciants, for a messuage and lands in Stortford (Feet of Fines, Herts, Trinity Term, 2 and 3 Philip and Mary).

Thomas Chandler also appears for many years in the churchwardens' accounts. In 1558 he paid an assessment of 12d.; in 1562 he paid 5s. for wood in Thorleywyk; in 1573 he was collector for the market house and in 1582 he paid 12s. rent. The churchwardens' rental accounts show that in 1592 Philologus Bush and Robert Smith held a double tenement in South Street, formerly Bowyers, where they resided, each paying 6d. per year. In the next year (1593) the said double tenement was held by Philologus Bush and Thomas Chandler, the latter evidently having secured Smith's moiety. Philologus Bush and Thomas Chandler continue to reside there, and appear there yearly until 1600, when Thomas Chandler is succeeded by Henry Chandler. Then Philologus Bush and Henry Chandler appear there yearly until 1619, when the latter is succeeded by his widow. These records are important, since they show that Henry Chandler was undoubtedly a son of Thomas Chandler and about 1600 received from him this half tenement. After the death of Thomas Chandler in 1611, it is recorded that Edward Chandeler held Lowemeade, late Thomas Chandler's and formerly Mr. Tompson's; this shows that Edward also was a son of Thomas.

At a court of the manor of Pigotts, in Bishops-Stortford, held 1 Oct., 4 James I [1606], Tobias Chaundeler, Sr., appears as essoin for Thomas Chaundeler (Herts Genealogist and Antiquary, vol. 2, pp. 377–378). Thomas Chandler also appears on several of the court rolls for views of frankpledge of the manor of Bishops-Stortford. At the courts held 13 Apr. 1577 and 27 Sept. 1577 he was one of the jurors; and at the courts of 5 Apr. 1578, 12 Apr. 1580, 4 Apr. 1581, 24 Sept. 1583, and 30 Mar. 1585 he was one of the chief pledges. At the courts of 5 Apr. and 27 Sept. 1578 Richard Comfrey was ordered to open up a right of way for Thomas Chaundler to go and come to and from Southmill field. (Court Rolls of Ecclesiastical Commissioners, 205/21, 206/1, 206/2, 206/3, in the Public Record Office, London.)

Thomas Chandler was churchwarden at Bishops-Stortford in 1562, 1563, and 1574. He left no will and, as the parish registers do not give the names of the parents of infants baptized prior to 1580, the names of all his children cannot be given with certainty; but there is proof that he had at least three children, Barbara, Henry, and Edward.

Children:

i. BARBARA, b. about 1553; living in 1554, when she was mentioned in the will of her grandfather, Thomas Chandler (2).

ii. AGNES, bur. at Bishops-Stortford 20 Feb. 1599/1600.

5. iii. HENRY, ancestor of the Chandler family in America, b. at Bishops-Stortford about 1560.

iv. SARAH, bapt. at Bishops-Stortford 5 July 1562; m. there, 20 Sept. 1580, JOHN INGHAM.

v. RICHARD, b. about 1565; bur. at Bishops-Stortford 2 Feb. 1592/3.

vi. EDWARD, of Stortford, silk weaver, b. about 1568; bur. at Stortford, as "Old Edward Chandler," 9 Nov. 1653; m. about 1600 ANN ———, who survived him.

In the subsidy of 3 James I [1605–06] Edward Chandler was taxed at Stortford on goods valued at 60s., the amount of the tax being illegible (Lay Subsidies, Herts, 121/302). He succeeded to "Lowemeade late Thomas Chandlers" in 1611, and for many years paid rent therefor (vide supra). In 1614 he served as churchwarden (Churchwardens' Rentals and Accounts). An abstract of his will follows.

The Will of EDWARD CHAUNDLER of Stentford [sic], co. Herts, silk weaver, being aged, dated 1 Jan. 1652/3. To my wife Ann, with whom I have lived a long season, all my household goods. To my son-in-law Justinian Aylmer, after the death of my wife, a tenement in Stortford where my son-in-law Symon Rutland now dwells, he paying to my daughter Susan, wife of Francis Onge, £30, and to my grandson Samuel Coe £5 at twenty-one. To my son Francis Chandler a silver beaker. All the residue of my estate to my wife Ann, whom I make executrix. Witnesses: John Rowe, John Howe, Theophilus Aylmer. Proved 17 Jan. 1653/4. (P. C. C., Alchin, 188.)

Children, recorded at Bishops-Stortford:

1. Edward, of the neighboring parish of Ware, draper, bapt. 1 Feb. 1600/1; d. in 1650; m. about 1623 Elizabeth ———.

In his will, dated 8 May 1650 and proved 24 Apr. 1651, Edward Chandler named his wife Elizabeth, his sons Edward and Daniel Chandler, his daughters Mary Holley and Sarah Chandler, his daughter Susan Chandler (under twenty), and his children Martha, Job, Noah, and Rebecca Chandler (all under eighteen). (P. C. C., Grey, 63.) His eldest child was baptized at Stortford, and six other children were baptized at Ware. Children: (1) Elizabeth, bapt. 2 Oct. 1624; d. young. (2) Edward, b. about 1626. (3) Mary, b. about 1628; m. ——— Holly. (4) Susan, b. in 1630. (5) Martha, b. in 1632. (6) John, bapt. 31 Aug. 1634; d. young. (7) Sarah, bapt. 25 Oct. 1635. (8) Daniel, bapt. 6 Nov. 1636. vii. WILLIAM, bapt. at Bishops-Stortford 31 Aug. 1570; bur. there 8 July 1590.

viii. JOHN, bapt. at Bishops-Stortford 10 Aug. 1573; bur. there 9 May 1592.

ix. THOMAS, d. 23 May 1592.

5. HENRY CHANDLER (Thomas, Thomas, Thomas), of Bishops-Stortford, co. Herts, glover, ancestor of the Chandler family of America, was born at Bishops-Stortford about 1560, and was buried there 17 Dec. 1618. He married, about 1590, ANNE ———, who survived him and married secondly, 8 July 1622, as his second wife, John Miller, Sr., of Bishops-Stortford.

Although Henry Chandler's baptism is not recorded and his father left no will, it is nevertheless clear that he was a son of Thomas Chandler, as he succeeded to the moiety of the double house occupied by the latter (vide supra, p. 139). Appended are the entries in the churchwardens' rental roll for this property in 1600:

Of Phillologus Bush for part of a tenement in Southstreet where he resides formerly of John Bowyer the elder, 6d.

Of Henry Chaundeler for the other part of said tenement where he resides, 6d.

Bush and Chandler thereafter appear on the yearly rolls as residing on this property until 1619, when the latter is succeeded by his widow.

Except for mentions of his name in the parish registers, no other information about Henry Chandler has been found, apart from his will, an abstract of which is here given:

The Will of HENRY CHANDELER of Stortford, co. Herts, glover, dated 9 Dec. 1618. To my wife Anne, for life, the tenement in Stortford where I now dwell (my daughter Elizabeth to have the chamber therein in which she lodges); with remainder to Samuell Chandeler, my youngest son, he paying to my daughter Sara, within four years after the death of my wife, £5 in money, and to my daughter Elizabeth, for life, an annuity of 20s., payable at the usual quarterly feasts. "Itm. I give & bequeath vnto Willm myne eldest sonne ffower pownds of lawfull mony to be payd to him wi[th]in fower yeres next after my decesse, that is to say yerely in e[v'r]y of the said yeres Twenty shillings, if my said sonne live so long, To be pd to my Wife, her executors, or ass." To my daughters Elizabeth and Sarah, beds, etc., and to said daughter Sarah a linen wheel that was her grandmother's. All the residue of my estate to my wife Anne, whom I make sole executrix. Wit[nesses]: Tobias Channler, Willm Denyson, Tho: Jeninges, Thomas Barnarde, Sen., Sc. The mark of Henrici Chandeler. [Seal, a fleur-de-lis.] Proved by the executrix 15 Mar. 1618/19. (Commissary Court of London for Essex and Herts, original will.)

Children:
1. Mary, bapt. 11 Apr. 1630.
2. Henry, bapt. 25 Dec. 1631.

6. WILLIAM CHANDLER (Henry, Thomas, Thomas, Thomas), of Bishops-Stortford, co. Herts, and of Roxbury, Mass., pointer, immigrant ancestor of the Chandler family in America, was baptized at Bishops-Stortford 12 Oct. 1595, and died at Roxbury 26 Jan. 1641/2, the Roxbury church records containing the following entry: "1641. Month 11[to] day 26. Willia' Chandler, a Christian & godly broth[r] dyed of a Consumption." (Roxbury Land and Church Records, printed, p. 170.) He married first, at Bishops-Stortford, 29 Jan. 1621/2, ALICE THOROGOOD of Farnham, co. Essex, the parish north of Bishops-Stortford, who was buried at Bishops-Stortford, as "Alice Chandeler, wife of William Chandler, poynter," 15 June 1625; and secondly, at Farnham, 6 Nov. 1625, ANNIS (or AGNES or ANN) BAYFORD, baptized there 12 June 1603, daughter of Francis and Johan Bayford.* Annis (Bayford) Chandler migrated to New England with her husband and four children in 1637, and, surviving William Chandler, married secondly, at Roxbury, 2 July 1643, as his second wife, John Dane of Ipswich and Roxbury, Mass., who was buried at Roxbury 14 Sept. 1658. She married thirdly, at Roxbury, 9 Aug. 1660, as

*Francis Bayford was baptized at Farnham, co. Essex, 13 Apr. 1567, the second son of Richard and Joan (Searl) Bayford who were married 10 Apr. 1564. An abstract of the will of Francis Bayford follows:

The Will of Francis Bayford of Farnham, co. Essex, husbandman, dated 9 June 1614. My copyhold lands to my wife Johan, for life, with remainder to my eldest son Richard and my younger son John, the former to pay to my daughter Agnes £14 and the latter to pay to her £6 within three years of the death of my wife. The residue of my goods to my wife Johan, executrix, to bring up my young children. Witnesses: Edmond Byshop, Richard Allis, Thomas Allis. Proved 3 Dec. 1622. (Commissary Court of London for Essex and Herts, original will, 1622, No. 141.)

his second wife, Dea. John Parmenter of Sudbury, Mass., later of Roxbury, who died at Roxbury 1 May 1671, aged 83 years. She survived her third husband, and died 15 Mar. 1682/3, the Roxbury church records giving her burial as follows: "1683. M.I., d. 17, Old Mother Parmiter, a blessed Saint." (Roxbury Land and Church Records, printed, p. 184.)

William Chandler learned the trade of point making, the making of the lace tags for fastening clothing which were in vogue before buttons came into use. By his father's will, in 1618, he received only £4, and it is, therefore, probable that he had already received from his father a portion of his patrimony.

Except for the references to him in the parish registers and in his father's will, no records of him have been found at Bishops-Stortford, where he resided until he emigrated with his family to New England in 1637. His emigration was due, without doubt, to the preaching of Rev. John Eliot, the Puritan minister known as the "Apostle to the Indians," who was born in the neighboring parish of Widford in 1604, went to New England in 1631, and became pastor of the church at Roxbury, Mass., being accompanied or followed thither by many adherents who had lived in the parishes on the borders of Herts and Essex.

William Chandler appears among the early proprietors and householders of Roxbury, and was admitted a freeman of Massachusetts on 13 May 1640. (Records of the Colony of the Massachusetts Bay, printed, vol. 1, p. 377.) He owned an estate of twenty-two acres, described as follows:

"John Dane his house and lott with a swamp before the house, butting upon the way leading to the house of John Watson east, in all five accres and a halfe more or lesse, upon John Watson's swamp south, upon the heires of Thomas Ruggles west, and upon the heires of George Alcocke north. And in the nookes next Dorchester being the second lott lying betweene Phillip Tory and the assignes of Joseph Patching ten accres and a halfe. And in the thousand accres neare Deddam.* All the lands with the house above mentioned were latly belonging to the heires of William Chandler." (Roxbury Land and Church Records, printed, pp. 5, 39.)

This homestead of William Chandler was situated at the southerly corner of the present Bartlett and Washington streets, in Roxbury (see Drake's Town of Roxbury, p. 368); and it later became the property of John Dane, who married the widow of William Chandler, by grant of the Massachusetts General Court, as appears from the following documents:

"1649. At a Gen^{r}all Co^{r}te, at Boston, the 17th of the 8th M^{o}. Upon the petition of John Dayne, the house & land w^{ch} was W^{m} Chamb^{r}s [sic] is settled upon y^{e} said Dayne, he haveing paid more debts of Chamb^{r}s [sic] then y^{e} house & land was worth, & also brought up y^e^ children of Chandler, w^ch^ have bene chargable to him."

"19 Oct. 1649. In ans^r^ to the peticon of John Dajne ffor the settling the howse and lands of W^m^ Chandler (whose wyddow he marryed, & children brought up) on him, the said John Dajne, his request was graunted, & y^e^ said howse and lands confirmed on him by this Courte." (Records of the Colony of the Massachusetts Bay, printed, vol. 2, p. 283, vol. 3, p. 177.)

The following account of William Chandler, given in the list of members of the Roxbury church by his pastor, Rev. John Eliot, well describes his circumstances and character:

"William Chandler he came to N. E. aboute the yeare 1637: he brought 4 small childr, Thomas, Hana, John, Willia': his 5^t^ child Sarah was borne here; he lived a very religious & Godly life among us, & fell into a consumption, to w^h^ he had bene long inclined; he lay neare a yeare sick, in all w^h^ time, his faith, patiens, & Godlynesse & contentation so shined, y^t^ Christ was much gloryfied in him; he was a man of weake pts, but excellent fath & holyness, he was very thankful man, & much magnified Gods goodnesse, he was pore, but God so opened the hearts of his nabs to him y^t^ he never wanted y^t^ w^h^ was (at least in his esteeme) very plentifull & comfortable to him; he dyed about the [blank] in yeare 1641, & left a sweet memory & savor behind him." (Roxbury Land and Church Records, printed, p. 83.)

JOHN NILES OF BRAINTREE, MASS., AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS

By JOEL NELSON ENO, A.M., of Brooklyn, N. Y.

1. JOHN[1] NILES, of Dorchester and Braintree, Mass., ancestor of all of this surname in the northern part of the United States, as far as the name has been traced, was born, probably in England, about 1603, and died at Braintree 8 Feb. 1693/4, the entry of his death in the town records calling him "Old John Niles" and giving his age as "about 91." He married first, probably in 1636, JANE REED of Braintree, who died 15 May 1654; and secondly HANNAH (———) AMES, widow of William Ames. She survived John Niles, and died 31 Jan. 1703.

WILLIAM CHESEBROUGH FAMILY.

WILLIAM CHESEBROUGH, the first white man who made what is now Stonington, in Connecticut, his permanent place of abode, was born in Boston, Lincolnshire, England, in the year 1594, where he m. Anna Stevenson, December 6th, 1620. He was a gunsmith, and worked at his trade in England, and in this country, until he came to Stonington in 1649, when he changed his occupation to that of farming and stock raising, occupying and improving the large grants of land given him by the town of Pequot, now New London.

In the early part of the year 1630 he joined a large party of immigrants who came with John Winthrop, Esq., to this country. Mr. Chesebrough located himself in Boston, Mass., and soon after became a member of the first church. He was admitted a freeman of the Massachusetts Colony in May, 1631, and afterwards took an active part in public affairs. In 1632, Mr. Chesebrough was elected as "one of two" from Boston to unite with two from every plantation to confer with the court about raising a public stock, and "Prince" in his "Annals" says that this seems to pave the way for a house of representation in the General Court.

In 1634, Mr. Chesebrough was elected constable of Boston, where he continued to reside for several years. Previous to 1640 he removed to Braintree, and that year was elected deputy to the Massachusetts General Court. Soon after which he removed his residence to Rehoboth, Plymouth Colony, where in 1643 his list was returned at £450. The next year lots were drawn for a division of the woodland near the town, and Mr. Chesebrough received lot No. 4. During this year the planters of Rehoboth drew up and signed a compact by which they agreed to be governed by nine persons, "according to law and equity until we shall subject ourselves jointly to some other government." Mr. Chesebrough was a party to that transaction, which was participated in by thirty of the planters of the new settlement. He had taken an active and prominent part in organizing the town of Rehoboth, and at a public meeting held July 12, 1644, his services were recognized by the town in ordering that he "should have division in all lands of Seakunk, for one hundred and fifty three pounds, besides what he is to have for his own proportion, and that in way of consideration for the pains and charges he hath been at for setting off this plantation." He was propounded for freeman at the General Court in Plymouth in 1645, but was not admitted till 1648. Notwithstanding the prominent part he acted in establishing the plantation of Rehoboth, and the recognition of his services by the new town, he was not treated with much favor by the General Court of that colony, which ordered him to be arrested for an affray with an Indian by the name of Vassamequine, and harshly treated him in other respects. This led him to look further for a permanent place of abode. About this time Mr. John Winthrop, Jr., acting under a commission from the Massachusetts General Court, commenced a settlement at Nameaug, afterward called Pequot, and then New London. Mr. Chesebrough visited the place in 1645 for the purpose of making it his future home. He was kindly treated by Mr. Winthrop, and urged to settle there; but finding the place in several respects unsuitable to his expectations, he concluded not to stay. Subsequently he examined the Pawcatuck region, and finally concluded to settle at the head of Wequetequock Cove. He shared the friendship of Roger Williams, and was encouraged and assisted by him in removing his habitation to Pawcatuck. He did not, however, immediately remove his family there, and not until he had provided for them a comfortable place of abode. It was during the summer of 1849 that his family came to Wequetequock and occupied their new house in the wilderness. The marsh land bordering on Wequetequock Cove furnished hay for his stock in abundance.

He brought his entire family with him, which consisted of his wife and four sons, namely, Samuel, Nathaniel, John and Elisha. The two eldest and the youngest subsequently married and had families, and after the death of each, their widows married again. John died single in 1660.

Mr. Chesebrough, like most of the early planters, traded more or less with the Indians, and was also engaged in trade with people of Long Island and elsewhere. The first act of the General Assembly of Connecticut was an order prohibiting all persons from selling firearms and ammunition to the Indians; another act was passed in 1642 "forbidding smiths from doing any work for the Indians, or selling them any instruments or matter made of iron or steel without a license from two magistrates." Various other acts were passed regulating and in some cases prohibiting trade with the Indians. Mr. Chesebrough while living at Rehoboth, had incurred the displeasure of certain parties in the Plymouth Colony, and no sooner was he located here, than they informed the General Court of Connecticut that he had removed here for the purpose of selling firearms to the Indians; whereupon the Court, in November, 1649, issued a warrant "to the constable of Pequot to repair forthwith to Chesebrough of Long Island (where he was trading at the time), and to let him understand that the government of Connecticut doth dislike and distaste the way he is in and trade he doth drive among the Indians, and that they do require him to desist therefrom immediately; and that he should repair to Capt. Mason of Seabrook or some of the Magistrates upon the river (Connecticut) to give an account to him or them of what he hath done hitherto." Mr. Chesebrough at first disregarded this order, claiming that his new home was within the jurisdiction of Massachusetts, but subsequently, acting under the advice and assurance of Mr. Winthrop and other friends at Pequot, he so far yielded to the authorities of Connecticut as to engage to appear at the General Court at Hartford in March, 1651, some sixteen months after the issue of said order, and related to them the reason why he had taken up his abode at Wequetequock, and that he was not engaged in any unlawful trade with the Indians, and assured them that his religious opinions were orthodox, neither did he intend to remain alone in the wilderness, and was in hopes that in a short time he should be able to procure a competent company of desirable persons for the planting of the place. The court reluctantly permitted him to remain on condition that if he would give a bond of £300 not to prosecute any unlawful trade with the Indians, and that he would furnish them with the names of such persons as he could induce to settle at Pawcatuck before the next winter, they would not compel him to remove. While the planters of Pequot were friendly to Mr. Chesebrough, they preferred that he should become an inhabitant of that settlement, rather than to establish a new township. In September of the same year, Mr. Chesebrough again visited Hartford for the purpose of obtaining a legal title to the land he occupied. Mr. Winthrop and the deputies from Pequot engaged that if he would put himself on the footing of an inhabitant of Pequot he should have his lands confirmed to him by a grant of the town. To this he acceeded, but the bounds of Pequot did not include his lands, whereupon "on request" the court extended the bounds of the settlement to Pawcatuck River, and the town in November following gave him a house lot at Pequot, which he never occupied. In January, 1652, a large tract of land was given him by the town of Pequot, which was afterwards liberally enlarged until it embraced between two and three thousand acres, and was included within the following boundaries, namely, beginning at the harbor of Stonington, running northerly up the same, and Lambert's Cove, and Stony Brook to the old Post Road, thence following said road easterly to Anguilla Brook; thence down said brook and Wequetequock Cove and the Sound, to the place of beginning. Mr. Chesebrough succeeded in drawing around him a sufficient number of "acceptable persons" to satisfy the General Court; and the settlement of the town was begun, went on in a flourishing condition until 1654, when the planters here desired a separation for religious, as well as civil purposes. This measure was resisted by the planters at Pequot. Meantime, Massachusetts laid claim to the settlement, and the controversy went up to the court of the Commissioners of the United Colonies, and terminated in 1658 in awarding all the territory east of Mystic River to the Massachusetts Colony, under the name of Southertown, and so remained until 1662, when it was included in the new charter, and again became a part of the colony of Connecticut. In 1665, the name of Southertown was changed to that of Mystic, and in 1666, it was again changed to Stonington. Mr. Chesebrough was a man of more than ordinary ability, and held positions of trust not only in the Massachusetts Colony, but was prominent in the settlement of the town of Rehoboth, in Plymouth Colony. After his place at Wequetequock was included in the township of Pequot, he was elected deputy thereof to the General Court at Hartford in 1653-4-5-6, and on one occasion rate-maker or assessor.

When in 1658 the Massachusetts General Court asserted jurisdiction over this town, Mr. Chesebrough with others were appointed to manage the prudential affairs thereof, and one of the Commissioners to end small causes and deal in criminal matters. He held the office of Townsman (Selectman) until Southertown was annexed to Connecticut, and was the first man elected deputy after the reunion, 1653, '55, '57, '64, and succeeded in restoring amicable relations with the Court which had been seriously disturbed by the jurisdictional controversy. After his return he was elected first selectman of the town, and re-elected every year up to the time of his death, which took place June 9, 1667. His dwelling house stood on the west side of Wequetequock Cove, near the head of tide water.

THE WINTHROP FLEET

Eleven vessels brought 'the Great Emigration' of this year, viz:

ARBELLA the flagship

AMBROSE	WILLIAM AND FRANCIS
TALBOT	HOPEWELL
JEWEL	WHALE
CHARLES	SUCCESS
MAYFLOWER	TRIAL

The first five ships sailed April 8 from Yarmouth, Isle of Wight, and arrived at Salem June 13 and following days. The other half of the fleet sailed in May and arrived in July at various dates. Altogether they brought about seven hundred passengers of whom the following are presumed to have been on these ships.[1]

PALMER ANCESTRY

Descendants of Walter Palmer

45 Arms, Palmer, Sussex, England; Ralph Palmer possessor of estates in Sussex Co., Eng., (307) or two bars, gu each charged with Threefoils clipped in chief a greyhound currant sa. Crest—a demi panther, ramp guard issuing flames from ears and mouth, ppe holding a branch bert. fractured gu.

The name Palmer, in ancient records De Palmer (from the branch of palm borne by those soldiers of the Cross who had distinguished themselves in the Holy War) was conferred upon an Ancestor of the Family, Hugh de Palmer, by King Richard I, who as a reward for having slain a Paynim Knight in single combat, and for capturing one of the Saracen Standards, gave him permission to blazon upon his shield "three crescents, argent, divided by chevron" the heraldic token of Valor, and, to wear for motto, "Par set fortuna labori." The fourth crescent upon the chevron (was added at a later period, to mark this branch of the family from the Palmers of Castleton, in Northamptonshire, who are descended from the same Ancestor.

"Original List of Persons of Quality who came from Great Britain to the American Plantations," by J. C. Hotton, p. 137: Oct. 4, 1635, Joe Palmer, 12 yrs.; Thomas Moore, 26 yrs.; Thomas Smith, 24 yrs., on board the "Constant" to Va., Nos. 326-330; (p. 171), Mrs. Palmer, Anthony Palmer, Nicholas Palmer; (p. 24), Rebecca Palmer; (p. 107), Richard Palmer; (p. 463), Samuel Palmer, (p. 67), Thomas, etc.; (p. 133), William, etc.

Honorable Walter Palmer, born England, about 1585. 1651, purchased 12,000 acres bs. Nov. 10, 1661, married 2nd, Rebecca Short. He came to America, 1632, and was made a member of the Church at Roxbury, Sussex Co.

1. Walter Palmer, the progenitor of the family of his name, who first settled in Stonington, Conn., came to New England as early as 1628, with his brother, Abraham Palmer, a merchant of London, England, and nine associates. They went from Salem, Mass., through a pathless wilderness to a place called by the Indians Mishawam, where they found a man by the name of Thomas Walford, a smith. Here they remained until the next year, when they were joined by nearly one hundred people, who came with Thomas Graves, from Salem and laid the foundation of the town, which they named Charlestown, in honor of Charles I, June 24, 1629. It is claimed that Walter Palmer built the first dwelling house in Charlestown after it was organized as a township, on the two acres of land that were assigned and set to him by the authority of the new town. Walter Palmer's inclinations tended to stock raising and farming, but he soon found his land was inadequate to his business, notwithstanding which he continued to reside in Charlestown, until 1643. During his residence there, he purchased additional real estate, which he improved in his line of business as best he could. While thus engaged, he became acquainted with William Chesebrough, who lived at the time in Boston and Braintree, whose business pursuits were similar to those of Mr. Palmer, and after repeated interviews and consultations, they both decided to remove to the Plymouth Colony, and did so remove their families and with others, joined in the organization of the town of Rehoboth, as an independent township, which was continued as such until they should subject themselves to some other government. Walter Palmer was a prominent man when he lived in Massachusetts, and was admitted a freeman there, May 18, 1631, and held several local offices in that colony, and such was the estimation in which he was held by the first planters of Rehoboth and the confidence that they reposed in him, that his fellow townsmen elected him as their first representative to the General Court of Plymouth, and subsequently re-elected him to that office and also conferred upon him repeatedly the office of selectman and other local offices. His friend Chesebrough, not relishing the way and manner in which he was treated by the General Court of the Plymouth Colony, decided to look farther westward for a permanent place of abode.

(For further particulars see Stanton family). William Chesebrough, in pursuance of his arrangement with the General Court, invited his friend Walter Palmer, then living in Rehoboth, to come and join him here in the organization of another new township. While Mr. Palmer was considering this proposition, Thomas Miner, who had married his daughter Grace, and was then a resident of New London, was also invited to join the new settlement which he did, by obtaining a limited grant of land, of the town of New London. So 1653, marks the time when Walter Palmer came to Stonington to reside. He and his friend Chesebrough lived near each other, and both lie buried in the old Wequetequock burial place, with Thomas Stanton, the interpreter general of New England.

RECORDS OF TWO SANDWICH, MASSACHUSETTS SETTLERS

Descendants of Michael Turner & Joseph Winsor

Part II

By Caroline Lewis Kardell

GENEALOGICAL DATA

1. MICHAEL[1] TURNER of Sandwich, Mass., parents and birth unknown, was wed at Sandwich before 1648 (probably by 1640). His wife perhaps was named Ann(e) since two granddaughters were named Ann(e). Michael last appears in records on the 23 April 1675 Freemen's List.

Children (only one birth record but all probably born in Sandwich):

2. i. Susannah, b. 28 Sept. 1648 (see below)
3. ii. Ruhamah, birth record missing (see below)
4. iii. Isaac, birth record missing (see below). Although Isaac's birth is not recorded, in court records pertaining to Susannah he declares he is her brother and her birth in Sandwich is recorded in Plymouth records.

2. SUSANNAH[2] TURNER, daughter of Michael[1] Turner, born Sandwich, Mass., 28 Sept. 1648. There is no record of a marriage for her. She may have gone to Rhode Island with her brother and his family.

Child (by John Williams):

2. i. Anne, b. 13 day, 11 mo. 1671/2, Sandwich, Mass. (no further record).

3. RUHAMAH[2] TURNER, daughter of Michael[1] Turner, born Sandwich, Mass., perhaps ca. 1646. She married at Sandwich, 29 day, 6 mo. 1667, John Jennings (Quaker Records).

Children (births recorded at Sandwich):

i. Remembrance Jennings, b. 17 Sept. 1668
ii. Ann Jennings, b. 17 day, 8 mo., 1670
iii. John Jennings, b. 12 day, 3 mo., 1673
iv. Isaak Jennings, b. 3 July 1677
v. Elizabeth Jennings, b. 14 Apr. 1680; d. 13 Sept. 1682
vi. Samuel Jennings, b. 18 Feb. 1684

4. ISAAC[2] TURNER, son of Michael[1] Turner, born Sandwich, Mass., perhaps ca. 1646. He died in Kingstown, R.I., before 12 Sept. 1726, when his will was probated. He married at Sandwich, 15 day, 7 mo., 1673, Mary[2] Winsor, daughter of Joseph[1] Winsor (Quaker Records). She is probably the one mentioned in The Diary of Joshua Hempstead of New London, Conn. (1901) as follows: 1735, Sept. 6 & 7 (p. 293) — "Old Ms. Turner brot from Narrenganset (with her son last Spring) in a Horse Litter Died. Ms. Turner buried at ye Babtist meeting house in ye Neck." The will of Isaac Turner of Kingstown, R.I., was dated 16 March 1712/13, but not probated until 1726. It gives us the only list so far found of the children of Isaac and Mary (Winsor) Turner. (See The American Genealogist, V.23.)

Children (births not recorded at Sandwich, but probably born there):

i. Jonathan Turner (wife & children listed TAG, V.23, p.60)
ii. Benjamin Turner, d. 1 Feb. 1751/2 (TAG, V.23, p.60)
iii. Hannah Turner, m. —(?)— Chance (TAG, V.23, p.59)
iv. Margaret Turner, m. —(?)— Bridgewater; dau., Mary Bridgewater
v. Elizabeth Turner, d. unmarried (TAG, V.23, p.59)
5. vi. Samuel Turner, born ca. 1690 (see below)

5. SAMUEL[3] TURNER, son of Isaac[2] and Mary (Winsor) Turner, was born in either Sandwich, Mass. or Kingston, R.I. shortly after his parents moved there. He married, 4 March 1727/8 at Westerly, R.I., Rebecca Chesebrough, bapt. 9 Feb. 1708, daughter of Elisha and Rebecca (Mason) Chesebrough and widow of Andrew Davison (Chesebrough Family, p.32; TAG, V.23, p.61). The proof that ties Isaac Turner of Kingstown, R.I. to the Isaac Turner of Sandwich, Mass. is circumstantial. The witnesses of his will in Kingstown 16 March 1712/13 were Benjamin Perry and his first wife, Mary. Benjamin was son of Edward[1] Perry of Sandwich. Isaac Turner was a witness at the marriage of Benjamin's sister, Dorcas Perry, in Sandwich. The third witness to the will was Christopher Allen, son of John[2] (Ralph[1]) of Sandwich. These facts seem to place Isaac Turner among the group of settlers who left Sandwich for Rhode Island before 1700.

STONE FENCES

Stone fences bear silent witness to days of back-breaking toil.

Children (births all recorded at Stonington, Ct.):

i. Abigail, b. 6 Dec. 1728; m. 17 April 1755, Shubael Williams; moved to Islesboro, Maine, where she d. 5 April 1798 (History of Islesborough by Farrow).
ii. Prudence, b. 21 Sept. 1730; m. 8 May 1753, Moses Palmer (TAG, V.23, p.61)
6. iii. Samuel Turner, b. 17 Sept. 1733 (see next page)
iv. Joseph Turner, bapt. 30 May 1736
v. Hannah Turner, bapt. 19 Nov. 1738
vi. Elisha Turner, b. 1 March 1746
vii. Hannah Turner, d. in 1838, age 90

6. SAMUEL[4] TURNER, son of Samuel[3] and Rebecca (Cheseborough) Turner, was born in Stonington, Ct., 17 Sept. 1733. He went to Islesborough, Maine with his brother-in-law, Shubael Williams. Samuel married Abigail Nutter 26 Nov. 1761. The Stonington records do not identify her. I believe her to be Abigail Dewey, daughter of Jabez and Deborah (York) Dewey, born in Stonington 23 April 1733. She married, first, Richard Nutter, a foreigner (probably just from New Hampshire!) The Dewey Genealogy gives her marriage to Richard Nutter, but does not follow her further. However, the History of Islesborough (p. 148) says: "Mrs. Turner, Rev. Joshua Pendleton's wife's mother, died", but gives no date. The same source (p. 252) says Joshua Pendleton wed, first, Sally Nutter, and second, Sally Ames. One of them has to be the daughter of the Mrs. Turner whose death is listed on page 148. Obviously, Mrs. Turner's daughter who married Joshua Pendleton is Sally Nutter, and daughter of Richard Nutter who married Abigail Dewey. She was left a young widow with probably only one child when she married Samuel[4] Turner in Stonington and moved with him—and her daughter by her first husband—to Islesborough.

Children: (Births not recorded; may be others)

i. Isaac Turner, who is listed with his wife and children in Farrow's History of Islesborough (p. 290).
ii. Eunice Turner, married 8 April 1792 Robert Sherman, as his second wife. Six children are listed in the Islesborough history (pp. 278-80).

English Quaker & American Colonist

WILLIAM CHESEBROUGH FAMILY.

WILLIAM CHESEBROUGH, the first white man who made what is now Stonington, in Connecticut, his permanent place of abode, was born in Boston, Lincolnshire, England, in the year 1594, where he m. Anna Stevenson, December 6th, 1620. He was a gunsmith, and worked at his trade in England, and in this country, until he came to Stonington in 1649, when he changed his occupation to that of farming and stock raising, occupying and improving the large grants of land given him by the town of Pequot, now New London.

In the early part of the year 1630 he joined a large party of immigrants who came with John Winthrop, Esq., to this country. Mr. Chesebrough located himself in Boston, Mass., and soon after became a member of the first church. He was admitted a freeman of the Massachusetts Colony in May, 1631, and afterwards took an active part in public affairs. In 1632, Mr. Chesebrough was elected as "one of two" from Boston to unite with two from every plantation to confer with the court about raising a public stock, and "Prince" in his "Annals" says that this seems to pave the way for a house of representation in the General Court.

In 1634, Mr. Chesebrough was elected constable of Boston, where he continued to reside for several years. Previous to 1640 he removed to Braintree, and that year was elected deputy to the Massachusetts General Court. Soon after which he removed his residence to Rehoboth, Plymouth Colony, where in 1643 his list was returned at £450. The next year lots were drawn for a division of the woodland near the town, and Mr. Chesebrough received lot No. 4. During this year the planters of Rehoboth drew up and signed a compact by which they agreed to be governed by nine persons, "according to law and equity until we shall subject ourselves jointly to some other government." Mr. Chesebrough was a party to that transaction, which was participated in by thirty of the planters of the new settlement. He had taken an active and prominent part in organizing the town of Rehoboth, and at a public meeting held July 12, 1644, his services were recognized by the town in ordering that he "should have division in all lands of Seakunk, for one hundred and fifty three pounds, besides what he is to have for his own proportion, and that in way of consideration for the pains and charges he hath been at for setting off this plantation." He was propounded for freeman at the General Court in Plymouth in 1645, but was not admitted till 1648. Notwithstanding the prominent part he acted in establishing the plantation of Rehoboth, and the recognition of his services by the new town, he was not treated with much favor by the General Court of that colony, which ordered him to be arrested for an affray with an Indian by the name of Vassamequine, and harshly treated him in other respects. This led him to look further for a permanent place of abode. About this time Mr. John Winthrop, Jr., acting under a commission from the Massachusetts General Court, commenced a settlement at Nameaug, afterward called Pequot, and then New London. Mr. Chesebrough visited the place in 1645 for the purpose of making it his future home. He was kindly treated by Mr. Winthrop, and urged to settle there; but finding the place in several respects unsuitable to his expectations, he concluded not to stay. Subsequently he examined the Pawcatuck region, and finally concluded to settle at the head of Wequetequock Cove. He shared the friendship of Roger Williams, and was encouraged and assisted by him in removing his habitation to Pawcatuck. He did not, however, immediately remove his family there, and not until he had provided for them a comfortable place of abode. It was during the summer of 1849 that his family came to Wequetequock and occupied their new house in the wilderness. The marsh land bordering on Wequetequock Cove furnished hay for his stock in abundance.

He brought his entire family with him, which consisted of his wife and four sons, namely, Samuel, Nathaniel, John and Elisha. The two eldest and the youngest subsequently married and had families, and after the death of each, their widows married again. John died single in 1660.

Mr. Chesebrough, like most of the early planters, traded more or less with the Indians, and was also engaged in trade with people of Long Island and elsewhere. The first act of the General Assembly of Connecticut was an order prohibiting all persons

Mr. Chesebrough, like most of the early planters, traded more or less with the Indians, and was also engaged in trade with people of Long Island and elsewhere. The first act of the General Assembly of Connecticut was an order prohibiting all persons from selling firearms and ammunition to the Indians; another act was passed in 1642 "forbidding smiths from doing any work for the Indians, or selling them any instruments or matter made of iron or steel without a license from two magistrates." Various other acts were passed regulating and in some cases prohibiting trade with the Indians. Mr. Chesebrough while living at Rehoboth, had incurred the displeasure of certain parties in the Plymouth Colony, and no sooner was he located here, than they informed the General Court of Connecticut that he had removed here for the purpose of selling firearms to the Indians; whereupon the Court, in November, 1649, issued a warrant "to the constable of Pequot to repair forthwith to Chesebrough of Long Island (where he was trading at the time), and to let him understand that the government of Connecticut doth dislike and distaste the way he is in and trade he doth drive among the Indians, and that they do require him to desist therefrom immediately; and that he should repair to Capt. Mason of Seabrook or some of the Magistrates upon the river (Connecticut) to give an account to him or them of what he hath done hitherto." Mr. Chesebrough at first disregarded this order, claiming that his new home was within the jurisdiction of Massachusetts, but subsequently, acting under the advice and assurance of Mr. Winthrop and other friends at Pequot, he so far yielded to the authorities of Connecticut as to engage to appear at the General Court at Hartford in March, 1651, some sixteen months after the issue of said order, and related to them the reason why he had taken up his abode at Wequetequock, and that he was not engaged in any unlawful trade with the Indians, and assured them that his religious opinions were orthodox, neither did he intend to remain alone in the wilderness, and was in hopes that in a short time he should be able to procure a competent company of desirable persons for the planting of the place. The court reluctantly permitted him to remain on condition that if he would give a bond of £300 not to prosecute any unlawful trade with the Indians, and that he would furnish them with the names of such persons as he could induce to settle at Pawcatuck before the next winter, they would not compel him to remove. While the planters of Pequot were friendly to Mr. Chesebrough, they preferred that he should become an inhabitant of that settlement, rather than to establish a new township. He held the office of Townsman (Selectman) until Southertown was annexed to Connecticut, and was the first man elected deputy after the reunion, 1653, '55, '57, '64, and succeeded in restoring amicable relations with the Court which had been seriously disturbed by the jurisdictional controversy. After his return he was elected first selectman of the town, and re-elected every year up to the time of his death, which took place June 9, 1667. His dwelling house stood on the west side of Wequetequock Cove, near the head of tide water.

Peace, harmony and unity have long prevailed between the Grand Lodge of Texas, its constituent Lodges and the various appendant Masonic organizations in Texas. As Grand Master of Masons in Texas, I am vitally concerned that this peace, harmony and unity be preserved. The appointment of Brother Allen Commander as Deputy of the Supreme Council of the A.A.S.R. threatens to disrupt this peace, harmony and unity. This appointment appears to violate the spirit, if not the letter, of the statutes of the Supreme Council which require that a Deputy be a member of subordinate Bodies in the jurisdiction for which he was appointed. Brother Commander is not a Texas Mason and is not familiar with Texas Masonry. His appointment is an insult to all Texas Masons, and particularly those who have labored long and ably in the quarries of Freemasonry. The Grand Lodge of Texas, by its Constitution and Laws, has reserved the right, at its discretion, to withdraw approval for Texas Masons to belong to any organization predicating membership on Masonic membership. I am appointing a Committee of distinguished Texas Masons to advise me as to what action I should take in this matter.

January 11, 1974 - Approximately 11:00 A.M. Henry C. Clausen called me and stated that my wire had been read to him. He is in San Francisco. He said he did not realize that Allen Commander was not a Texas Mason. That he concurred with me. That he would remove Commander as his Deputy. That he needed my counsel as to the person he should appoint. That he realized I spoke his language and appreciated that fact. I told him I was only interested in Masonry in Texas. That I had recommended J.W. Chandler to him. He said he would dig up the file when he gets back to Washington.

I suggested that he remove Commander as quickly as possible. He asked me to talk to Commander, suggest that he resign, and that would smooth things out for him(Clausen) and would make his job a little easier. That as ~~xxxxxxxxx~~ if I would talk to Commander today, he would remove him today. That it would be just as quick as that. That he was telling me now that he will remove Commander, whether or not Commander gets the message from me.
I have an appointment with Commander at 5:30 P.M. at the Criterion Club over the Fannin Bank Bldg. to tell him.

Brother Clausen said he only appointed Commander because he didn't want anyone connected with the McKee - I assured him that J.W. Had nothing to do with McKee, but that I would not presume to do more than suggest a replacement and certainly sympathized with the gigantic task of running the SR which he has. He repeatedly said "We talk the same language"- which, I suppose, means that we say what we mean.

(on 1-11-74

1/14/74 At 5:35 P.M. I met with Allen Commander in the Criterion Club. He suggested that we have a drink, and I told him I wanted to tell him something before we had a drink, because he might not want to buy me one, after he heard what I had to say. I then told him his appointment as Deputy was creating unrest in Texas Masonry, and that he would receive a call from Clausen, and I hoped he would tell Clausen that he had found he would not have enough time to properly function as his Deputy, and that he therefore was resigning as such. Commander asked me had I discussed this with Clausen and I replied that Clausen had called me, and stated that he would remove Commander from office, but it would be easier for everyone concerned, if I would talk to him and sort of pave the way for Clausen's action. I told Commander that, since he was not a Texas mason, had not been through the chairs in a blue lodge - or, to my knowledge, any other Masonic body, his appointment had lowered the morale of many, many, leaders of Masonry in Texas. We visited until about 6:50 at which time I left to go to a party at the Rice Hotel - arriving there about 7:10 P.M. I then called Clausens San Francisco office, and ~~xxxxxxx~~ his Secretary told the operator (telephone op.) that Clausen had left for the day. I then called Clausen's home (415+0v 1-9322) but no answer. I called again at approx. 8:30 P.M. - no ans., again @ approx. 9:30- no ans. at approx 11:00 P.M. (CDST) I caught Bro. Clausen at home. I told him of my conversation with Bro. Commander. He thanked me, said that he would have breakfast with him in the morning(?) (I couldn't figure how he and Commander could get together the next AM unless one flew to meet the other - but that is what he said), and that he(Clausen) would issue the Order removing Commander as his deputy on Monday. I told him Commander was very personable and could be of great help to Scottish Rite in Texas if he'd make himself available for speech-making. Commander had indicated he wanted to be of service of some sort in our meeting at 5:35 P.M., a nd I had suggested he could help us in that manner.Clausen then asked me to "take Commander under my wing" and assured me he would remove Commander as his Deputy on Monday.

Masonry in many respects is like a watch. The Main Spring is the Blue Lodge from which all energy flows to keep the mechanism running & the wheels & cogs & hands & face are the ~~Grand~~ Orders which depend on the Blue Lodge for their existence — and the balance wheel is made up of the leaders of masonry — you men who just stood up. men who have been torn from the main stream of life - refined by the fire of years of toil & hard work in the crucible of the Blue Lodge, Scottish Rite, York Rite — and honed & polished by love of this great Mechanism - this Watch - we call Freemasonry in Texas - that has brought it from 7 men ~~on the~~ under a tree in Brazoria in 1836 to the present state of 230,000 men —

LETTER TO CLAUSEN.

IF YOUR PURPOSE

Your appointment of Alan Cmdr 33° as your Deputy is not ~~intention~~ acceptable to the Grand Master of Texas AF & AM.

His difficult, if not impossible, to understand the process (?) thru which your mind progressed to select the present Deputy ~~who does not even know~~ and who resided in Texas ~~for a very short time~~ if your intention was to further the progress of S.R. in Texas, you MUST HAVE HAD a ~~temporary~~ "black out" of your mental processes.

If your intention ~~was to~~ "experiment" with a "way out" idea, surely you could have selected a smaller, less close-knit ~~one~~ than the largest in the Southern Jurisdiction.

If your purpose was to figuratively "slap the face" and insult the honor & dignity of every Freemason under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Texas, then your action in appointing Bro. Alan Commander as your Deputy in Texas, you are successful.

Your affiliation with Houston Lodge only 27 days before your appointment as ~~Deputy~~ your deputy

Illustrious Sir:

Your appointment of Illustrious Alan Commander as your Deputy in this Jurisdiction is not acceptable to the Grand Master of Masons A.F.&A.M. of Texas.

Through the leadership of men like Lee Lockwood Alan Shivers J. W. Chandler and R. Dillard Scottish Rite has made unequalled Progress unequalled by any other Grand Jurisdiction during the past 22 years.

It is difficult for Grand Master to understand the process of reasoning you employed in your selection of a Deputy who, according to information received by Grand Master, never served in any Masonic office - other than as President of the Saigon Square and Compass Club.

In trying to arrive at why you made such a selection, Grand Master asks the following questions

(1) Was it your intention to "experiment" with methods of Masonic leadership in Texas a "way out" idea in hopes that Texas would double its S.R. membership as it has in the past 22 years under the leadership (?) of an "outsider" one not at all versed in the traditions of Masonry in Texas?

unofficial policy —

If you therefore, hear ~~&~~ rumors during the next few weeks, do not pay attention to them — Do your ~~Perform~~ perform your tasks as you always have — to the best of your ability —

Be assured that your Grand Master & the Grand Lodge Officers —

If you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed —
If you will not fight when your victory will be sure & not too costly
There may come a time when you will have to fight with all the odds against you, & only a precarious chance of success! —
There may be even a worse case — you may have to fight when there is no hope of victory —

Clausen said he had ordered Commander to put in DA/EC certain things which had to be done in Texas and therefore he had (this is what I understood anyway) asked Commander to push them (I suppose at the conference). That he (Clausen) then called the Conference Leaders - FBM's and Coast Rivers, and he figured then could meet him in Washington would be Sunday the 27th of Jan. He said there were other things he wanted to go over with them also.

Illustrious Sir and dear Brother Clausen:

Thank you for your courteous recognition of my concern for the peace, unity, and harmony of our Texas Masonic Brothers, by your prompt agreement to recall the appointment of the new Deputy in Texas in our conversations Friday, January 11th. Thank you also for so promptly returning my phone call to you on Tuesday, January 15, 1974 in which you assured me that you had visited with your Deputy on Saturday (I think you meant Sunday) and had performed as promised.

In our conversation Tuesday, January 15th, you asked me to send you a letter containing the specifics" which prompted my telegram to you on January 9, 1974, wherein I stated that the appointment of Brother Allen Commander threatens to disrupt the peace, harmony, and unity of Texas Masonry. ~~It is therefore in this context that I share with you some of the complaints and observations which have been transmitted to me concerning the selection of the new Deputy. Such observations are as follows.~~ SPECIFICS ARE:

(1) Is the membership of the Scottish Rite in Texas so lacking in leadership ability and integrity that it is necessary to appoint an outsider, a man with no deep roots or experience in Texas Masonry, as the Supreme Council's Leader and Supreme Authority in Texas?

(2) It is an affront to all Texas Scottish Rite Masons and casts aspersions on the character, integrity, responsibility, and leadership capacity of Texas Masons.

(3) It will seriously curtail and damage the membership drives for Scottish Rite Masonry which is already struggling to overcome a National decline in all Fraternal memberships.

(4)All Masonry, including but not ~~limiting~~ limited to the Scottish Rite, must depend upon enthusiastic volunteers in all facets of its activities, and the unpopular appointment of an outsider to lead Scottish Rite Masonry can only result in a demoralizing influence.

(5) Many contributors to the Scottish Rite Hospital, the Scottish Rite Dormitory, the Almoner's Fund, the Scottish Rite Foundation, etc. unquestionably will be reluctant to contribute where there is wide-spread lack of acceptance of Scottish Rite leadership in Texas.

(6) It is difficult to understand the reasoning process employed in selecting a Deputy who apparently has never served in any Masonic Office of responsibility in the Scottish Rite to lead more than 74,000 Scottish Rite Masons in Texas.

(7) What will happen to the momentum and accomplishments made in Scottish Rite Masonry in Texas?

(8) Why was a man appointed who does not belong to a Texas Blue Lodge, and who has only affiliated with a Texas Scottish Rite body less than 28 days before being appointed Deputy?

On January 9, 1974 I WIRED YOU OF MY CONCERN Regarding the preservation of peace, harmony, and unity in this Grand Jurisdiction. The foregoing remarks and expressions of sentiment conveyed to me by the Masons of Texas are conveyed to you for the sole purpose of enabling you to feel the pulse and evaluate the gravity of the situation which prompted my telegram to you January 9, 1974. There is no intention to question the character or integrity of your selection or your authority to make such selection.

By your ready agreement to recall ~~xxxx~~ Deputy Allen Commander in our telephone conversations Friday, January 11, 1974, you obviously ~~xxx~~ sensed the urgency of the situation and the necessity of prompt action when you agreed to recall him on Monday, January 14, 1974. It is my feeling, that the sooner you make this announcement to the Texas Scottish Rite membership, the quicker peace, harmony, and unity will again prevail in Texas, ~~and the Scottish Rite Bodies of Texas can "get on with it".~~

Can I expect your offical announcement immediately?

Fraternally and sincerely yours,

Kanuary 11, 1974 - Approximately 11:00 A.M. Henry C. Clausen called me and stated that my wire had been read to him. He is in San Francisco. He said he did not realize that Allen Commander was not a Texas Mason. That he comcurred with me. That he would remove Commander as his Deputy. That he needed my counsel as to the person he should appoint. That he realized I spoke his language and appreciated that fact. I told him I was only interested in Masonry in Texas. That I had recommended J.W. Chandler to him. He said he would dig up the file when he gets back to Washington.

I suggested that he remove Commander as quickly as possible. He asked me to talk to Commander, suggest that he resign, and that would smooth things out for him(Clausen) and would make his job a little easier. That as ~~xxxxxxxx~~ if I would talk to Commander today, he would remove him today. That it would be just as quick as that. That he was telling me now that he will remove Commander, whether or not Commander gets the message from me.
I have an appointment with Commander at 5:30 P.M. at the Criterion Club over the Fannin Bank Bldg. to tell him.

Brother Clausen said he only appointed Commander because he didn't want anyone connected with the McKee - I assured him that J.W. Had nothing to do with McKee, but that I would not presume to do more than suggest a replacement and certainly sympathized with the gigantic task of running the SR which he has. He repeatedly said "We talk the same language"- which, I suppose, means that we say what we mean.

(on 1-11-74

1/14/74 At 5:35 P.M. I met with Allen Commander in the Criterion Club. He suggested that we have a drink, and I told him I wanted to tell him something before we had a drink, because he might not want to buy me one, after he heard what I had to say. I then told him his appointment as Deputy was creating unrest in Texas Masonry, and that he would receive a call from Clausen, and I hoped he would tell Clausen that he had found he would not have enough time to properly function as his Deputy, and that he therefore was resigning as such. Commander asked me had I discussed this with Clausen and I replied that Clausen had called me, and stated that he would remove Commander from office, but it would be easier for everyone concerned, if I would talk to him and sort of pave the way for Clausen's action. I told Commander that, since he was not a Texas mason, had not been through the chairs in a blue lodge - or, to my knowledge, any other Masonic body, his appointment had lowered the morale of many, many, leaders of Masonry in Texas. We visited until about 6:50 at which time I left to go to a party at the Rice Hotel - arriving there about 7:10 P.M. I then called Clausens San Francisco office, and ~~xxxxxxx~~ his Secretary told the operator (telephone op.) that Clausen had left for the day. I then called Clausen's home (415+0v 1-9322) but no answer. I called again at approx. 8:30 P.M. - no ans., again @ approx. 9:30- no ans. at approx 11:00 P.M. (CDST) I caught Bro. Clausen at home. I told him of my conversation with Bro. Commander. He thanked me, said that he would have breakfast with him in the morning(?) (I couldn't figure how he and Commander could get together the next AM unless one flew to meet the other - but that is what he said), and that he(Clausen) would issue the Order removing Commander as his deputy on Monday. I told him Commander was very personable and could be of great help to Scottish Rite in Texas if he'd make himself available for speech-making. Commander had indicated he wanted to be of service of some sort in our meeting at 5:35 P.M., a nd I had suggested he could help us in that manner.Clausen then asked me to "take Commander under my wing" and assured me he would remove Commander as his Deputy on Monday.

Illustrious Sir:

As one Masonic Leader to another, I would like to share with you a matter which is rapidly reaching major proportions and which I fear may irreparably damage the peace and harmony and ultimately the public image of Masonry in Texas. I have received literally hundreds of telphone calls and personal complaints concerning the appointment of the new Scottish Rite Deputy for the Supreme Council in the State of Texas. I feel very strongly my responsibility, as I am sure you do, in providing and maintaining an atmosphere in which Masons can and will be motivated to give freely of their time and talents for the best interest and the progress of the Craft. All too often our best leadership talent is found in the business and professional world where many demands are made upon the time of these men, therefore it is essential that internal strife and discord within the Fraternity be prevented if we are to attract busy men to roles of leadership in the Fraternity.

It is therefore in this context that I share with you the substance of some of the complaints and observations which have been transmitted to me concerning the selection of the new Deputy. Such observations are as follows:

(1) Is the membership of the Scottish Rite in Texas so lacking in leadership ability and integrity that it is necessary to appoint an outsider, a man with no deep roots or experience in Texas Masonry, as the Supreme Council's Leader and Supreme Authority in Texas.

(2) It is an affont to all Texas Scottish Rite Masons and cast apersions on the character, integrity, responsibility and leadership capacity of Texas Masons.

(3) It will seriously curtail and damage the membership drives for Scottish Rite Masonry which is already struggling to overcome a National Decline in all Fraternal membership.

(4) All Masonry, including but not limiting to the Scottish Rite, must depend upon enthusiastic volunteers in all facets of its activites and the unpopular appointment of an outsider to lead Scottish Rite Masonry can only result in a demoralizing influence.

(5) Many contributors to the Scottish Rite Hospital, the Scottish Rite Dormitory, the Almoners Funds, the Scottish Rite Foundation, etc. unquestionably will be reluctant to contribute where there is wide spread lack of acceptance of Scottish Rite. LEADERSHIP IN TEXAS.

(6) It is difficult to understand the reasoning process employed in selecting a Deputy who apparently has never served in any Masonic Office of responsibility in the Scottish Rite to lead more than 74,000 Scottish Rite Masons in Texas.

(7) What will happen to the momentum and accomplishments made in Scottish Rite Masonry in Texas.

(8) Why was a man appointed who does not belong to a Texas Blue Lodge and who has only affiliated with a Texas Scottish Rite body less than twenty-eight days before being appointed Deputy.

(9) Is this a sanction imposed upon Texas Scottish Rite Masons by reason of the unfortunate indiscretion of one Scottish Rite Leader which brought discredit upon Texas Masonry. Why should the apple tree be cut down because of one bad apple?

(10) If we are to be treated like immature juveniles BY BEING SUBJECTED TO GROUP PUNISHMENT— why waste our time working.

The foregoing remarks and expressions of sentiment conveyed to me by the Masons of Texas are conveyed to you for the sole purpose of enabling you to feel the pulse and evaluate the gravity of the situation. There is no intention to question the character or integrity of your selection or your authority to make such selection.

It is my considered opinion based upon the foregoing which is the consensus of the hundreds of brethren who have communicated with me and conceiveable thousand s of other Masons the length and breath of Texas that this has become a matter of grave concern to me in that I fear if it continues it may erode away the confidence the rank and file have in our leadership and may adversly affect the peace and harmony of the Craft for years to come. Dear Dan:

I am enclosing herewith a proposed letter for your consideration. For your information, I have discussed the contents of such letter with Jack Ball and we have endeavored to draft it in such language that there are no liableous or provocative statements which might result in some character of legal action or Fraternal reprisal. There is much between the lines which has purposely not been included but which unquestionably will be conveyed to the recipient.

It is my observation that the safest course to follow would be not to write any letter at this time in order to have an opportunity to evaluate and assess the psychological affect of our meeting in Fort Worth as well as our lack of attendance at the luncheon in Washington. If however, you feel that you must write a letter at this time, I believe from a legal standpoint that you will be safe in using all or any part of the enclosed proposed letter. I trust that I have been able to be of some assistance to you in this unfortunate matter.

Sincerely,

Robert B. O'Connor

Peace, harmony and unity have long prevailed between the Grand Lodge of Texas, its constituent Lodges and the various appendant Masonic organizations in Texas. As Grand Master of Masons in Texas, I am vitally concerned that this peace, harmony and unity be preserved. The appointment of Brother Allen Commander as Deputy of the Supreme Council of the A.A.S.R. threatens to disrupt this peace, harmony and unity. This appointment appears to violate the spirit, if not the letter, of the statutes of the Supreme Council which require that a Deputy be a member of subordinate Bodies in the jurisdiction for which he was appointed. Brother Commander is not a Texas Mason and is not familiar with Texas Masonry. His appointment is an insult to all Texas Masons, and particularly those who have labored long and ably in the quarries of Freemasonry. The Grand Lodge of Texas, by its Constitution and Laws, has reserved the right, at its discretion, to withdraw approval for Texas Masons to belong to any organization predicating membership on Masonic membership. I am appointing a Committee of distinguished Texas Masons to advise me as to what action I should take in this matter.

I am not at all pleased about the appointment. But I think we should keep our poise, ~~and~~ dignity and reserve. In my opinion we should acquiesce, although we do not approve, with the knowledge that this too "will go away" and work itself out in due time. If there is enough unfavorable reaction this will affect adversely the number of petitions for the Scottish Rite Degrees and probably bring about a change. Furthermore, there is nothing inherently wrong with Scottish Rite Masonry per se and in my opinion the 74,000 odd Scottish Rite Masons in Texas should not be punished. ~~Let them~~ In my opinion this is their problem and they should be permitted to work it out among themselves so long as no Laws of our Grand Lodge are violated.

If it is felt that a protest or complaint to the Grand Commander is compelled, then I suggest that we make no threats, ~~and~~ leave our options open and ~~I suggest that our~~ Grand Master write a dignified letter to the Grand Commander somewhat as follows:

"Without questioning either his character or qualifications otherwise, your appointment as Deputy in Texas of your Supreme Council of a person without broad background in Masonry in Texas ~~Council~~ is widely considered by many as an insult to all Scottish Rite Masons in Texas and an affront to all Masons in general in Texas and to our Texas Grand Lodge.

for the good of masonry in general, and the Scottish Rite in particular, in Texas it is fervently hoped that you will act promptly to rectify this situation by revoking the appointment, or obtaining the resignation of the appointee, and then appoint a qualified long time resident of Texas with broad Texas Masonic background and service to masonry in Texas. It is thought that masonry in Texas can do well without the Scottish Rite but that the Scottish Rite can not continue to do well in Texas without the support of the master masons in general in Texas or without the ~~good~~ undivided will of the Grand Lodge of Texas.

This is considered to be a serious matter, ~~and your immediate~~ hearing Texas. ~~response is invited.~~ The writer would ~~hate~~ to see either masonry in general, or the Scottish Rite in particular, in Texas harmed and your immediate attention is invited."

I would think the above would be sufficient to get the message "over" to the Grand Commander and sufficient to induce him to act accordingly without being under the pressure of any direct threat. If he fails to respond, or if his response is unsatisfactory, and if it is then felt that further action is compelled, then our Grand Master could inform him substantially as follows:

"Your failure to respond satisfactorily to our letter to you dated (Initial date) is
